AMERICANS DIE WHEN BRITISH SHIP IS SUNK

MAY HAVE FORFEITED CLAIMS TO IMMUNITY IN SUBSEA WARFARE

Washington Starts Inquiry Into Reported Sinking of the Marina and the Rowanmore Without Warning

Washington, Oct. 30.—Destruction of the British horse transport Marina, by a German submarine, without warning, with possible loss of American lives and the endangering of the lives of several American citizens in the submarine attack on the British freighter Rowanmore, reported from Queenstown today by American Consul Frost, contain possibilities of reviving the submarine issue between the United States and Germany.

Investigation, officials realize, may disclose there has been no violation of the German pledges to the United States.

Nevertheless the first reports incomplete and transmitted by the American consul as "provisional," caused some uneasiness.

The report on the destruction of the Marina refers to the ship as a British horse transport. If it turns out she was in the transport service of the British government it may be found that the mixed crew of British and American horse-tenders could claim none of the immunity against attack without warning, that attaches to a merchant ship.

Orders were dispatched at once to gather all information to determine the status of the Marina and the crew.

Although no American lives were lost in the submarine attack on the Rowanmore and the ship altered her own status if she made an attempt to escape, officials were disturbed by the report that the boats were shelled after they had cleared from the abandoned ship. The facts are expected to be determined by investigation which was ordered to begin at once.

AMERICAN LIVES LOST.

London, Oct. 30.—A private telegram received at the American consulate this afternoon from Crookhaven says that a number of Americans were drowned when the British steamship Marina was torpedoed by a German submarine.

THE FIRST REPORTS.

London, Oct. 30 (11:05 a. m.)—The American embassy today received a report from Wesley Frost, American consul at Queenstown, that the British steamship Marina had been torpedoed without warning.

It is believed a number of Americans were on board. Only thirty-four members of the crew of 104 have been picked up and landed at Crookhaven, Ireland.

Lloyds' reports that a steamer anchored off Crookhaven, Ireland, signals that she had picked up the shipwrecked crew of the steamship Marina of Glasgow.

The Marina, which has been engaged in transatlantic service, was a vessel of 5,240 tons gross, built in 1900. She was last reported as having arrived at Glasgow on Oct. 10, after having sailed from Newport News on Sept. 21.

Mr. Frost is now procuring affidavits from survivors.

A report on the sinking on Oct. 26 of the British steamer Rowanmore also was made to the American embassy today by Mr. Frost, who states that the vessel was torpedoed. Seven Americans, including five Filipinos, were on board the Rowanmore. Several of them have given Mr. Frost affidavits stating that a submarine shelled the lifeboats while they were being lowered and after they were clear of the ship without causing loss of life.

FIFTY SIGNED AS HORSEMEN.

Newport News, Va., Oct. 30.—There were 50 Americans on British steamship Marina, reported torpedoed without warning, in today's dispatches from London, when she sailed from Newport News. The Americans were signed here as horsemen. They were all white and gave their homes as in various sections of the United States. Local agents for the owners of the Marina say cable advices reported the vessel leaving Glasgow for Newport News on Oct. 25, in ballast.

LABOR LEADERS TO SPEAK HERE TUESDAY

Hon. J. B. Lennon, treasurer of the American Federation of Labor, and Hon. Jonathan O'Mara, general chairman of the O. R. C., on the Monon railroad, will speak at the Moose hall on Tuesday evening. These men are among the best labor speakers in the country and will pay special attention to the Adamson law.

Other political questions will be discussed. However, the greater portions of their addresses will be devoted to an explanation of the Adamson measure and events leading up to its passage by congress.

SHOWS GAIN OF 25 PER CENT.

Go-to-Church Sunday Brings Up New York Attendance.

New York, Oct. 30.—Go-to-church Sunday increased the attendance in the Protestant churches in New York yesterday about 25 per cent above the normal. In Manhattan it is estimated that 168,200 persons, or approximately 90 per cent of the total membership, went to church. In Brooklyn the proportion was about the same. The proportion of men in attendance was a little more than one-third of the total. The committee in charge announced today that it was well pleased with the result of its efforts.

NAVAL CENSORS TRANSFERRED.

Action Not Due to British Protests, Declares Admiral Benson.

Washington, Oct. 30.—Transfer of Lieuts. Charles R. Clark and H. S. Keep, naval censors at Sayville and Siasconsett wireless stations, respectively, to other posts was announced today by Admiral Benson, chief of operations. The admiral denied published reports that his action was taken because Great Britain protested that the officers had permitted unneutral information to go out concerning the recent raid of the German submarine U-53 on the New England coast.

ROADS ACCUSE B. L. E. ORDER

Expels Members for Testifying for Roads in Headlight Case, Charge.

PAULDING TELLS THE COMMISSION

Is Cut Short When Hearing is Limited to Tests on N. Y. Central Lines

Washington, Oct. 30.—At the outset of a hearing today before the interstate commerce commission over the proposed requirement that railroads equip locomotives with high power electric headlights, charges were made by representatives of the roads that officers of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers had expelled members of the order for testifying favorably to the roads and against the practicability of the high power light.

"We have been taunted with the statement that we have been unable to get engineers to testify for us in this case," C. C. Paulding, of the New York Central, told the commission. "The reason for this is plain. Two engineers who were witnesses at previous hearings of the commission for the railroads have been expelled from the order."

Mr. Paulding did not finish his explanation because the commission decided to limit the hearings to testimony regarding a test of the headlights made on the New York Central in September.

Statement Given Out.

A statement was given out by the carriers however, that Wm. H. Rother, John T. Heller of Indianapolis, and Alexander E. Martin, also of Indiana, all engineers, were ousted recently under a provision of the constitution of the engineers' brotherhood providing such penalty when a member "by verbal or written communication, interferes with its legislative plan or makes suggestions detrimental to it." Rother, the statement says, was tried by his local after giving testimony favorable to the roads and when it sustained him, W. S. Stone, head of the brotherhood, took steps to abolish the local.

Mr. Paulding was prepared to ask the commission to secure a promise from Mr. Stone that this provision of the brotherhood's constitution be suspended to allow engineers to testify without fear of reprisal, but the commission decided to have only three witnesses at this time. One for the carriers, one for the labor organizations and one for the commission, to be confined entirely to the New York test.

The proposed rule is being opposed particularly by large roads in the east where traffic is congested, on the theory that its use would result in an increase in accidents. Installation of the light, it has been estimated, would cost the carriers about $6,000,000. The brotherhoods contend the headlight would be beneficial in train operation.

MAY USE TWO MACHINES.

Commissioners Will Place Two Voting Machines in Some Precincts.

Calvin H. Brown and J. E. Stults, respectively democratic and republican county chairmen, have written to the board of county commissioners authorizing them to use two voting machines instead of one in the seventh, twenty-seventh and twenty-eighth precincts. In these precincts the vote normally is in excess of what one machine can register in the voting day from 6 a. m. to 6. p. m.

BULLETIN.

London, Oct. 30.—In reply to an inquiry from the American embassy the admiralty said today that there were forty-nine Americans in the crew of the Marina.

CONVENTION CLOSES WITH MASS MEETING

Session of Gideons Called Unparalleled Success—Indianapolis Next.

The two-day state convention of the Gideons held here Saturday and Sunday came to a close with the large mass meeting at the Plymouth Congregational church yesterday afternoon. This was pronounced one of the best conventions ever held.

Two Fort Wayne men were among the officers elected for the coming year. They are George Crowe, vice president, and J. I. Thompson, secretary and treasurer. Clarence Bear, of Terre Haute, is the new president. Shortly after their election the new officers decided upon Indianapolis as the next meeting place.

Resolutions were drawn up by the committee appointed for the purpose thanking the First M. E. church, the business men, the newspapers and the public for assisting in making the convention a success.

MRS. FAIRBANKS WILL REMAIN AS PRESIDENT

Indianapolis, Oct. 30.—The annual convention of the Indiana clubs will open here Tuesday evening and continue until Friday. Mrs. Carlyn Fairbank, of Fort Wayne, is making arrangements for the convention. She probably will be elected president for next year, it was said today, as the custom in the federation is to have the officers serve two years.

Interest in the election of first vice president is being shown in advance of the sessions. Dr. Amelia R. Keller has served two years in that office. Mrs. E. C. Rumpler, of Indianapolis, and Mrs. Helen Baumgartner, of Rockport, are mentioned as possible candidates for the office.

QUALIFICATION SHOOT.

Five Men Become Eligible to Participate in National Contest.

The Fort Wayne Rifle and Revolver club Sunday held the second shoot for the National Rifle association qualification scores on company E range. The qualification for marksmen is 160, for sharp shooter 190, and for expert 210, out of a possible score of 250. Five men qualified for sharp shooters' buttons and two for marksmens' buttons. The scores are as follows: J. E. Hall, 209; O. E. Archibald, 204; W. Van Beemer, 197; R. H. Chadwick, 195; C. L. Clover, 191; F. B. Hall, 181; F. E. Zollars, 166.

GOING AFTER SOLDIER VOTES.

Wilmington, Del., Oct. 30.—Col. Theodore Townsend and Theodore Ferguson, the commissioners appointed by Governor Miller to go to the Mexican border and received the vote of the Delaware soldiers, left yesterday for Deming, N. M. Ballots have been printed especially for the soldiers and under the law the election will be held by officers appointed in each company. The ballots will not be counted until the commissioners return to Delaware and it will be several days after election before it is known how the militiamen voted.

MAKES TARIFF PLEA IN OHIO

Republican Nominee Essays Reply to Wilson's Cincinnati Speech.

Mr. Hughes Will Return to Indiana Tomorrow for Two Days' Stay.

East Liverpool, Ohio, Oct. 30.—Charles E. Hughes, replying further to statements in President Wilson's Cincinnati speech, told an audience here that the $2,000,000,000 increase in American exports last year was due almost exclusively to the demand created by the European war and cited a statement by Chairman Hurley, of the federal trade commission, to uphold the republican claim that America is "not prepared for post-bellum competition with Europe."

"That $2,000,000,000," Mr. Hughes said, represents almost exclusively the demand created by the European war. But what are we to do? There is but one safe course. It is idle to talk about conditions of work if there is no work. And you cannot have any lasting basis for prosperity unless you apply the American doctrine of protection to American industries.

"I was amazed the other day when the spokesman for the opposing party told the people that we were ready. He said in substance that the nations who are engaged in this struggle are so wasted by war that we need not fear their competition.

"That is a very serious mistake to those who know what the facts are. Let those who speak for the opposing party take the words of the federal trade commission, spoken almost at the same time, as a result of their own inquiry.

Quotes Mr. Hurley.

"This is what Chairman Hurley, of the federal trade commission, said last week in New York on this very subject:

"'While in many respects we know little of what is going on in the warring nations, we do know that within sound of the guns, almost within reach of the falling shells, Europe is awakening her industries.'

"He says further, 'under the stress of a life and death struggle every effort is being made to attain the highest efficiency in the production, in the distribution and in the use of commodities of all kinds.' He adds: 'New processes are being discovered, new inventions are being made and new forms of organization are being created and that war has compelled Great Britain to make thirty years of industrial progress in thirty months.'

"If our industries are not to be caught slow of mind and flabby of muscle we must 'improve our business organization, must increase our manufacturing efficiency and must keep pace with every step in Europe.'

Calls Protection Essential.

"Now these are facts for American business men and American working men to think carefully over. When it is said here we need organization, I agree. When it is said that we need development of alertness and power, I agree, but there is one thing that was not said. It is the thing which our opponents, in view of their principles, cannot well say. It is a thing that we do say, and that is whatever your organization, whatever your alertness, you have got to have your markets protected against the competition of labor that is paid less than you are.

"We propose to protect American industry. You cannot run this country

PRIVATE SULLIVAN OF COMPANY E IS KILLED

Ft. Wayne Boy Meets Death When Revolver is Accidentally Discharged.

ROBERT E. SULLIVAN.

Nicholson was in an E company tent showing his new revolver, which he had just received from friends at Indianapolis. Sullivan was sitting on a cot in his own tent talking to a friend about the maneuvers of the past week. Nicholson, thinking the revolver was unloaded, snapped the trigger and a bullet went through two tent walls and struck the Fort Wayne boy in the right breast. He died three hours later. The shooting occurred at 9 o'clock in the morning. Nicholson is under arrest. Colonel Naftzger named a board of three to investigate the shooting.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Sullivan, 817 Cottage avenue, the parents of Robert E. Sullivan, received the message of the death of their son Sunday afternoon. They had received one in the morning stating that their son had been seriously injured but heard nothing more until C. E. Howard, father of First Lieut. Howard, imparted the sad news that he had died.

This is the second time since the Fort Wayne boys were called to the colors that the grim reaper has visited within their ranks. The death of Sullivan, Sunday, recalls to memory the drowning of Private Floyd E. Wolf on July 18, last, while in bathing near the camp.

The deceased was born in Richmond, Ind., June 2, 1891, but came to Fort Wayne with his parents when he was five years of age. For the past ten years he had been employed in the air-brake department of the Pennsylvania Railroad company. He was a member of St. Patrick's Catholic church and Fort Wayne council, Knights of Columbus.

Besides the grief-stricken parents he is survived by two brothers, E. J. Sullivan and Francis Sullivan, both of Fort Wayne, and one sister, Mrs. Floyd Hipkins, of this city. Several uncles and aunts also survive.

Mr. Sullivan joined Company E two months before the call came on June 19. He was one of the first to express his willingness and readiness to follow the flag when the orders for mobilization were received. In camp he had won the esteem and friendship of all the members as well as his superior officers.

ALLIES GAIN NEW GROUND

Berlin Admits Foe Success at One Point Along Somme Front.

RUMANIANS MAKE STRONGER STAND

Today's War News Given in Summary

British steamer Marina, a vessel of more than 5,000 tons, engaged in trans-Atlantic service, has been sunk near the Irish coast. A London dispatch states that the American embassy there has received a report from the American consul at Queenstown that she was torpedoed without warning. The Marina reached Glasgow from Baltimore and Newport News on Oct. 10. Her destination on her new voyage has not been reported. A number of Americans are believed to have been on board, the London advices state. The Americans, if any, doubtless were members of the crew, as the Marina was not a passenger-carrying vessel.

Both the British and French on the Somme front report a successful continuation of their efforts to drive the point of the wedge created by their prolonged offensive further into the German lines.

This point at present projects across the Peronne-Bapaume road at Sailley-Saillisel. Last night the French again struck the German front here and according to the Paris war office captured a system of trenches northwest of Sailley-Saillisel, advancing as far as the Sailley church.

Immediately to the northwest, at the convergence of their front with that of the French, the British have been pounding for two days at German positions near Le Transloy and have reported the capture of several trenches.

The Rumanians apparently are continuing their more effective resistance to the Austro-German pressure along the Moldavian and southern Transylvanian fronts. Berlin, however, reports a Teutonic success in the Rothernheim pass region south of Hermannstadt, where strongly defended heights were taken from the Rumanians, together with more than 700 prisoners. In the Szurduk pass region the Rumanians succeeded in pushing back a German column.

In Dobrudja Field Marshal von Mackensen's advance, which has been pursuing the defeated Russo-Rumanian army, has got into touch with Russian cavalry and infantry forces in the northern part of the province, Berlin announces. A repetition of Russian attacks in Volhynia has only resulted in further defeats for the Russians, the German war office declares, despite unusually heavy artillery preparation.

On the Somme front, just south of the river, near Peronne, the Germans yesterday successfully stormed the French lines, La Maisonnette farm to Biaches, according to Berlin, captured the farm and the ground intervening, together with more than 400 prisoners. Paris admits that German troops obtained a footing in some of the farm buildings.

Berlin, Oct. 30.—British troops, attacking the German lines on the Somme front between Les Boeufs and Morval, succeeded in gaining some ground from the Germans, the war office announced today.

South of the Somme French positions from La Maissonnette farm to Biaches, were stormed by German troops after successful artillery preparation. Massed attacks of Russian infantry in Volhynia yesterday following unusual heavy artillery preparation, broke down under fire, the war office statement announces today.

The capture of several strongly defended positions near the Hungarian-Rumanian frontier was announced today by the war office. In Dobrudja, Field Marshal von Mackensen's forces, continuing their pursuit of the Russians and Rumanians, have come in contact with the Russians.

Heavy fighting is in progress on the Macedonian front in the region below Monastir. The repulse of the French and Serbian attacks on the Cerna front was announced today by the war office.

At the German war office today it was declared that the statement in the French official communication that on October 24 French airplanes had fought twenty engagements in which three German machines had been shot down in the vicinity of Verdun, was absolutely untrue. On October 24 military authorities are quoted by the Overseas

Landslide for Wilson is McCormick's Report

Chicago, Oct. 30.—The west is on "fire for President Wilson" and "it looks like a landslide" for the democratic candidate, is the opinion of Vance McCormick, chairman of the national democratic committee, as expressed by Mr. McCormick after conferring with Senator Walsh, manager of the western headquarters. Latest reports from leaders in all states were discussed at the conference.

"I see that Mr. Frank H. Hitchcock claims the election of Mr. Hughes," Mr. McCormick says. "He gives a list of states that he professes to believe the republicans will carry. Of the twenty-six states he claims for Hughes, I do not regard six of them as certainly for the republican candidate.

"The Wilson sentiment in Ohio that makes Mr. Hitchcock concede the state to the democrats does not stop at imaginary state lines. It extends all over this section and by this token, not to mention our confidential reports and first hand advices, we know that Illinois and Indiana are also for the president. This same sentiment is sweeping the Pacific coast.

"I confidently expect the president to carry Connecticut, New Jersey, Delaware, Maryland and West Virginia. The swing is toward the president and there are no signs of abatement."

EVEN JEWELRY HAS GONE UP IN PRICE

Christmas Shoppers Will Find Prices Much Higher Than Last Year.

The youth, whose one great ambition it was to buy his "best girl" some form of jewelry as a Christmas gift, by which he could be remembered, has discovered, by observing the axiom, "Do your Christmas shopping early," that the price of jewelry has advanced since last Yuletide and that he will have to add a few more dollars to get the desired article which he had contemplated buying.

Dropping the subject of the youth and his Xmas gift, it might be added that the price of sets and especially diamonds has greatly increased. One jeweler stated Saturday that every time a shipment of diamonds arrived in the country the price was boosted several dollars.

The jeweler, who also deals in silverware, announces that the retail price on all silverware has advanced nearly 20 per cent over last year's prices. This is partially due to the scarcity of silver, but mainly due to the advance in labor.

SAD MISTAKE.

If you would succeed in business, you can not sell a man something he does not want—neither can you afford to disappoint him in quality. Therefore, buy your jewelry at Voirol's, 1518 Calhoun street.

WAS IMPOSTOR, SAYS BULGARIAN MINISTER

Supposed Diplomat Reported at San Antonio is Denounced as Fraud.

Washington, Oct. 30.—The Bulgarian minister to the United States, Stephen Panaretoff, declared today that the man who passed through San Antonio, Tex., yesterday, calling himself the Bulgarian minister to Mexico, was an imposter. Mr. Panaretoff says there is no minister or any other diplomatic representative of Bulgaria in Mexico. The man gave his name as Nobel von Vicago. Minister Panaretoff says the name is not Bulgarian and that he had never head it before. The so-called minister was quoted as saying he was on an official and private mission in this country and that he might call upon the Mexican-American commission at Atlantic City to pay his respects, being acquainted with the Mexican delegates. He also was quoted as saying Gen. Carranza was doing great things for Mexico.

At the Austro-Hungarian embassy here today it was said that Count Kalman Kania Volkanya, Austro-Hungarian minister to Mexico, who also passed through San Antonio yesterday, was on his way to New York and Washington for a vacation and probably to see his physician. The envoy said in San Antonio that his mission was a secret one which he could not discuss. Embassy official said they had no idea who the man could be.

TWO HURT IN WILD PLUNGE DOWN BANK

Driver is Blinded by Light from Car and Loses Control of Auto.

Clem Mackaman and Henry Guiff, both of Spencerville, were badly injured Saturday night when the automobile in which they were riding, with three other men, plunged over an embankment on the St. Joe road near Parker creek, four miles from town.

The two men injured were in the front seat and were struck by broken glass as they were hurled against the shattered windshield, when the car was checked in its flight by a tree. Mackaman has a deep gash across his forehead, his skull fractured and his face bruised. Guiff sustained a broken nose, cuts and bruises about the head.

Other members of the party were Otto Stein and Joseph Warner, of Spencerville, and Charles Davis, of Auburn. Mackaman, who was at the wheel, said he was blinded by light from a town-bound car which passed him a few feet from where they left the road.

Clarence Parker, who lives near the scene of the accident, was awakened by the crash of the machine striking the tree. He went to the aid of the men. Police were called and City Physician Frank Dinnen. Guiff and Mackaman were removed to the St. Joseph hospital.

BOSTON LABOR TAKES RAP AT BOY SCOUTS

Alleged Statement by Boy Scout Head Brings Action.

Boston, Oct. 30.—Workingmen of the country are asked to withdraw their sons from Boy Scout organizations in a resolution adopted by the state branch of the American Federation of Labor, last night. The action came after a report that Charles C. Jackson, president of the greater Boston council of Boy Scouts, had advised scout masters to prepare the boys under them to "withstand politically the aggressiveness of labor unions," which he is said to have predicted would be "savage and bitter" after the war.

"If this is to be the attitude of the Boy Scout movement," the resolution said, "it is time that the wage earners of the country should take their sons out of the movement for the reason that young men should be educated on liberal and not narrow lines."

M'ELROY CALLS WILSON THE SOLDIER'S FRIEND

Washington, Oct. 30.—That every G. A. R. veteran owes a debt of gratitude to the administration of President Wilson is the declaration of Colonel John McElroy, of this city, a life-long republican and for thirty-two years editor of the National Tribune, official national organ of the Grand Army of the Republic. Colonel McElroy has refused to go on the stump for Hughes. "For me to take the stump against Wilson would be to smite the hand that helped us," he says. "We old soldiers owe much to President Wilson. The new widows' pension law comes nearer to doing justice to the wives and dependents of old soldiers than any pension law ever passed. Commissioner Saltzgaber, appointed head of the pension bureau by President Wilson, has been one of the most efficient pension commissioners we have ever had. Of course, most G. A. R. veterans are republicans. I am myself. But, however much we may disagree with the democrats over purely party matters, as veterans of the civil war we must admit a debt to President Wilson and his administration."

RESTAURANTS LISTED BY HEALTH OFFICERS

Carelessness is Given as Worst Enemy to Gold Medal Scores.

Eternal vigilance is the price of gold medals for restaurants, according to Deputy Meat and Dairy Inspector Josse, who has just completed his semi-annual grading of all restaurants of the city. Carelessness, which failed to note small matters of sanitation, is given as the reason for several eating houses which are ordinarily in the gold medal class falling lower in their grades.

The official list of the restaurants and their scores follow:

"The Store That Does Things"

DENIAL IS EXPECTED TO END THE INCIDENT

Mexican Statement Given Without Authority, Says Arredondo.

Washington, Oct. 30.—Acceptance by the state department today of an explanation by Mexican Ambassador Arredondo, denying the authenticity of a statement over the signature of Louis Cabrera, assailing the American government for permitting aid to reach Villa from this side of the border, was expected to close the incident. The statement had threatened serious friction between the United States and Mexico.

Mr. Arredondo made known his purpose last night of calling at the state department today to explain that the statement was put out by an employe of the Mexican news bureau, the de facto government's semi-official publicity agent, without the knowledge or consent of either the embassy or Mr. Cabrera. It was said in official circles that this action undoubtedly would end the whole incident.

FRENCH CAPTURE TRENCHES.

Paris, Oct. 30.—A system of German trenches northwest of Sailley-Saillisel on the German front, was captured by the French last night, the war office announced today. The French advanced as far as the Sailley church.

South of the Somme the Germans made repeated attacks south of Biaches and the region south of La Maissonette. By means of their last attempt they obtained a footing in some of the Maissonette farm buildings.

On the Verdun front the artillery fighting was less severe near Douaumont and there was no infantry action in that locality. Rheims was bombarded violently and some civilians were killed.

The official report of today from the Macedonian front says the Serbian troops in the Cerna region, supported by French artillery, are engaged in a fierce struggle with the Germans and Bulgarians.

CHANGE IN GERMAN COMMANDERS

London, Oct. 30.—A Berlin dispatch forwarded from Amsterdam says that the German emperor has sent Lieut.-Gen. Adolf Wild von Hohenborn, the Prussian minister of war, to take command of an army corps on the western front and that the emperor has appointed as Prussian minister of war and state Lieut.-Gen. von Stein. The change, it is stated, is due to the desire that the minister of war, who must decide military measures at home, should have a thorough experience in the increasing wants of the army in the field.

Gen. von Stein was appointed to the command of the Fourteenth reserve army corps in September, 1914, after having served as quartermaster general. As late as two months ago he was in command of troops in the Somme sector of the German front in France, apparently in the vicinity of Thiepval. Gen. Wild von Hohenborn was made quartermaster general in January, 1915, and was appointed minister of war to succeed Gen. von Falkenhayn a few days later. Before his apopintment as quartermaster general he saw considerable service as a division commander with the German army in Flanders.

on the principle of tariff for revenue only. We want to build up American industry, protect the American wage scale and lay the foundation for social justice." Mr. Hughes spoke in the open air here before a crowd which was so noisy that his voice could hardly be heard fifty feet away. He left at 11:30 for Steubenville.

Mr. Hughes will spend one day in Ohio and two in Indiana before returning to New York state, where he will close his campaign. His first Indiana speech will be delivered tomorrow morning at Columbus. He will make three more speeches in that state during the day, concluding with a night speech at Evansville, and will speak five times in the state Wednesday.

BIG TIME AT COLUMBUS.

Columbus, O., Oct. 30.—What republicans say will be the banner meeting of their Ohio campaign will be held in Columbus tonight with Charles E. Hughes, the presidential candidate, the central attraction. Republican state headquarters announced it had received word that delegations from many Ohio cities will come for the meeting.

Mr. Hughes, accompanied by his wife, will arrive at 7 p. m. from Zanesville and is to deliver his address at 8 o'clock. Before speaking he will review a parade from his quarters in a hotel. Redfire, a dozen bands and campaign banners galore will appear in the parade, it has been announced. A. L. Garford, of Elyria, former progressive candidate for governor of Ohio, will address the meeting before the arrival of Mr. Hughes.

Following the meeting Ohio leaders of the party expect to hold conferences with the presidential candidate, who will leave for Indianapolis after midnight.

DAILY BIBLE READINGS FOR THE HOME

IIPeter 3:8-14.

8 But, beloved, be not ignorant of this one thing, that one day is with the Lord as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day.

9 The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some men count slackness; but is longsuffering to us-ward, not willing that any should perish, but that al should come to repentance.

10 But the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night; in the which the heavens shall pass away with a great noise, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat, the earth also and the works that are therein shall be burned up.

11 Seeing then that these things shall be dissolved, what manner of persons ought ye to be in all holy conversation and godliness.

12 Looking for and hasting unto the coming of the day of God, wherein the heavens being on fire shall be dissolved, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat?

13 Nevertheless we, according to his promise, look for new heavens and a new earth, wherein dwelleth righteousness.

14 Whrefore, beloved, seeing that ye look for such things, be diligent that ye may be found of him in peace, without spot, and blameless.

Which Road Shall We Take?

The final week of the campaign in which the American voter is confronted by many issues and situations new to American politics should be one of tremendously sober thinking on his part. He is going to pass next Tuesday his judgment on questions unlike those with which he has been called upon to deal in previous years. Today the big issue is not prosperity and the full dinner pail—for we have them. It is not the demand for progressive legislation—for that has been supplied by President Wilson and his administration. It is not the problem of unemployment—for the American workingman is at work. It is not new banking and currency laws—for finance has been stabilized by the legislation President Wilson has given it. It is not child labor—for that has been dealt with in a way to remove a stain from American industrialism. It is not the tariff—for the new tariff commission will take care of that on a business basis.

Make no mistake. The big issue to be determined on November 7 is the one which deals with American policy toward international conflict—toward peace or war. Which road shall we take? Do you want the pathway of peace to which President Wilson has rigidly adhered, or are you willing to assume the responsibility for a course which threatens to lead to something different? Let this issue be clear in your minds. There is no charge that Mr. Hughes or the great mass of his supporters are deliberately conspiring to plunge the United States into the world war. That would be inconceivable. Yet they are playing with fire in unreasoning antipathy to every step of President Wilson's course that has kept the ship off the rocks. They are asking a square departure from the paths that have kept us at peace. They are counselling the taking of a chance with fate, hoping, but wholly unable to demonstrate, that the outcome will be something better. They are asking the country to exchange certainty for uncertainty and take the chances that such a transaction involves. Certain things are established. You have peace with Wilson's course. Do you know what is in store for this country under any other program?

There are persistent reports that evidence shows indication of systematic attempts at colonization of negro voters in several of the doubtful states, as well as other schemes for the debauchery of the election on November 7, and there have undoubtedly been responsible for the steps the federal government has taken in the appointment of special attorneys to prevent it. Of all times in our country's history, this is the one in which the ballot should be fair, full and free, and without the taint of suspicion upon it. The slightest attempt at crookedness should be instantly followed by merciless prosecution. These are important days for America. It is highly essential that the registered verdict of the people be not only decisive, but that it accurately register their will and reflect their sentiments. Curb the crook before his nefarious schemes come to fruition.

Judge Henry C. Fox, of Richmond, in summarizing his observations on the bench, says that while hundreds of blondes and brunettes have sought severance of marital ties in his court, red-haired wives do not sue for divorce. But in failing to say whether red-haired wives exercise better judgment in the selection of husbands, are able to rule affairs with an iron hand that makes divorce unnecessary or are merely more long-suffering than others, Judge Fox has still left us in most agonizing suspense.

One fails to get an adequate idea of the real resources of this country until he begins to take a census of those patriots who admit they are fully competent to have told the president just what he should have done in each of the countless emergencies which the past four years have brought to him for action.

Quite as essential as President Wilson's re-election is the fact that there be behind him in congress a majority that will uphold his hands and sustain him in his future program. Twelfth district voters can contribute to this highly desirable result by voting for Representative Cline and for Senator Kern and Senator Taggart.

The Y. M. C. A. at Indianapolis has begun instruction of a class in automobile construction and repair as a part of its educational work—which may be a faint gleam that forecasts the day when every man will be able to take a monkey-wrench and some sheets of iron and build his own.

Rumania waited a long time before she got into the war, but in view of the business-like manner in which the central powers are eating her up, Rumania may now be wishing she had waited somewhat longer.

Raymond Robins has made the discovery that Mr. Hughes is progressive, but if that is true, one glance at the ranks of the old standpat guard lined up solidly behind him is convincing evidence that he has somehow gotten into mighty queer company.

Mr. Fairbanks' confident prediction that Missouri will go republican this year is chiefly interesting as illustrating the length to which political optimism will sometimes carry one when it gets going under a full head of steam.

WHAT'S BEHIND?

"The Old Guard placed Justice Hughes in front. God only knows what's behind."

That is the way the grand old party parade looks to John M. Parker, progressive nominee for vice president, the most resolute and uncompromising figure in the progressive party. Parker continues:

"The only chance the old guard had to get into power was to place in front of it a man whose character and reputation were absolutely immaculate. The choosing of Justice Hughes by this most dangerous element in American politics is a tribute to the man itself. I have the highest respect myself for Hughes.

"But I still believe in the progressive party and we progressives don't care where progress comes from if it only comes. It has come this time from the Wilson administration and that's why now I am working for President Wilson.

"I fought Wilson in 1912 for all that I was worth, but he has been unmistakably progressive. He has stood solidly for rural credits, workmen's compensation and the abolition of child labor—all fundamental provisions in our 'contract with the people.'

"The president has been confronted with the gravest problems that ever faced a president. He has worked as few of them have ever been required to work and he has done well. Honest opposition is admissible, but the atempt to embarrass him by constant attack on everything he does is not my idea of Americanism. I fought him hard, but I have never forgotten that I am an American and that he is my president.

"The padded committee of the progressives voted to ignore the instructions of the Chicago convention and to endorse the republican party. I do not recognize this action as the action of the progressive party, but I do recognize the actions of President Wilson as progressive achievements."

THANKSGIVING AS USUAL.

(New York World.)

Since 1863 the national Thanksgiving has been observed on the last Thursday of November. This year that day ends the month, and enterprising merchants with an eye to holiday trade, which does not start on its broadest lines until after Thanksgiving, have urged that the early feast of gratitude and praise be fixed for this occasion on the third Thursday of the month. It is announced at Shadow Lawn that the president's proclamation will not depart from the usual practice.

Suc his the force of custom. New England originated Thanksgiving and for many years upheld it on theological grounds as a rival of Christmas. It had frequent occasion to offer thanks, but the November feast became the principal religious holiday of the year, and in civil war times President Lincoln gave it national sanction. The last Thursday of the eleventh month is not exactly an anniversary, but in spite of the interests of merchants or the preferences of society, it can no more be changed than Independence day can be set back a month to suit the convenience of tourists and owners of summer homes.

We are ruled largely by institutionalism. The holiday trade is a wonderful factor in our national life, but he would be a brave man who undertook to put Thanksgiving day aside in its interest.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

What the Sentinel Had to Say About Perosns and Events Twenty-Five Years Ago.

A fire in Arcola early this morning caused a loss of $5,000 to property. Several residences were completely destroyed.

Julius Weber, of Urbana, Ohio, is in the city contempating on purchasing the Aveline hotel. It is believed that he will buy it.

Jerry J. Shoaff, a Nickel Plate brakeman was injured in the yards at 9 o'clock last night. His hands were crushed while making a coupling.

G. D. Niswonger established a new fish market in the handsome Arcade building. It will be a model place that will be a pleasure for patrons to visit.

The American Wheel Works will resume work on December 1. The shop has been closed for several months. They will employ 300 men when they reopen.

The Tourist club gave a grand ball at the Randall hall last evening and it was a big success. Eighty couples were present and the grand march was led by Sid Throckmorton and Miss Dellia Kinnerk.

A horse belonging to J. C. Peters cut some funny capers on the street this morning which should rank it in a class of acrobats. It ran away down Wayne street and its action made many people laugh.

Samuel Foltz, a wood chopper residing near Arcola, was brought to the city this morning for treatment. While he was chopping wood a chip flew into his eye and as a result he may lose the organ of sight.

A mad dog has caused pandemoninum in the streets of Ossian. A large shepherd dog which has unmistakable symptoms of rabbies arrived in the town a few days ago and proceeded to bite everything in its sight. The dog was finally shot.

A slight wreck occurred this morning at 4 o'clock near Fairfield avenue on the Wabash road. A freight train standing on the side track uncoupled when the rear portion ran down on main track just in time to be struck by a passenger train. The engine was partly damaged and the freight cars were cut to pieces. Traffic was tied up for several hours.

"I Would Have Fought"

America is founded on the disrespect of authority. If we had been properly respectful of King George and the British parliament there would have been no Declaration and no Independence. This disrespect of office has come down to us in an exaggerated degree, and every American conceives it as his inalienable right to criticise his public servants. Seldom does he consider it his duty or his privilege to offer any meed of praise.

In campaign years this is particularly true. America must offer an extremely humorous spectacle to the world every four years. At such times one has only to read the campaign speeches to discover that practically every man in public life is devoting his foul energies to the destruction of this proud republic. And still we survive.

Some day a candidate for president, or even for some lesser office, is going to make a tremendous hit with the American people by candidly giving credit to his opponent for the good which is in him. Some day, but not yet.

Meanwhile, of course, that man suffers most who has done the best. The man burdened with responsibilities is the man we assail. It is safe to say that if politics and partisanship could be forgotten and only human relationship and human courtesies remembered, nine men out of every ten would sympathize with Woodrow Wilson in the difficulties he has endured and would help him, and perhaps commend him, in such neighborly way as possible.

Quite aside from the really remarkable constructive achievements of the administration, hardly any American could help but sympathize with the responsibilities which 100,000,000 Americans thrust practically upon one man and lightly go their own ways, only remembering occasionally to turn and throw him a cuss-word! Whether we realize it or nnot, we have tacitly put upon the president the responsibility of deciding whether 100,000,000 people are plunged into a world war, or whether they are ket out.

Are the hundred million cognizant of the oppressive responsibility or grateful for the service rendered? Listen to the spokesmen of half of the hundred million. Any listener would think that the man of whom we require such service is one-third fool, one-third knave and one-third traitor.

Let every critic ask himself honestly: "What would I have done to have achieved better results had the responsibility been mine?"

It is easy for any one of us to say: "I would have said so and so. I would have threatened thus and thus. I would have acted and I would have fought." Well, if any man says, or thinks: "I would have fought," the natural question is, why doesn't he fight, then?

If the president goes to war, one hundred millions go to war. Such a responsibility would and should give any man pause.

But you, Bill or Jim, or Tom or Teddy, any one of you may go to war, if you must, and you need not involve the rest of us.

Fourteen nations welcome you to the bloody trenches with hospitable hands, and if you want to avenge the Lusitania, or punish England for interfering with the mails, why, go ahead!

And when you have done that, your criticism of the president for keeping the rest of us out of war will sound a good deal more sincere.

War has seriously affected the peanut trade of Madras, India.

DRINK HOT WATER IF YOU DESIRE A ROSY COMPLEXION

Says we can't help but look better and feel better after an inside bath.

To look one's best and feel one's best is to enjoy an inside bath each morning to flush from the system the previous day's waste, sour fermentation and poisonous toxins before it is absorbed into the blood. Just as coal, when it burns, leaves behind a certain amount of incombustible material in the form of ashes, so the food and drink taken each day leave in the alimentary organs a certain amount of indigestible material, which, if not eliminated, form toxins and poisons which are then sucked into the blood through the very ducts which are intended to suck in only nourishment to sustain the body.

If you want to see the glow of healthy bloom in your cheeks, to see your skin get clearer and clearer, you are told to drink every morning upon arising, a glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it, which is a harmless means of washing the waste material and toxins from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels, thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary tract, before putting more food into the stomach.

Men and women with sallow skins, liver spots, pimples or pallid complexion, also those who wake up with a coated tongue, bad taste, nasty breath, others who are bothered with headaches, bilious spells, acid stomach or constipation should begin this phosphated hot water drinking and are assured of very pronounced results in one or two weeks.

A quarter pound of limstone phosphate costs very little at the drug store but is sufficient to demonstrate that just as soap and hot water cleanses, purifies and freshens the skin on the outside, so hot water and limestone phosphate act on the inside organs. We must always consider that internal sanitation is vastly more important than outside cleanliness, because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, while the bowel pores do.—Advertisement.

Auburn, Ind., Oct. 30.—The regular weekly meeting of the men's personal workers of the Church of God in the basement of the church had one number on the program a little out of the ordinary. EIGHT HOUR LAW IS LEE'S SUBJECT

The Adamson eight-hour law is not all that the employes affected desire, but from a progressive standpoint goes far in the right direction toward establishing satisfactory working conditions in freight and yard service and averted one of the greatest railroad strikes ever threatened in this country, Grand President W. G. Lee of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen told a large audience in Moose auditorium Saturday night. William Grout presided at the meeting. Members of the four local brotherhoods occupied seats on the stage. Miss Dorothy Swift, pianist; Miss Irene Jones, soprano, and Miss Georgette Donelli, violinist, gave vocal and instrumental numbers during the evening which were greatly appreciated.

"If the politicians and disgruntled members of the transportation department would permit the authorized committees and officers of organizations directly affected to work out the details in connection with the application of the so-called eight-hour law, there would be little difficulty," declared the speaker.

"Our government in 1868 recognized the eight-hour work day for its employes and without a reduction of the daily pay received prior to its enactment. That law has not been declared unconstitutional. It was created under a republican administration, so you have heard little complaint with reference to it. Does any one contend that government employes are prohibited from working overtime or in excess of eight hours if the necessity of their employment requires it?

RALLY AT BUTLER.

Big Meeting Planned Closing Campaign on Thursday Night.

Butler democrats will close the campaign Thursday night with a big rally. Party workers from Waterloo and Auburn will be invited to attend and the Jefferson drum corps of this city may take part in the celebration. Howard Benninghoff and A. M. Groves, of Fort Wayne, will speak. A special invitation has also been extended the ladies and young men. Fort Wayne democrats are planning to attend the rally and there may be a delegation from Kendallville.

DRUM CORPS TO MEET.

The Jefferson drum corps will hold a meeting Monday night in the office of Justice A. C. Nierman at 7:30 o'clock. Justice Nierman is manager of the corps and some dates for the week will be discussed.

TO CLOSE CAMPAIGN.

Socialists of Fort Wayne will close their campaign in Allen county with an address in the convention hall of the court house Monday night when J. Lloyd Armstrong, candidate for congress, will deliver the speech.

MEETINGS ARE SCHEDULED.

B. Paul Mossman, Charles R. Lane and Frank M. Hogan will be the speakers at a republican meeting to be held tonight at Edgerton. At the Philley school, two miles southeast of the city, Decatur road, the speakers for a Monday night meeting will be Anselm Fuelber (in German) and C. H. Williams. At Grabill tonight the speaker will be Newton W. Gilbert.

MEETING AT WODBURN.

Harry H. Hilgemann and A. A. Rothengass Speakers at Democratic Gathering.

Harry H. Hilgemann and A. A. Rothengass were the speakers at a democratic meeting held at Woodburn Saturday night. Mr. Hilgemann said he did not think there should be a change of administration at this time, since President Wilson had kept the United States at peace while the rest of the world was at war. The democratic party is willing to stand on its record and I firmly believe that the people will approve that record on November 7 by their ballots. Mr. Rothengass made an appeal to the German voters, charging the Hughes campaign managers with being at the head of a munitions' trust. Howard Benninghoff was the other speaker of the evening.

Held Meeting at Poe.

E. V. Emrick and C. P. Squires were speakers at a meeting held at Poe Saturday night. Mr. Emrick said the only issue the republicans had was one of criticism and that the Mexican trouble was the result of millionaires of America going into Mexico to exploit their interests. Mr. Squires spoke on national issues.

Bush is Republican Speaker.

Edgar K. Bush, republican candidate for lieutenant governor, gave an address at republican headquarters Saturday night. He charged the democratic administration with extravagance in the administration of state affairs.

Musical Recital.

A recital of the students of the Boston Conservatory of Music, asissted by Miss Afton Woalf, soprano student of Miss Kay M. Spencer, and accompanied by Miss Loomis, of Kendallville, and Mr. Lloyd Grosvenor, violinist, accompanied by Mr. Wentzel, was given Saturday afternoon. Miss Hieber played a Liszt concerto in A major, two movements, and rendered it very creditably. Miss Goldsmith played two movements of the F sharp minor concerto, displaying splendid technique. Misses James and Mowery gave two Chopin polonaises and performed them excellently. Miss Dibble finished the musical program by playing the concert Etude by McDowell and received much favorable comment for her painstaking. Others who did admirably well were Misses Foster, Manth, Baum, Bentz, Dinnius, Tarlitz, Cooper, Kiem, Blough, Grosvenor, Reiling, Tarlitz and Messrs. Cooper Sunday, Floering, Hoppe, Wahrenburgh, Jantz, Moore, Strombeck and Fairfield.

Miss Dibble and Mr. Lachner won the committing contest and will share the prize equally between them. Mr. George Trier took charge of the social part of the afternoon, which was spent in games, dancing, refreshments. Robert Graft contributed orchestral pipe organ selections during the entire afternoon.

AT THE PALACE

"AROUND THE TOWN."

Snappy Musical Comedy With Earle Dewey and Maybelle Rogers.

The merry story of the migration of the nurses, doctors and patients from the tangoitis sanitarium to the cafe de cabaret and the Pallais du Danse on the Moon again is being unfolded at the New Palace in the musical comedy hit, Around the Town, with Earle S. Dewey and Maybelle "Billie" Rogers in the principal roles. From the saucy dance of the nursies in the opening act to the patriotic number, "Prosperity," that brings the entire company out to bid the audience good-bye, Around the Town is the snappiest, merriest and withal the cleanest bit of musical comedy the E. P. Churchill are offering. The company is unusually clever and has been together for more than a year, the chorus being practically the same as the one that was here last February and the principals with the exception of the tangoitis specialist and "Man in the Moon," being the same artists. The Cafe de Cabaret scene in which a stage is created within a stage is better this year than last, the Spirit of '76 song being the best the specialists do.

There will be no performance at the New Palace on Tuesday evening because the house has been turned over to a political meeting. The usual matinee will of course be given.

AT THE STRAND

Vioa Dana, the superb film attraction with which the Strand theater made its bow to Fort Wayne, and which has won nothing but the most favorable comment, will be seen for the last time today. It is distinctly worth seeing.

* * *

"A gentleman, a scholar and a judge of good whisky," is "Rummy," the part played by Wilfred Lucas in the Triangle-Fine Arts photoplay of that title, to be seen at the Strand theater Tuesday and Wednesday this week.

In this play a young newspaperman, fast rising toward success, becomes a wreck when he loses faith in his wife

"It happens like that in real life every once in awhile, too," Director Paul Powell said, reminiscently. "I remember one case that remains the biggest mystery that ever came under my personal observation. I had a friend on one of the newspapers where I worked, a fine, sober, brilliant young fellow—just like 'Rummy' at the beginning of this play. I never knew that boy to take a drink until one day he showed up for work, roaring drunk. We sent him home to sober up. He came back each afternoon drunker, if that is posible, than the day before. So the boss laid him off, but told him that he would make a place for him if he would get sober and stay sober. But he never did. We al ltried to straighten him up, but nothing we could do or say did any good, and after about two years he just disappeared.

"This has been a hard picture to direct, for I keep seeing my poor old chum in Lucas' realistic work. I'm mighty glad Pauline Starke, as the wife in this play, pulls 'Rummy' through—I would have hated to direct the picture, otherwise."

Like Clock-Work!

(By N. B. Cook, M. D.)

The machinery of the body needs to be oiled, kept in good condition just as the automobile or bicycle. Why should the human neglect his own machinery more than that of his horse or his engine? Yet most people do neglect themselves. Their tongue has a dark brown color, skin sallow, breath bad, yet they fail to see that their machinery needs attention. Everybody should take a mild laxative at least once a week. A pleasant way to clear the tongue and the highly colored water noticed in the morning is to take a laxative which will cure the inactive liver and biliousness.

A pleasant vegetable pill is made up of May-apple, leaves of aloes, and Jalap, made into a tiny pellet and coated with sugar. First put up by Dr. Pierce nearly 50 years ago. Druggists sell these vegetable pellets in vials for 25c. Ask for Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets.

If backache, scalding urine or frequent urination bother or distress you, or if uric acid in the blood has caused rheumatism, gout or sciatica, if you suspect that you have kidney or bladder trouble, write Dr. Pierce, at Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., send a sample of urine, and describe symptoms. A physician and chemist will examine it without charge and you will be under no obligation whatever. These Anuric tablets cannot fail to help you, because their action flushes the kidneys of impurities and puts strength into them.

NEIL CALLS MOTHERS PENSION PLAN BETTER

By Frederick M. Kerby.

Washington, D. C.,—Oct. 25.—Predicting that an attempt will be made at the conclusion of the European war to take children away from heir mothers and place them in institutions in order that women may work in the factories of Europe, Judge Henry Neil, "father of mothers' pensions," has addressed a letter to former Senator Elihu Root of New York, declining to join the "committee of mercy" headed by Root as honorary president.

"You have asked me to contribute to a fund to establish a committee of mercy," declared Judge Neil. "I cannot contribute to such a cause, and desire to give you information that the institutional idea for European children is put forth as part of a plan to exploit their mothers in factories.

"After the war the allied nations will have a great burden of interest to pay. They must produce things to sell. Woman factory labor must take the place of man labor, and the plea is to establish institutions, take children from their mothers and compel the mothers to become factory hands, without home or children.

"I am opposed to the institutional care of children, and all honest authorities agree with me in that opposition. Even children without mother or father, in Europe or America, can be better cared for in private families. Institutional care does not make good citizens, because it prevents the development of those talents upon which home, the basis of our civilization, depends.

"The committee of mercy is not a merciful organization, if it continues its present plan. I propose that the plan be changed to a mothers' pension plan, and children cared for in private homes with mother care, and that all mothers be kept out of factories and other gainful occupations outside of their own homes, even if the result is default on the war bonds."

Judge Neil has just sailed for England to study the problem of child poverty.

Stranded Indian Actress Who Reveled in Stag Party Jailed.

Sunshine friends were "Pete" Christ Ellert, 24, garage employe, and Louis Island, erstwhile football star with the Carlisle Indians, and who played on the Friar team a part of last season. They disclaimed all allegiance to Stella Goodman, 23, an Indian princess, who was arrested with them on a drunk charge Sunday morning.

Mrs. Goodman, who says she has been divorced for a week and who was stranded in Fort Wayne two weeks ago, when the show troupe she was traveling with went broke, pleaded not guilty to a drunk charge, in police court Monday morning. She had been in jail since Sunday morning while her companions were at liberty on bond.

She took the stand in her behalf after Officer Paul had said he knew she was drunk Sunday because "her feet didn't track right," and Stationmaster Degitz had testified that she had a "crying jag" when brought to the station.

"Do you know these men with whom you were arrested?" Judge Kerr asked the soulful eyed Indian princess.

"Pete is my sweetheart," she said. "We were all having a 'stag' party down to the garage where he works. Jack, who is an actor here in town, was with us."

"Is this girl your sweetheart?" Ellert was asked.

"That is the first I had heard of it," Pete said. He even admitted that Mrs. Goodman might have had enough drink to make her "tipsy."

All members of the unlucky trio said they had been in a garage all night Saturday and until they came down West Main street early Sunday morning, when they were arrested. The men pleaded guilty to drunk charges.

Island and Ellert were fined $5 and costs each. Their fines were extracted from their bonds. They hurriedly left the station. Mrs. Goodman, who was placed under $25 bond until Tuesday, was taken to jail, despite efforts of her attorney to induce the young men to deposit bond for her. Mrs. Goodman says she has been employed for a week at the ticket window of a local movie house and wants to go to Cleveland. It is expected that she will be released Tuesday.

KILLED IN 'PLANE COLLISION.

Captain Boelke, Noted German Airman, Is Reported Dead.

London, Oct. 30.—Captain Boelke, the famous German aviator, during an air fight on Saturday, came into collision with another aeroplane and was killed, according to a Berlin dispatch received by Reuter's Telegram company by way of Amsterdam. His machine landed within the German lines. On Friday Captain Boelke shot down his fortieth aeroplane.

A Paris paper on Oct. 18 reported that Boelke had been severely wounded by a shell from a French anti-aircraft gun. Since then, however, Boelke's name has been mentioned in the German official statements, and on Oct. 23 he was credited with having brought down his thirty-eighth aeroplane.

GREAT INHERITANCE TAX FROM WESTERN LAND KING'S ESTATE.

Mrs. George Nickel (upper left), wife of Miller's grandson, George Nickel; Miss Beatrice Nickel (lower), granddaughter of late land baron.

San Francisco, Cal., Oct. 30.—California is preparing to collect her greatest inheritance tax, possibly $4,000,000. Meanwhile the people of this state are interested in the will of the late Henry Miller, great cattle and land baron of the golden west.

When Henry Miller died a few days ago he left an estate variously estimated at from $40,000,000 up. Miller was no ordinary multi-millionaire. His vast fortune lay in the land, of which he had so many acres, that he himself did not know the extent.

His vast estate was one and a half times as big as Belgium, comprising millions of acres. It was stated that he could start a drove of cattle at the Canadian border and drive them 1,400 miles to the Mexican line and camp every night on his own land. Miller owned cities, banks and great droves of cattle. His motto while alive was "buy land but never sell it," and that he lived up to his belief is attested by the vast holdings he left at his death.

To his only daughter, Mrs. J. Leroy Nickel, her husband and their three children goes the bulk of the estate. Two of the grandchildren are boys. J. Leroy, jr. and George W. Nickel. Beatrice is the granddaughter. An interesting feature of the will is that the grandchildren must remain "sober and industrious" if they are to enjoy the fruits of the vast inheritance.

Miller also added that the grandsons must "enter upon some useful and honorable business."

Sarah E. Miller, widow of the late Henry Miller, jr., receives a bequest of $50,000 only from the will.

The aged land baron bequeathed $900,000 for public benefaction. Of this, $500,000 is for a medical research fund, $300,000 for a hospital at Gilroy, Cal., and $50,000 for San Francisco charities. Other substantial bequests are provided for relatives and employes of the great estate.

CLAIMS 310 VOTES OR MORE FOR MR. HUGHES

Willcox Puts Indiana, Ohio and New York in Republican Column.

New York, Oct. 30.—The prediction that Charles E. Hughes will have considerably more than 300 electoral votes, was made today by Chairman William R. Willcox, of the republican national committee. "Mr. Hughes will have 310 electoral votes or more," Mr. Willcox said. "My report shows that Ohio, Illinois and Indiana will all go republican as well as will also New York state. We also consider Michigan safe and although there is a bitter fight in Utah, I believe that will go republican. The democrats have been claiming Minnesota lately, but my reports from that state do not indicate it will go democratic. As to Wisconsin, there are a good many varying reports from there, but I was told today by authorities from that state that it will be in the republican column."

HICKSVILLE TWINS MUST GO TO JAIL

They Put on Big Drunk in Celebration of Their Birthdays.

Two Hicksville, Ohio, twins, whose appearance were duplicated from their tan shoes and checkered gray trousers to the right-hand part of their dark brown hair, were fined $5 and costs in police court Monday morning for celebrating their twenty-seventh birthday anniversary in Fort Wayne, Sunday.

Saturday was really the birthday of I. A. Thompson and A. I. Thompson. They went to Defiance Saturday night, where they bought drink. On Sunday they came to Fort Wayne to finish the celebration. They found Officer Paul as they shuffled down Barr street with their new brown caps tilted to larboard

"We want a drink," said A. I.

"Where can we buy a drink?" followed I. A.

"Come with me," said Officer Paul. He locked the boys up, although they protested vigorously. They were charged with public intoxication Monday morning.

"Guilty or not guilty?" asked Prosecutor Hoffman.

"Guilty," said I. A.

"Guilty," echoed A. I.

"Have you anything to say?" queried Judge Kerr after Officer Paul had testified.

"Nothing,' said A. I.

"Nothing," chimed I. A. with an identical shake of his head.

Officer Paul had said he took a half pint of whisky from the hip pocket of I. A., or maybe it was from A. I.

"Where did you get the whisky?' asked Judge Kerr.

"In Defiance," said A. I.

"You can't even get a good drink of water in Hicksville," added I. A.

"I will fine you fellows $5 and costs for being drunk on Sunday," Judge Kerr told them.

"I can't pay it," said I. A.

"Neither can I," A. I. said.

Their red mackinaws, with the black stripes around them, swung to the right and then the left as the twins moved towards the cells.

Brown Bound Over.

Charles Brown, who wears a Charles Chaplin mustache, was bound to the circuit court under $500 bond on a charge of grand larceny. He pleaded guilty to having taken brass fixtures valued at $85 from the Anthony hotel while employed there last week. Brown is said by detectives to have gone under four names and to have been sent to the penitentiary from Petersburg, Ind., on a grand larceny charge four years ago.

Band Broken Up.

Mexican furrys and wild stories of raids by one, Pancho Villa, fired the boyish spirits of five west end youths. The lads formed a raiding band. One plundering exploit, when fifteen cents worth of scrap tobacco was netted, and an ambush attack on two school boys, were the sum of their achievements. They found themselves in police court, Monday morning.

The boys are Earl McKinley, 15; Donald, Lazier, 12; Charles Jordon, 17; Elmer Jordon, 12, and Elmer Jordon, 15, all of whom live on West Third street.

Police were told that they moved upon a house under cover of darkness at 1403 West Third street, when tenants were away Friday and stole the tobacco which is always a part of the make-up of real bandits.

On Saturday they fired several shots from an air gun, from cover of willow bushes, that represented the sage brush of the southwestern arroyos, on Edmund Snoke and John Wilkins. The boys' parents told police. The bandits were corralled and brought to court. All but Charles Jordon were turned over to juvenile officers. The elder Jordon boy must report later to court.

For Sabbath Desecration.

Paul Salvo and Tony Delow, who operate a pool room at the corner of Fairfield avenue and Taylor streets, are charged with running their place of business on Sunday. Their trial is set for November 2. Diago Vinago is the complaining witness.

The two Italians say they bought the pool room but last week and that they did not know they could not run it on Sunday. They are not fully acquainted with American institutions, they argue.

Fined For Gambling.

William Cox and Lloyd Bland negroes, were slow in getting away when police raided a sidewalk crap game, on Holman street, just around the corner from Lafayette street, Sunday morning. Police secured the dice. The two negroes who were caught pleaded guilty to the gambling charge. They were fined $5 and costs.

Other Police Court Cases.

Fines for public intoxication were John Doe, forfeited $15 bond; Mike Finnigan, $5; Albert Watson, colored, $10; John Passig, $5; John Sammon, Fred Roy, John Bright, Jason Carpenter and Commodore Kick were released.

George Williams will be heard on November 10 on a charge of child neglect. George Holbrook will have trial on November 25 on a like charge.

WILL TAKE NO OFFICIAL NOTE OF THE STATEMENT

Atlantic City, N. J., Oct. 30.—It was indicated today that the American members of the American-Mexican joint commission will take no official cognizance of the statement credited to Louis Cabrera, head of the Mexican commission, in which American government officials were criticized for alleged laxity in dealing with smugglers of arms and ammunition.

Secretary of the Interior Lane, head of the American commission, will, it is said, accept without exception Mr. Cabrera's denial of authorship. Mr. Cabrera had not returned to Atlantic City early today, but Alberto J. Pani and Ignacio Bonillas, the other members of the Mexican commission, were here and without Mr. Cabrerar the joint commission resumed its conference.

Pine Village Drops First in Years

FRIARS DOWN ELYRIA AFTER HARD SCRAP

Visitors' Use of Forward Pass Makes Them Dangerous at All Times.

When the Elyria team marched out on the field yesterday headed by little Ambrose, the fans fairly groaned and looked for a repetition of the Dayton game. They surely didn't look like a dangerous bunch. The score was 24 to 13 in favor of the Friars. In the first quarter the locals lead up a count of ten, through a drop-kick, and a touchdown with the goal kicked.

Right at this time the locals were stopped having things their own way. Captain Byroade made some substitutions in order to save the regulars for next Sunday's headliner. At the beginning of the second quarter the visitors opened with a brand of forward passes, end runs and line bucks that was sensational. They never lost a first down until the ball was over the Friar line for the second touchdown of the season against the locals. They kicked the goal and then took up the fight again threatening the Friar goal throughout the remainder of the period.

Evidently Captain Byroade decided that he had better win this game before saving the players for next Sunday's contest for when the team lined up for the kick-off the original line-up was used.

The scoring for the rest of the game was in the Friars' favor with two touchdowns to the visitors one. Chambers relieved Young at full and just naturally bucked the ball over the line. The last marker of the game was made when a visiting sub-halt caught a forward pass and ran twenty-five yards through a broken field for a touchdown.

The visitors certainly did not look their speed and they put up one of the surprises of the season. With the locals going at the best stride they have hit so far, the Elyria team piled up the biggest score against them. The team was weak on the defensive and the locals piled up a good sized count but the speed of the Buckeyes kept the game interesting at all times.

Every Man Delivered.

Every man on the local squad who went into the game yesterday delivered. Whitey Gerberding had the worst luck. About the third play after he went in a Buckeye broke through the Friar line and started down the field. In turning him toward the sideline Whitey got a good hard bump and was knocked groggy for the rest of the time he was in. Pliska and Johnson with Dorias to direct them can do wonders and they proved it yesterday. Smith, who relieved Johnson, looks better every time he gets in, too.

The two ends were held up in great shape yesterday with Trimble playing the whole game and Zaring working until well into the fourth quarter. Feeney and O'Donnel with Jones and Edwards beside them, certainly do put up a stone wall defense.

The Fort Wayne fans can be glad that it was only a myth that Dorias had signed with Massilion. He is the brainest player who ever performed on this field and directs the team in a manner that makes it a sure winner. By running with the ball yesterday he did a good deal to work the stiffness out of that bum leg and will be in first class condition for next Sunday's battle.

The officiating yesterday was the best of the season and the game was run through without a hitch. Haggerty refused to argue except with the captains and he did very little then beside laying down the law in a decided manner.

ELYRIA (13)		FRIARS (24)
Zeigman	L.E.	Trimble
Squires	L.T.	Jones
O'Connell	L.G.	O'Donnell

Evanston Wins in a Walk Away

Evanston, Oct. 30.—After trailing by three points at the close of the first quarter and leading by only 7 to 3 at intermission time the North Ends of Evanston, taking an injection of speed serum, turned on the South Bend collegiates and trounced the Hoosiers, 51 to 3, at De Paul field. The Evanstonians put up a weak exhibition of football in the first two quarters, during which time Johnson's touchdown resulted in the only score.

In the third quarter three markers flew by the goal posts when Coach Moore's proteges cut loose with the forward pass. The same progressive type of gridiron work was shown in the final session, when three more touchdowns and a drop kick from the forty-five yard mark by Johnson was registered.

INDIANA STUDENTS HAPPY.

Bloomington, Ind., Oct. 30.—Tired but happy, nearly 2,500 Indiana students returned from Indianapolis at an early hour Sunday morning, where they witnessed the Tufts game, which resulted 12 to 10 in favor of the easterners. The Hoosier rooters have nothing but the highest praise for the work of Coach Stiehm, who has caused the Indiana stock to soar and who has made a great improvement in the work of the team since Chicago was met. Stiehm's scout returned today with word that Northwestern is stronger than in years, and that Indiana will have to continue to improve to win next Saturday.

WILL BE NO LETUP.

Notre Dame, Ind., Oct. 30.—Despite the easy victory over Wabash there will be no letup in the Notre Dame camp, and the remaining three days of practice on the home grounds will be given over to the hardest kind of offensive and defensive drill. More pleasing to the coaches than the big score piled up against Wabash was the fact that with the exception of a few minor bruises the regulars came through without injury. The fans are cheered by the news that when the Hoosiers entrain for West Point on next Thursday "Hard" Whipple, star of last year's Nebraska game, will be with the crew.

LOCAL PILOTS GO BIG.

Ralph Ormsby and William Brown, local race drivers, were the big noises at the Burlington automobile races Saturday and Sunday. Ormsby broke the track record, making the mile in 53¼ seconds. In the twenty-five mile go, Brown and Ormsby were fighting for first place when Ormsby went through the fence, doing slight damage to his mount, but with no injury to himself. Brown took the race in 23 minutes and 23 seconds.

BOOSTERS ARE AGAIN BUSY

Convention Hall Meetings at Two Factories at Noon Today.

ADDRESSES CREATE NEW ENTHUSIASM

Speakers Have Encountered No Opposition to the Coliseum.

The speakers at the noon meetings at the factories and shops, working in the interest of the projected convention hall, report that no adverse sentiment has yet been heard. Everyone seems enthusiastic and many are the voluntary promises to boost the plan to a successful finish.

Two meetings were held today noon, one in the west end of the city, at the plant of the Dudlo Manufacturing Co., and the other in the east end for the employes of the Western Gas Construction Co.

W. H. Shambaugh's Boost.

William H. Shambaugh, who has worked hard for the convention hall project, was the first speaker at the plant of the Western Gas Construction company. Sherman Fay, chief draftsman of the plant, had charge of the arrangements. Mr. Shambaugh laid stress upon the fact that every man who lives and works in Fort Wayne, or who owns property or plans to own property, should be enthusiastically in favor of the convention hall which will be such a great incentive to the growth of the city's prosperity. The point was made especially strong when it is remembered that the establishment of the convention hall will not increase the tax levy--in fact, that the 5-cent sinking fund levy, from which the convention hall will be built, will remain the same whether the building is erected or not.

"It is to the interest of every loyal citizen, whether he is rich or poor, to support this great project on election day," he said.

Attorney Hayes' Views.

Attorney Byron Hayes followed Mr. Shambaugh, opening with a picture of Fort Wayne as a bigger city and a faster-growing city than the citizens realize it to be. The pressing need of a convention hall and community center was clearly presented. Mr. Hayes referred to the great amount of advertising which the city of Chicago has received through the possession of its coliseum where great conventions are held throughout the year. The picture of the building is familiar to everyone in America, and soon the Fort Wayne coliseum will bring to this city a fame in proportion to the value of the building and the position of the city in the commercial and fraternal world.

A. G. Burry's Talk.

At the plant of the Dudlo Manufacturing company, George M. Haffner presided. A. G. Burry, manager of the Fort Wayne Box company, the first speaker, referred to the proposed convention hall as "something we all want."

"It is our immediate, imperative need," said he. "We have been compelled to turn down many important conventions during the past few years because we haven't had a place large enough to accommodate the people. And, furthermore, we have been unable to hold large exhibitions, expositions and other great affairs of a civic and industrial nature. Therefore, every loyal citizen of Fort Wayne will vote for the proposed convention hall."

Judge Aiken's Remarks.

Judge John H. Aiken referred to the great amount of money which would be put into circulation by the conventions which the city can entertain as soon as the convention hall is finished. Any convention which will be large enough to demand a convention hall will throw into circulation from $20,000 up. He detailed the method of paying for the coliseum without an increase of taxation and pictured the glory of the participation in the great project which would permanently serve all the people.

Rev. A. J. Folsom's Words.

Rev. A. J. Folsom, who was present as a spectator, was called upon to express his views, which he did in his usual enthusiastic style when the welfare of the people of the city is concerned. Mr. Folsom sees in the convention hall one of the greatest blessings which can come to a progressive city.

FRUIT AND NOT GOLD LOOT OF BOY BURGLARS

Five bananas, a razor and a flashy gold stickpin was the loot of youthful vandals who ransacked the home of J. A. Riley, 918 Huestis avenue, Sunday. The daylight robbers had not touched $120 in an opened dresser drawer, nor a valuable gold watch.

The Riley family was away from home Sunday. First notice of the robbery was when a rear window was found open. The bananas were missed next. Banana skins were scattered over the house. In every room burned matches were found.

Police believe that all signs point to boys who knew of the absence of the Riley family and who took occasion to get articles most treasured in their youthful eyes.

THREE WIVES FILE SUITS FOR DIVORCE

Mrs. Fred Fleichman Says That Her Husband Would Often Desert Her.

Alleging that her husband deserted her for fifteen weeks at a time; that he often remained out all night, nagged her and called her vile names, Minnie Fleischman has filed suit in superior court for a divorce from Fred Fleischman. They were married September 6, 1906, and separated October 25, 1916. Alimony of $1,000 is asked in addition to an allowance for the child. Ryan, Ryan & Aldrich are attorneys for the plaintiff.

Wilma Hendricks, in suit for divorce filed in superior court, charges that Edward Hendricks deserted her three times, struck and beat her and told her to leave and never return again. Failure to provide is also alleged. Emrick & Emrick are attorneys for the plaintiff, who asserts in her complaint that they were married February 18, 1915, and separated October 16 last.

Failure to provide for his wife and family of three children is charged in a divorce bill which Zelma F. Bodecker has filed in superior court against William H. Bodecker. They were married May 20, 1908, and separated October 28.

Not Discharged as Bankrupt.

Judge Sol A. Wood, referee in bankruptcy, has refused to discharge Isadore H. Lande as a bankrupt after a review of the objections of creditors. Lande did business in Fort Wayne under the name of the Orpheum Cloak and Suit company.

Sorg Awarded Contract.

The county commissioners Monday let the contract for tileing the new county farm to Mike H. Sorg. His bid was 12 cents per foot depth. The other bidder was M. N. Sprang, who submitted a bid of 14 cents. There are 4,000 rods of tile to be laid.

Repair School Building.

Repair work to the school in the rolling mill district was superintended Monday by Allen Hamilton, Wayne township trustee. The heating system at this school has been defective. Trouble has also been experienced with pumps at several of the schools as persons have been putting in sand at the top, destroying the suction. At two of three schools of the township the water is reported as not good and the trustee will have tests made.

LOOKING FOR A SAFE PLACE TO LAND!

Officials Figuring on Cost of Making New the Blackened Walls.

Members of the board of works are figuring on the cost of having walls of the city hall cleaned. Charles Ray, of Chicago, who just finished work of transforming the front of the Lincoln Life building, is measuring the building to ascertain his lowest bid on the job. He says it will require a month for six men with three lines of blow pipes to remove the grime, which eighteen years of flying dust and smoke clouds have placed on the city building.

Ray has carried on two cleaning jobs in Fort Wayne and success of his work has attracted members of the works board. They believe the sombre walls of the city hall need brightening up and will have the work done if cost is not too high.

Ray has carried on this kind of work from coast to coast. He considers his clamboring along the edge of the top wall of the Lincoln Life building, which caused many spectators to hold their breath, as a light experience. One of his most difficult feats of steeple jack cleaning was when he drew himself up along the sides of the Perry monument, in Put-in-Bay, Michigan, and wielded his blow pipe at the airy height of 300 feet. His father carried on the same kind of work for forty years, he says.

Finished Cinder Path.

A broad cinder path, for the benefit of pedestrians, has been built from Crescent avenue to Delta boulevard, across a part of Lakeside park.

Setting Ready for Monument.

Landscape setting for the Perry A. Randall monument in Swinney park has been completed. Members of the park board inspected the work Monday morning. They expressed themselves as being highly pleased with the artistic arrangement of small trees, shrubs and flower beds by Park Superintendent Getz to give suitable setting for the monument.

To Consider Final Estimates.

Final estimates on costs and assessments resulting from purchase of land for enlargement of Weisser park will be taken up by the park board at their meetin Monday afternoon. Assessment roll for building of sidewalks, curb and gutter on both sides of Rudisill boulevard, from Piqua to Hanna streets, will be passed by the board.

Are Laying Base.

The Grace Construction company started laying concrete base for paving of Purman street, Monday.

Putting in Curb.

Work of installing concrete curb and gutter on Eckert street from Lafayette to Warsaw street started Monday.

Grading of Gumpper street from Calhoun to Webster is under way.

Laying Top Dressing.

Top dressing is beinl layed on St. Joe boulevard from North street to Tennessee avenue.

Are Giving Surplus Weight.

Inspection by City Sealer C. B. Tolan shows that most Fort Wayne coal dealers are giving overweight in their delivery of coal. Tolan weighed sixty-five wagons from many coal yards last week. There was 316 pounds' overweight in the whole number. Twenty-nine of the loads, however, did not tip the scales at the required weight, Tolan found. Eight wagon loads weighed just the right amount and twenty-eight loads were 930 pounds overweight.

RURAL MAIL CARRIER CYCLE CLASH VICTIM

When a motorcycle which Bruce J. Rathburn, a rural mail carrier of Orland, Ind., was riding was side-swiped by an automobile Sunday morning at the intersection of the brick yard and the Leo road, the carrier suffered two broken bones in one leg and a scalp wound necessitating his removal to St. Joseph's hospital, where he will be confined for several weeks. Frank J. Johns and his brother, Fred A., were occupants of the car, the former driving. Charles Lyons, who was on the motorcycle, was also hurt.

The auto suddenly swerved to the left and struck the motorcycle, Rathburn says. The mail carrier's leg was caught between the fender of the car and the engine of the machine. Orland motorists near by rushed to the scene and took Rathburn to the hospital. Dr. W. W. Barnett treated the man.

ROTARY CLUB WILL ENTERTAIN "NEWSIES"

Plans Completed for Banquet to Be Given at Anthony Tonight.

Members of the Rotary club will entertain eighty newsboys of Fort Wayne Monday night at a banquet at the Hotel Anthony. The boys will assemble in the convention hall at 6 o'clock under direction of Charles N. Phelps, a member of the Rotary club, and from there go to the hotel.

Prof. Stanley Coulter, dean of the department of science, Purdue university, will address the banquet prior to the entertainment of Edward Reno, the magician. Two Rotarians and two newsboys will sit at each banquet table, the members of the Rotary club sitting with the newsboy whose tag number corresponds to the number the Rotarian holds.

Influence which the movement has had on members of the Rotary club is unusual, Frank E. Bohn, president, states. "Every man in the bunch has taken this thing just as seriously as we hoped they would," he said. "Every man of us feels that while we are studying the boys, they, too, are studying us. And if the thing works out right, all of us will profit."

The Cheerful Aid society will meet on Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Nicholls, 1233 Winter street.

Seventy-Two Per Cent is the Average for Fifty Plants.

Seventy-two per cent is the average grade of the fifty dairies which furnish the milk supply for Fort Wayne. One hundred per cent is a perfect score. More than sixty items are considered in making the grades and perfect record is almost impossible.

Paul Kucher, meat and dairy inspector, finished his report Monday, after nearly a month of inspection work. Among the items considered are: Amount of light in the cow barns, kind of milk strainers used, condition of the cattle and general sanitation.

Scores for the dairies follows:

BRECKENRIDGE DENIES THE CHARGE BY LODGE

Calls Criticism of Wilson Note "Beneath Contempt."

New York, Oct. 30.—Henry C. Breckenridge, former assistant secretary of war, in a telegram from San Mateo, Cal., to the Philadelphia Public Ledger, announced the attack of Senator Henry Cabot Lodge on President Wilson as "beneath contempt," and branded as a "scoundrel" the alleged informant of Senator Lodge.

Senator Lodge in an address Saturday night reiterated his charge that President Wilson had added an appendix to the "strict accountability" note to the effect that its contents were not to be taken too seriously, and that he suppressed the appendix only when Secretary of War Garrison and several other members of the cabinet threatened to resign.

Senator Lodge said that his information on the subject came from Dr. Charles H. Bailey of the Tufts Medical school, who learned it in a conversation with former Assistant Secretary of War Breckenridge.

In his telegram Mr. Breckenridge says no member of the cabinet ever threatened the president on any subject.

NOBODY HOME WHEN FIRE ATTACKS HOUSE

Nobody had been in the frame house at 912 Eckart street for two days when the building leaped into flames Saturday night at 9 o'clock. Neighbors discovered the blaze and called out firemen. Upstairs rooms were damaged and the roof burned off.

Mrs. Cora Shaw, who rents the house, had been in Huntington since Thursday. Oscar Gallaghan and Newton Mullineaux, who room there, were staying with relatives in another part of the city during Mrs. Shaw's absence. Mrs. Shaw's six-year-old daughter, Bessie, was staying with Mrs. L. Knepper, 821 Clinton street. Mrs. Knepper says the only key to the place was left with her and had not been called for during Mrs. Shaw's absence.

Origin of the fire, which did $600 damage, is a mystery. Firemen have a theory that a burglar might have been prowling through the upstairs rooms and accidentally started the conflagration.

ENTIRE STATE WILL SEE PLANNING SHOW

Many cities in Indiana will have the opportunity of seeing the city-planning exhibit recently given in Fort Wayne under the auspices of the Women's Club league, according to an announcement made by Harold S. Buttenheim, president of the New York city bureau and editor of "The American City," who Sunday night arrived in Fort Wayne from Evansville and Terre Haute.

Mr. Buttenheim was enthusiastic over the prospects of city planning in the state and stated that Evansville and Terre Haute were preparing to put on the exhibit. The show will be given in Evansville during the week of the Indiana Real Estate association convention, Nov. 15-17. While in Fort Wayne Mr. Buttenheim was the guest of Lee J. Ninde, president of the Indiana Real Estate association. The next number of the American City, a magazine devoted to civic interests, will carry a story by Francis H. Bulot, engineer for Wildwood Builders, on Shawnee place.

The Big Cop Talks Politics

By Ellis Parker Butler, Author of "Pigs is Pigs"

Terry, the Big Cop, paused before Banana Joe's fruit stand and looked over his stock with an experienced eye.

"Joe," he asked, "do you want peace or war?"

"I wanta cella de banan," grinned Joe.

"I'll let you," said he Big Cop. "I prefer apples, anyway," and he took the best apple in sight. With mock deference Joe took the apple from him and polished it carefully before handing it back to him.

"You must think I'm as hard to suit as a Republican campaign orator," said the Big Cop pleasantly. "It looks to me as if they were not satisfied to get everything they want from the Democratic administration, but had to kick because they got it. I was not talking through my hat, Joe, when I asked you did you want peace or war."

"No?" asked Joe casually.

"I was not," said the Big Cop firmly. "I thought maybe I could add you to the large and toothful war party. At the present time the inhabitants of the United States are divided into two grand divisions—those who want peace and those who want war. The first consists of Theodore Roosevelt, and the second of the rest of us. Barring his sons and grandsons, whom he threatened to enlist, Theodore's war party has not grown much. I hoped he might add a blood-thirsty banana man like you to it.

"I have a kid at home, Joe. A fine little lad he is, too, and it is none of his fault he is a baby. Had he been born twenty years earlier he would be a man by now, but a babe he is and he has all the ways of a babe. You should hear him bawl when he sets his mind on the job and gives his heart to it! You can hear him a mile. And does he need anything to bawl about? Indeed, no. Does he want a piece of candy? Waw! waw! waw! The neighbors think we are murdering him, the way he howls. So we give him the lollypop he wants. He cries ten times louder than he ever did before. Waw! waw! waw! waw! He's got what he wants, but he bawls because we gave it to him and did not let him climb the shelves of the closet and get it himself! The little skeesicks, he reminds me of the Republicans, this campaign.

"Have you heard any of them, Joe? You should. You can go in free and they're twice as funny as Charley Chaplin. One-half of them are shouting themselves hoarse for honorable peace and the other half yelling their heads off for adequate preparedness. Hughes is to get all that, do you mind!

"If I was running the Republican campaign, Joe, I would confine the issue to whiskers. On that platform I would be safe. With the naked eye any voter can see that Hughes has more whiskers than Woodrow has, and there would be less to laugh at. It would be a clean, straight issue—'Do you want a whiskered president or a shaved one?' The staunch Republicans would know what they were for and what they were against. There would be less seen of the man in the audience who gets up, when the Republican spell-binder is telling what the Republicans stand for this year, and says, 'Excuse me for living, but the Democrats have been for that these four years and Woodrow Wilson and Congress have already done it and done it well.'

"Has anyone yet pried into your ivory dome, Joe, the fact that the Democratic administration has made twenty-four treaties of peace with all the great nations of the world, agreeing there shall be no war by or against us until the quarrel has been thoroughly investigated by a permanent international commission, and a report made and for twelve months after diplomacy has failed, if fail it does? Has anyone told you that these agreements bind twelve hundred million people? If Woodrow Wilson is so bad there are twelve hundred million glad to be like him.

"You see, Joe, Wilson has said, with the Republicans and Democrats in the Senate agreeing, 'Let us have no more citizen-murder if we can settle our quarrels with foreign nations without it.' 'But what if we can't settle it that way?' you say. 'Suppose,' you say, 'we have to pick up the big hickory club?' 'What club?' I ask, and you look around for it and all you find is a willow switch, which is hardly the weapon to tackle a mad enemy with.

"You see, Joe, the Democrats and Republicans both thought of that. To keep trespassers off your lot you need a club and not a switch, for when they come they bring a club with them. So, whilst arranging every means to avoid trouble and slaughter, the Democrats and Republicans together have remembered preparedness and have cut a stout hickory club to have handy in case of need. In the national program of peace and war the Republicans are like my babe—the only howl they have is that we gave them what they wanted and they are sore that they did not have the chance to give exactly the same things. To my mind whiskers would be a better campaign issue, by far. The Republicans are making a great cry these days, Joe, but it worries the nation no more than the bawl of my babe John when he has already got what he wants. But there is one thing more close to the Republican leader's heart than even whiskers."

"What?" asked Joe wearily.

"A government job for the Republican leader," said the Big Cop, "and that is what all the pow-wow is about when you come right down to it."

REPUBLICAN BLUNDER WILL PROVE COSTLY

Leaders All But Ignore Women Voters in 12 Big States.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 26.—There is place which hath no fury like a woman scorned!

It is such fury many of the National Woman's party organizers hold toward republican campaign managers today, despite the close alliance between the women and the Hughes camp.

The reason is that until quite recently the republican directors practically forgot that such a being as a woman voter existed.

"The biggest display of boneheadedness extant!" is the way some of the Woman's Party leaders have characterized this "blunder."

Tales of committee room scenes have begun to filter out here—scenes over which the women campaigners are still gnashing their teeth.

And, according to the women who are talking, republican leaders have displayed the "most assinine indifference in trying to capture the 2,000,000 women's votes in the twelve suffrage states."

While the women campaigners for the National Woman's Party were out rustling an organized vote against Wilson, republican speakers were either mum or mode but casual reference to the feminine vote.

The democrats on the other hand are making every effort to appease feminine belligerents and to catch the neutral woman's ballot. Many of the most effective speeches of democratic speakers, directed toward women, are said by Woman's Party leaders to have been written in the white house.

Judging by recent speeches, the republicans have at length awakened somewhat to the opportunity they were letting slip toward corraling that 2,000,000 woman-power.

The result of "the colossal stupidity" ascribed to republican campaign directors is pointed out by women in the Hughes western trip.

On the first leg of his swing Hughes said nothing to women. In Spokane, Wash., after a borbardment of his train by Woman's Party telegrams, he made some effort to catch the fair vote. In Seattle he again passed over it lightly.

In San Francisco, where woman suffrage sentiment was shown to be weak when California gained the ballot, Hughes opened up some big guns for women voters' benefit, but in Los Angeles, where suffrage bias is strong, he said never a word.

It is no secret that the Woman's Party would rather have worked with the democratic had conditions been different, and the attitude of republican campaign managers and advisers, as it is viewed by women, has not served to eliminate that natural prejudice.

It is predicted here that the republicans, by their "boneheadedness," may have lost a million women's votes that were ready for their plucking.

THE DAWN OF A NEW STANDARD IN VALUE GIVING

This store is always doing something unexpected in the way of value giving. As a matter of fact, we've established more or less of a precedent in this wise and the bargain hunters with a realization of "what's what" will probably be found here oftener than they will be in any other furniture store in town. Not only do these bargain prices apply upon special articles, but we have priced every bit of our stock at such attractive figures that the discriminate can hardly resist the temptation to buy. We have found out after a long and successful career of merchandising that the wisest and soundest principle upon which a business house can build is to give their clientele the most and the best for the least. Believe us—nowadays the percentage of people who are paying a high and fancy price for anything just to show their envious brethren who are looking on that they are able to do it, is mighty, mighty small. The world do move, and the people who are making every spent dollar bring one hundred per cent results are the ones who are hustling along keeping pace with it. We are running this store for the benefit of these kind of people and the immense business that we have built seems to indicate that we are on the right track. We want everyone who enters here to feel that they are coming into a store where it is considered a cardinal sin to sell anyone a piece of merchandise that is not worth every penny given for it. Many times it is worth more than you paid for it, but the consideration is making sure that the purchase price is justified by the quality of the article. We would like to number YOU among the large number of customers who have been won to our side by these sort of storekeeping principles.

HIGH COST OF LIVING HITS U. S. CONSULATES

Official and Clerks in Europe in Need of Financial Assistance.

Washington, Oct. 30.—Urgent need of financial assistance for American consular officials and clerical assistants in Europe, obliged, because of the greatly increased cost of living since the war, to pay three times more than normal peace time prices for food stuffs and personal necessities, is shown in reports received almost daily by the state department.

Almost without exception these show that what was regarded before the war as an attractive compensation for consular employes today is scarcely sufficient to provide food and the bare necessities. The $150,000 allowance given by congress as a war fund to be distributed to consular officers to meet increased demands has been allotted and the department is now without means of extending furother relief. No provision was made for the relief of clerks and other employes, and except for a few whose salaries have been increased, no assistance has been give this class and none is possible until congress provides additional funds.

A year ago the department directed consular officers to report on the cost of living at their posts to determine development of the increase. Estimates showed that the $150,000 would be sufficient then to meet only from 50 to 60 per cent. of the actual increased cost at all affected posts.

Department records show there are about 600 employes in the European consular services whose salaries are $1,000 or less. In most cases natives are employed as clerks, stenographers or similar positions, whose expenses are naturally less than those of the American employes. The number of Americans in this grade of employment is estimated at about 1,500 and they most feel the need of financial aid. Statistics are being prepared of the amounts that will be needed to give the desired assistance.

Nowhere in the war zone has the cost of living not been addected, and in some localities it has increased as much as six times what it was before the war.

J. E. Crane, an employe at the Wabash shops, and his wife left night on a pleasure trip to Washington, D. C. They will return the latter patr of the week.

FARMER DIDN'T WAIT UNTIL CAR HAD STOPPED

"Monroe street," called the conductor of an East Creighton avenue street car Saturday evening at 6 o'clock. He had no sooner called the stop when James Blee, a farmer, aged 70 years, residing ten miles southwest of the city, lett his seat, ran to the back platform and stepped off the moving car. He was thrown to the street with violence. He was removed to St. Joseph's hospital, where his condition is regarded as critical.

It was found that the aged man is suffering from two fractured ribs on the right side and a severe injury to his head. Dr. J. Frank Dinnen was called immediately after the accident and he had the injured man taken to the hospital.

Reports from the hospital Monday were that the aged man's condition was extremely serious and that there was but slight hopes for his recovery.

Fifteen Years and Six Months Ahead—

Fifteen Years and six months from today Melville Clark's basic patents on the Apollo Player expire—then—any manufacturer can give you the same features in his instrument.

But today the Apollo is fifteen years and six months ahead of the player piano industry. Until Melville Clark's patents become invalid, the Solo-Apollo is and will be the only instrument of its kind in the world that accents the theme or melody of a composition that enables you to instantly omit the melody notes, playing only the accompaniment and play that accompaniment in any of eight different keys!

When we say, "The Solo-Apollo is the only player piano in the world that does this", we mean it. We are prepared to prove our statements and if you'll send your name, we'll forward a simple and positive method by which you can, without even visiting a music store, verify absolutely and conclusively the above statements.

The Apollo contains the Metronome Motor—built like and as noiseless and accurately adjusted as the finest watch. This motor rewinds the music roll without pedaling.

The Apollo Player Piano produces music by exactly the same method as a human being—directly down on the keys. No other player piano can have these features—no instrument can give true music without them. Let us have your name and we'll let you have the reasons.

TELLS HOW PANICS ARE NOW AVERTED

Former Congressman Bowdle, Cousin of Allen Hamilton, in Address.

Allen Hamilton, Wayne township trustee, has received a clipping from a Cincinnati paper through his aunt, Mrs. M. S. Kerby, of San Diego, Cal., in which the speech of Stanley Bowdle, former congressman, a cousin of Mr. Hamilton, dealing with democratic legislation, is set out. Congressman Bowdle both defeated and was beaten by Nicholas Longsworth for congress from Ohio.

The clipping says: "Former Congressman Bowdle, who is a favorite with democratic audiences, interspersed his remarks with witticisms and biting sarcasm, which provoked frequent laughter. Among other things, Mr. Bowdle said:

"'For thirty years the republican party issued rosy promises of relief from panics, but in those years we had just six, and not a legislative line of relief. The democratic party in the first year of its administration went straight at that question and enacted a bill that cured this evil.

"'For fifty years the republican party issued rosy promises to rehabilitate our merchant marine. But not a line of legislation did they write to perform their promise; meanwhile our overseas merchant marine dwindled to just four ships. You see that England, having the greatest merchant marine in the world, has not wanted other nations to compete with her, and operating through her potent pecuniary channels, has managed the republican party pretty well in keeping us from having a merchant marine. But the democratic party is about to give this nation a merchant marine, to be owned and operated by your Uncle Sam. Fifty millions have been appropriated as a starter for this purpose.

"'The republican party now proposes to discharge the captain and navigators, and put Hughes and Roosevelt aboard. This is a perilous project. With Hughes as president and Roosevelt as secretary of war or state, the outlook for our further voyage would be gloomy indeed. Our ship of state could get no insurance with these navigators aboard.

"'Let the citizen interested in peace contemplate Hughes and Roosevelt in power at Washington. And why should not Mr. Roosevelt be secretary of war? In warlike tones he approves of Hughes and Hughes accepts the approval; and both guarantee to change the policies which have brought peace.

"'Roosevelt accuses Mr. Wilson of being a "man of words." If his words have brought peace, then blessed be those words, and long may he live who penned them.'"

SAYS WE BECOME CRANKS ON HOT WATER DRINKING

Hopes Every Man and Woman Adopts This Splendid Morning Habit.

Why is man and woman, half the tim feeling nervous, despondent, worried; some days headachy, dull and unstrung; some days really incapacitated by illness.

If we all would practice the drinking of phosphated hot water before breakfast, what a gratifying change would take place. Instead of thousands of half-sick, anaemic-looking souls with pasty, muddy complexions we should see crowds of happy, healthy, rosy-cheeked people everywhere. The reason is that the human system does not rid itself each day of all the waste which it accumulates under our present modo of living. For every ounce of food and drink taken into the system nearly an ounce of waste material must be carried out, else it ferments and forms ptomaine-like poisons in the bowels which are absorbed into the blood.

Just as necessary as it is to clean the ashes from the furnace each day, before the fire will burn bright and hot, so we must each morning clear the inside organs of the previous day's accumulation of indigestible waste and body toxins. Men and women, whether sick or well, are advised to drink each morning, before breakfast, a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it, as a harmless means of washing out of the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels the indigestible material, waste, sour bile and toxins; thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach.

Millions of people who had their turn at constipation, bilious attacks, acid stomach, nervous days and sleepless nights have become real cranks about the morning inside-bath. A quarter pound of limestone phosphate will not cost much at the drug store, but is sufficient to demonstrate to anyone, its cleansing, sweetening and freshening effect upon the system.—Advertisement.

ONE NEW MEMBER.

The Woman's Relief Corps of Sion S. Bass post, G. A. R., held a meeting lats week in Vordermark hall and one new member was mustered in. A social session followed.

Cause of Constipation.

Constipation results from a lack of moisture in the residual matter of the food. To effect a permanent cure more water must be taken into the system. Drink a full glass of water half an hour before breakfast and about the third of a glass an hour and a half after each meal, also eat an apple or banana before breakfast and before going to bed. Make sure that your bowels move just after breakfast whether there is an inclination or not. When a medicine is needed take Chamberlain's Tablets as they are mild and gentle in effect, but no medicine should be taken when operations can be induced naturally each day. To effect a permanent cure time and patience are required as bad habits are more easily formed than broken up. Obtainable everywhere.—Advertisement.

BOBBY JONES IN THE HOSPITAL

Veteran Engineer and Councilman Suffers from Blood Poisoning.

Robert Johns, retired Nickel Plate engineer and representative of the Fifth ward in the municipal council, was taken to St. Joseph's hospital this afternoon, dangerously ill from blood poisoning. Mr. Johns had been sick for some weeks and recently returned from the sanitarium at Mt. Clemens. His present condition arose from an insignificant scratch on one of his legs a week ago. Mr. Johns worked on the Nickel Plate over a quarter of a century and is one of the best known railway men of the city. He is about seventy-five years old.

FIRE CAUSES $2,500 DAMAGE.

Destroyed Oil Storage Plant and Some of the Contents.

Master Mechanic E. E. Griest, of the Pennsylvania, estimates the loss from the oil house fire at the round house Sunday night at upwards of $2,000. An inventory of the stock made this morning showed the destruction of thirty-seven barrels of oil, 2,000 pounds of waste and some other materials, which were worth $800, and the loss to the building, of which a part was totally destroyed, is placed at $1,200 to $1,500. Mr. Griest is unable to give the origin of the fire, but at the round house it is believed to have started from a spark lodging in a piece of oily waste in the basement of the building. The part burned was the frame and corrugated steel addition to the brick building, just east of the office building at the round house, which is used as a store and distributing house for oil used in the plant and by locomotives. The east end of the brick building, in the basement of which was stored several thousand gallons of oil, was gutted, but not destroyed, and the contents were damaged only by water, which can be withdrawn, leaving the contents unharmed. The fire broke out at 10 o'clock Sunday night and prompt action on the part of the city fire department and the Pennsylvania volunteer firemen prevented a blaze that might have cost many thousands of dollars. The work of fighting the fire was handicapped in the start by two box cars, which stood on a track south of the burning building and which were also damaged by the flames. A switch engine removed these cars and give the firemen a chance to play upon the flames, which they quickly subdued. At 6:30 Monday, before the debris had time to cool off, men began work tearing it away and getting ready to rebuild the burned portion and repair the other parts of the building. In the meantime temporary means for handling the oil and waste have been inaugurated and no serious inconvenience will be experienced. P. J. Bopp is the foreman in charge of the oil and can house and soon was master of the situation.

HAD FIGHT WITH WILDCAT.

Pennsylvania Shopman Romy Has Unpleasant Experience.

C. D Romy, of the Pennsylvania planing mills, who took a week's leave of absence to hunt in Michigan, has notified the foreman at the shops that he will not be able to resume work for awhile. The cause is told in a letter from Mrs. Romy, who is in Michigan with her husband. Last Friday while out hunting, Mr. Romy had a terrific fight with a wildcat The feline attacked the dog and was getting the best of it. Not being able to shoot the cat for fear of hurting the dog, Mr. Romy threw down his gun and entered the fray with a knife. Then the cat left the dog and paid particular attention to the man and before he killed the animal it scratched his face and hands frightfully. After he killed the cat finally and will have it dressed by a taxidermist and mounted as a reminder of the fight. "He is a sight to behold," Mrs. Romy said in her letter, referring to the appearance of her husband after the encounter.

TO USE NEW BUILDING.

It was decided Saturday to have the next meeting of the Electro-Technic club in the third story of building 26, one of the new additions on Wall street. The floor in this story is constructed of maple and is excellent for dancing purposes, which will form part of the amusements of the evening. The lecture on that occasion will be delivered by W. S. Goll, a commercial engineer, whose subject will be "Rock Drills," of especial interest to members of the club because the manufacture of machinery for rock drilling is one of the new industries at the plant. This meeting will take place on Tuesday evening, November 21. The December meeting, which will be on the night of the 14th, will also be held in building 26, as the new structure is known at the shops. It will consist of short talks by the local officers of the General Electric company. The January, February and March meeting will, it is thought, be held at the Moose hall and they will have some very attractive features. It is the purpose of the club management to make this season's series of entertainments better than any that preceded it. The membership is larger than ever before and is growing each week. Saturday there were 320 names on the roll.

BIG BUSINESS IN OCTOBER.

Every local freight agent of the city says the business of his station for October will exceed the business of any previous October from 15 to 25 per cent. Some of the agents put the percentage of increase higher. Each warehouse has experienced a lot of trouble in getting help. Laborers were scarce and unreliable, many of them taking a job just for a day or two to make a stake to carry them to another town. The condition is gradually becoming less serious, however, laborers realizing that winter is coming upon them and it has the result of making them stick to an inside job, rather than take chances of having to work out doors when the weather is cold and stormy.

MAKING HEADLIGHT TESTS.

Exhaustive headlight tests are in progress on some of the eastern divisions of the Pennsylvania, to determine which is the best light and which fills the requirements of the new federal law most thoroughly. These tests may be extended over a period of several weeks. Fort Wayne men who are participating in them are Assistant Road Foreman of Engines O. E. Maxwell, Engineers W. K. Wilder, Daniel Boivard, H. F. Harper and C. B. Brower, the two last named being freight and the two first named passenger engineers. At present the tests are being carried on in New York, but they will probably shift to other districts.

RETURNS FROM VACATION.

D. C. Zook, master carpenter of the Pennsylvania Western division, resumed the active duties of that office this morning, after an absence of two or three weeks. He first went to the annual convention of the American Bridge and Building association at New Orleans. Then with other delegates he visited the greatest lumber mills in the world at Bazalusa, where 1,000,000 feet of lumber is made every day. This was one of the "side issues" of the convention. Then Mr. Zook went to Chattanooga, Cumberland, Md., Cincinnati and Altoona, coming directly home from the latter place. Mrs. Zook accompanied her husband on the trip.

RAILWAY HEADS GO NORTH.

J. J. Turner and G. L. Peck, vice-presidents of the G. R. & I. company, also of the Pennsylvania, passed through the city this morning en route to Grand Rapids to look after some special business for the G. R. & I. They came here in their special cars on train No. 25 and left on a special train for the north a short time afterwards. General Manager W. B. Wood met them here and with Trainmaster R. W. Casey and Road Foreman of Engines A. L. Lopshire, accompanied them to Grand Rapids, the train consisting of engine, the private cars of Mr. Turner, Mr. Peck and Mr. Wood and a coach.

VETERAN SHOPMAN VERY SICK.

William Madison, one of the old-time machinists of the city and for many years a gang foreman at the Pennsylvania shops, is very sick at his home, 212 East Butler street. Mr. Madison began work in this city in the shops at the corner of Calhoun and Superior streets, when the wages of a mechanic was $1 per day of twelve hours each. That was before the civil war and when the old canal was in full operation. Mr. Madison was one of the first to go on the Pennsylvania pension system in this city.

BROTHER VERY SICK.

General Foreman E. B. Hughes, of the Pennsylvania roundhouse, returned from Indianapolis last night, where he went a week ago on account of the serious illness of his brother, Attorney S. A. Hughes, of Terre Haute, who is a patient in a hospital in Indianapolis. During the week's stay at the hospital Mr. Hughes was unable to see his brother on account of his serious condition.

COAL SITUATION BETTER.

The fuel situation on the railways running in and out of Fort Wayne is said to be less serious today than Saturday, though there is not an overabundance of coal on any of the roads. The situation is such as to keep the management of the roads and the factories of the city on the anxious seat, there being danger of the supply being greatly reduced or entirely cut off at any hour.

MR. SHEELER ON THE JOB.

K. L. Sheeler, Pennsylvania claim agent, and his bride, have returned from a wedding trip to Colorado and other western points, and he appeared at his office for business this morning for the first time since the wedding day, October 4. Mr. and Mrs. Sheeler now occupy a handhome house in Columbia City, just finished.

TRAIN STRIKES BREAD WAGON.

As the horse attached to the bread wagon of John Milner, of Gary, attempted to cross one of the streets in that city ahead of eastbound train No 48, Saturday, the engine struck the wagon and smashed it into smithereens. The horse, which was a runaway, and had no driver, was unharmed.

TO CALIFORNIA TO LIVE.

George W. Youngker, the paperhanger and decorator, is en route to Los Angeles, Cal., with his family, where they will reside in the future. They shipped their household effects last week. Mr. Youngkher spent several months in California two years ago.

QUITS THE MACHINE SHOP.

John Strawbridge, machinist at the Bass shops, has retired from that work and taken employment as a salesman with the National Mills Supply company. Mr. Strawbridge was sick about two months, but has recovered and is now able to vigorously apply himself to business.

GONE TO BROTHER'S BEDSIDE.

A message Saturday brought to D. Goodall, a gang foreman at the Pennsylvania boiler shop, the news that his brother in Akron was sick with no prospect of recovery. Mr. Goodallleft immediately for that city and is still there.

SWITCHMAN SLIGHTLY HURT.

Thomas W. Huguenard, a Pennsylvania switchman, received a bump on the head Saturday which dazed him for awhile and caused him to take a lay off. A gash was cut in his head, but it is not serious.

FOUNDER OF ORPHANS' HOME LECTURES HERE

Dr. G. C. Cromer Fills the Pulpit at the Bible Training School.

Dr. G. C. Cromer, founder of the Louisville All-Prayer Foundlings' home of Louisville, Ky., filled the pulpit at the Bible Training school Sunday, giving two excellent addresses. In his morning address he portrayed very beautifully the simplicity, the wendrous workings and the great rewards of faith. He related a number of remarkable answers to prayers of faith in providing for the needs of their great work in the home.

In the evening he spoke of the great importance of saving a little child. He said that when a person saves a child he does a greater work for God than when he saves an aged person, for in saving an older person you save a soul only, while in saving a child you save a soul plus a life.

Doctor Cromer will give a stereopticon lecture Monday evening at the Rescue mission on Columbia street and Tuesday evening he will address an audience at the Bible Training school.

NORWEGIAN PRESS IS GROWING VERY BITTER

Shows Increasing Resentment for German Submarine Warfare.

Christiania, Oct. 10 (Correspondence of The Associated Press).—Never before during the war has the Norwegian press so unanimously expressed the resentment aroused in Norway by the last steps in the German submarine warfare. The Orebladet calls it piracy and says it is the general opinion that German war against mercantile ships is directed especially against Norway, adding: "It is a fact that this continual torpedoing of Norwegian ships deprives Germany of friends in Norway."

The Tidens Tegn says bitterness has been provoked everywhere in Norway by the destroying of Norwegian property and lives of Norwegian sailors in the Arctic ocean and urged the government to do something to protect property and lives.

The Verdens Gang asserts Germany has substituted for international law and old recognized ethical principles the principle of power as the basis of its warfare, recognizing no other standard of morals than what its own interests dictate.

The Shipping and Mercantile Gazette says that just before the new submarine warfare was inaugurated agents of the German government appeared in its editorial office and threatened the paper and the country because of alleged unfriendly feelings toward Germany.

Public opinion in Norway at present is greatly excited and the popular feeling toward Germany is far from friendly. Ship owners have decided not to permit their vessels to sail to Russian ports in the Arctic and the war insurance company will take no risks on ships or cargoes with such destination.

The German submarine warfare thus far has cost Norway 171 ships with a total tonnage of 235,000 and the lives of 140 Norwegian sailors.

Noted Tenor Unable to Appear Before Big Chicago Audience.

Chicago, Oct. 30.—A capacity audience gathered at the Auditorium theater yesterday to hear John McCormack sing. The concert was scheduled to start at 2:30 o'clock. Ten minutes before this time Charles L. Wagner, Mr. McCormack's business manager, appeared on the stage and informed the expectant assembly that because of an acute inflammation of the throat the famous tenor would be unable to appear and that money paid for tickets would be refunded at the box office. More than $6,000 was paid out.

When Mr. McCormack was sought out at the Blackstone hotel later for more detailed information Manager Wagner said:

"Mr. McCormack is indisposed and can see no one. The king of England could not see him."

Mr. Wagner produced a note signed by Dr. O. M. Steffenson stating the singer is suffering from an acute inflammation of the larynx.

"He contracted a slight cold in the Cincinnati Music hall Tuesday night," the manager said. "In spite of this fact he sang at Nashville Friday night and was determined to sing in Chicago until forbidden to do so by the doctor. It was not until the last minute that he gave up hope."

SAYS GREAT WAR WILL WIPE OUT THE FRENCH

Their Great Tenacity of No Avail, Declares von Hindenberg.

Berlin, Oct. 30.—Field Marshal von Hindenberg, German chief of staff, is quoted by the Overseas news agency as follows:

"The French show great tenacity, but they are exterminating lives by their method of fighting. All their tenacity will be of no avail, for in the end there will be none of them left. This fate of the French nation is owing, above all else, to the British. If the British ask next spring for one more offensive campaign they will rob France of the remainder of her army and her national strength.

"This war will make no great change in the estimate of British military accomplishments. Great strategists, in particular, are lacking among the British.

"The Transylvania situation is excellent. The Rumanians are in retreat and the day of reckoning is coming. I welcome their entrance into the war with joy. By means of it we got out of trench warfare."

TOLEDO TO BUILD CONVENTION HALL

Progressive Ohio City Getting Ready to Do Things on Large Scale.

Toledo has awakened to the need of a convention hall, and that progressive Ohio city is just now getting ready to do things on a large scale.

Toledo has caught the same idea that is making Fort Wayne's campaign such a wonderful success—the plan to give the best things to the largest number of people at the lowest price.

Savannah, Ga., Is Building.

Another wideawake southern city that is coming to the front is Savannah, Ga., which is just in the midst of construction operations on its new auditorium. Thomas Gamble, secretary to the mayor, writes that the building will not be completed until next summer.

Many Visit Voting Machine.

A voting machine with the coliseum ticket and the political tickets placed exactly as they will be on election day stands just inside the south entrance to the courthouse. Many voters are visiting this machine and learning just how to vote. However, there need be no fear of making a mistake if the foregoing instructions are observed.

John Slater, superintendent of the forge shop of the Bass Foundry & Machine company, speaking of his observations, says: "I hope that Fort Wayne will build a larger auditorium than Canton, O. They thought they were building large enough, but now the place is entirely too small. The best convention hall I have seen is that in Denver. It is a splendid building—just the kind Fort Wayne should have."

Another Fort Wayne man who is enthusiastic over the Denver coliseum is E. J. Gallmeyer, with S. F. Bowser & Co., who says: "While I was living in Denver, it was one of my greatest delights to take advantage of the opportunities offered through the medium of the Denver auditorium."

Modern Woodmen Endorse.

Fort Wayne camp, Modern Woodmen of America, has given unanimous indorsement to the convention hall project. Otto A. Snyder is the executive officer and Charles King secretary.

Degree of Honor Wants It.

Mrs. Sadie Skelton, Mrs. Frances Ford, Mrs. Ella Conons and Mrs. Mollie Sunderland, officers of Allen lodge, Degree of Honor, have signed resolutions passed by the order. The following comment is appended: "We deem it a necessity to have a building in our city large enough to hold our conventions and all other conventions and large gatherings."

CARD OF THANKS.

In this way we desire to thank our friends for devotion while administering the last rites to our beloved daughter and sister, Helen. To the singers and our immediate neighbors our deepest gratitude; to Mr. Clifford our most sincere reverence.

PAUL AND MR. AND MRS. WINEBRENNER.

LOCAL MARKETS ARE QUIET AND FEATURELSS

Wheat Holds Steady With No Change in Prices Quoted.

Fort Wayne markets Monday were very quiet and featureless with no changes in any of the quoted prices of Saturday and receipts far below the average. The city scales, which is usually a busy place on fair days, had an exceptionally dull day.

The wheat market, which was predicted to show some strength, remained quiet and there was no intimation even given that the life would be restored before the close of today's markets. Millers state, however, that the market is tricky at this stage of the game and that the prices may be boosted when least expected.

The corn market is strong and dealers predict a dollar a bushel for the grain. Oats is also very strong and prices may go up. The hay market seems to be overstocked and consequently the price is being kept down as low as possible.

The live stock market promises to take on more strength soon and prices are expected to be boosted, partially on account of the high price of corn.

Eggs are still at the same level. Poultry prices remain unchanged. Butter prices are headed upward.

CHICAGO GRAIN AND PROVISIONS.

Chicago, Oct. 30.—Drought advices from Argentina showing increased damage had a bullish effect today on wheat. Besides, world's shipments were below requirements. Profit-taking by holders here caused only a transient setback in prices. The opening, which ranged from ¼c off to 1⅛c up, with December at $1.89¾@1.90½ and May at $1.86½@1.87, was followed by a material sag, but then a decided upturn all around.

The close was unsettled at $1.90¼@1.90⅝ for December and $1.87 for May, with the market as a whole ½c down to 1¾c up as compared with Saturday's finish.

Enlarged receipts made the corn market relatively weak. After opening at ½c down to ⅝c advance, all quotations cased off, but later rallied to above Saturday's finish.

The close was weak at 1⅜c to 2⅛c under Saturday's latest figures.

Oats displayed independent firmness.

THE DAY ON WALL STREET.

New York, Oct. 30.—The trend was mainly higher on the resumption of trading today, copper, sugar, paper and shipping shares again leading the advance at gains of 1 to 2 points. United States Steel also rose a point and other strong and active features included Central Leather, Westinghouse, Lackawanna Steel, Republic Iron and Baldwin Locomotive. Among the prominent rails were Rock Island, Erie, Kansas City Southern and Union Pacific. There were minor recessions in Reading, Denver and Rio Grande preferred and Crucible Steel, with marked heaviness in the motor group.

Prices shaded in the first hour on selling caused by advices of another submarine incident in British waters involving possible international complications. Motors extended their initial losses and Industrial Alcohol was heavy with Bethlehem Steel common and preferred, those issues yielding 5 to 6 points. The movement was not especially effective elsewhere, however, metals, including zinc stocks, showing pronounced strength.

China made a new high at 63⅛ and Atlantic, Gulf and West Indies also exceeded all previous records at 107½. A more general reaction occurred at midday. Bonds were irregular on further offering of internationals.

ENGAGED COUPLE SAVES THROUGH BABY BONDS

A young man had begun to shower his fiancee with the usual theatre parties, bouquets, boxes of candy, etc., when the young lady stopped him with this suggestion: When ever he expected to thus entertain her, he should instead turn over to her the money he expected to spend, and she would save it until it had amounted to $10 when they would buy a Baby Bond. The result will probably be that this couple will be able to make a neat down payment and purchase a home when they are ready to be married. Baby Bonds are an ideal investment for any savings fund. They come in $10 denominations, bear six per cent interest, are secured by first mortgages on local real estate. For further details regarding them see the Wildwood Sales company, Shoaff building.—Advertisement.

Bundhar Wilton

RUGS & CARPETS

¶ Whether as nomadic tribes or the more staid dwellers in the cities of the plains, the peoples of the Orient developed to an unusual degree the arts of dyeing, of harmonizing figure and pigment and of weaving them into carpets. To-day their achievements still form the master-pieces from which ambitious designers draw their inspiration. This is why so many excellent oriental patterns are found in the offerings of Bundhar Wilton.

¶ In the same spirit, those periods which marked the glory of France and England in the world of decorative art, have not been overlooked.

¶ Couple with the foregoing the fact that Hardwick & Magee Co., manufacturers of Bundhar, are world leaders in present day carpet designing and coloring, you may be assured that whatever your demand—there is an adequate and satisfying supply in Bundhar Wilton.

GIRL SEES DAYLIGHT AFTER NEARLY A YEAR

Held Prisoner in Asylum Basement by Cobbler, She Charges.

Youngstown, O., Oct. 30.—After being confined in the basement of an infirmary here for ten months, her eyesight practically gone, her body emaciated, her mind almost wrecked and dressed in male clothing, Miss Marie Higgins, 27 years old, escaped and told her story. The young woman had not seen daylight since Dec. 28, she said. Joe Serak, an inmate of the infirmary, is now under arrest following her revelations.

Miss Higgins went to the infirmary last December because of illness, and in a short time disappeared and it was supposed she had escaped. Nothing had been heard from her since.

While Serak was absent she groped about her small prison and finding a door ajar she slowly made her way to one of the corridors where she was discovered. She later told her story to Sheriff J. C. Umstead and County Detective John Kane. Serak, after being arrested, is said to have told the officers that the woman had been in the basement since December, but he declared she remained there of her own accord.

Serak, a cobbler, fitted up a little shop in the basement and occupied his time repairing shoes of the other inmates, and officials of the infirmary believed him to be busy at his trade. When she gained her freedom the girl was dressed in male attire given her, she said, by Serak. She said he had given her only scraps of food. County authorities began an investigation of Serak's alleged part in the affair and also conditions at the infirmary.

HANLY ENCOUNTERS HECKLERS IN EAST

Quits Speech to Step Down Into Crowd and Issue Warning.

Dover, Oct. 30.—Hecklers were active today in Newark, where the prohibition party made an early stop on the last lap of its campaign journey. J. Frank Hanly, the presidential nominee, was interrupted so frequently by one man that he abandoned his speech, stepped out into the crowd and warned him to be quiet or leave. The man left. He had taken offense at Hanly's declaration that Charles E. Hughes had no program or issue.

"You take this stand and tell us a single thing that Hughes stands for, if you can," Hanly shouted.

"I don't have to do it, but you are all wrong," the man responded.

Another man who appeared to be intoxicated, interrupted Ira Landrith, the vice presidential nominee. Landrith urged the crowd to take one look at the man and then vote dry.

Today's itinerary included stops at Newark, Madison, Morristown, Dover, Hackettstown, Washington and Phillipsburg, N. J., and Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Reading, Pottstown, Norristown and Philadelphia, Pa.

UNIFORM LANDSCAPING FOR HARRISON HILL

The landscaping effect surrounding the three homes which are planned for the first block south of Rudisill boulevard will be one that will add much to the beauty of Harrison Hill the charming new addition located in the angle formed by Rudisill boulevard and Calhoun street. The entire grading as well as all the trees and shrubbery for this whole block will be so arranged as to secure the best general effect instead of being planned for each individual home. One firm of landscapers are to have charge of the designing of the whole block, and it promises to be one of the show residential squares of the city. Details regarding this and the scores of other features which are being planned for the improvement of Harrison Hill may be obtained from Hilgemann & Schaaf, North American building.—Advertisement.

CANNOT STAND FOR MR. HUGHES' EVASIVENESS

West Virginia Elector Gets Off Ticket and Repudiates Nominee.

Charleston, W. Va., Oct. 30.—J. W. Dawson has written to Chairman Joseph H. Gaines, of the republican state committee, asking that his name as a Hughes elector-at-large be withdrawn from the republican ticket. Dawson is a coal operator and one of the best known men in the state. His action has caused a tremendous sensation throughout the state.

His letter follows:

"I have been a great admirer of Judge Hughes since the insurance investigation in New York. I was for him originally when Mr. Taft was nominated and elected, and at that time hoped to some day see Judge Hughes president of this country. But I was at Chicago during the republican convention in June; I have been a student of public questions since that time; I have read Mr. Hughes' public addresses with a great deal of anxiety; I do not find in them any good reason why we should change administrations at Washington at this critical period.

"I do not find in Mr. Hughes' addresses that candor and directness of assertions which I had expected of him. When questions are put to him on matters vital to the United States he qualifies his replies with evasions and fails to meet the issues squarely, as a powerful lawyer usually does when he is convinced that he is on the wrong side of the case in court and that his client is not entitled to a favorable verdict, all of which is disappointing to me.

"And when summing up the entire situation I am convinced that a vote for Judge Hughes would, in fact, be assisting to turn over the United States and the destinies of these 100,000,000 people to the corrupt Old Guard, dominated, controlled absolutely by such men as Barnes, Penrose, Crane and Smoot, and I will never be a party to such treachery to our country.

"That crowd, I believe, if Judge Hughes became president, would dominate and control the destinies of this country solely in the interests of what is popularly called 'the invisible government,' which knows no political party, no loyalty to country, recognizes the right of no private citizen and whose only objects are to enrich and place power in the hands of a favored few."

AMERICANS DIE WHEN BRITISH SHIP IS SUNK

Washington Starts Inquiry Into Reported Sinking of the Marina and the Rowanmore Without Warning

Washington, Oct. 30.—Destruction of the British horse transport Marina, by a German submarine, without warning, with possible loss of American lives and the endangering of the lives of several American citizens in the submarine attack on the British freighter Rowanmore, reported from Queenstown today by American Consul Frost, contain possibilities of reviving the submarine issue between the United States and Germany.

Investigation, officials realize, may disclose there has been no violation of the German pledges to the United States.

Nevertheless the first reports incomplete and transmitted by the American consul as "provisional," caused some uneasiness.

The report on the destruction of the Marina refers to the ship as a British horse transport. If it turns out she was in the transport service of the British government it may be found that the mixed crew of British and American horse-tenders could claim none of the immunity against attack without warning, that attaches to a merchant ship.

Orders were dispatched at once to gather all information to determine the status of the Marina and the crew.

Although no American lives were lost in the submarine attack on the Rowanmore and the ship altered her own status if she made an attempt to escape, officials were disturbed by the report that the boats were shelled after they had cleared from the abandoned ship. The facts are expected to be determined by investigation which was ordered to begin at once.

AMERICAN LIVES LOST.

London, Oct. 30.—A private telegram received at the American consulate this afternoon from Crookhaven says that a number of Americans were drowned when the British steamship Marina was torpedoed by a German submarine.

THE FIRST REPORTS.

London, Oct. 30 (11:05 a. m.)—The American embassy today received a report from Wesley Frost, American consul at Queenstown, that the British steamship Marina had been torpedoed without warning.

It is believed a number of Americans were on board. Only thirty-four members of the crew of 104 have been picked up and landed at Crookhaven, Ireland.

Lloyds' reports that a steamer anchored off Crookhaven, Ireland, signals that she had picked up the shipwrecked crew of the steamship Marina of Glasgow.

The Marina, which has been engaged in transatlantic service, was a vessel of 5,240 tons gross, built in 1900. She was last reported as having arrived at Glasgow on Oct. 10, after having sailed from Newport News on Sept. 21.

Mr. Frost is now procuring affidavits from survivors.

A report on the sinking on Oct. 26 of the British steamer Rowanmore also was made to the American embassy today by Mr. Frost, who states that the vessel was torpedoed. Seven Americans, including five Filipinos, were on board the Rowanmore. Several of them have given Mr. Frost affidavits stating that a submarine shelled the lifeboats while they were being lowered and after they were clear of the ship without causing loss of life.

FIFTY SIGNED AS HORSEMEN.

Newport News, Va., Oct. 30.—There were 50 Americans on British steamship Marina, reported torpedoed without warning, in today's dispatches from London, when she sailed from Newport News. The Americans were signed here as horsemen. They were all white and gave their homes as in various sections of the United States. Local agents for the owners of the Marina say cable advices reported the vessel leaving Glasgow for Newport News on Oct. 25, in ballast.

LABOR LEADERS TO SPEAK HERE TUESDAY

These men are among the best labor speakers in the country and will pay special attention to the Adamson law.

Other political questions will be discussed. However, the greater portions of their addresses will be devoted to an explanation of the Adamson measure and events leading up to its passage by congress.

SHOWS GAIN OF 25 PER CENT.

Go-to-Church Sunday Brings Up New York Attendance.

New York, Oct. 30.—Go-to-church Sunday increased the attendance in the Protestant churches in New York yesterday about 25 per cent above the normal. In Manhattan it is estimated that 168,200 persons, or approximately 90 per cent of the total membership, went to church. In Brooklyn the proportion was about the same. The proportion of men in attendance was a little more than one-third of the total. The committee in charge announced today that it was well pleased with the result of its efforts.

NAVAL CENSORS TRANSFERRED.

Action Not Due to British Protests, Declares Admiral Benson.

Washington, Oct. 30.—Transfer of Lieuts. Charles R. Clark and H. S. Keep, naval censors at Sayville and Siasconsett wireless stations, respectively, to other posts was announced today by Admiral Benson, chief of operations. The admiral denied published reports that his action was taken because Great Britain protested that the officers had permitted unneutral information to go out concerning the recent raid of the German submarine U-53 on the New England coast.

Landslide for Wilson is McCormick's Report

Chicago, Oct. 30.—The west is on "fire for President Wilson" and "it looks like a landslide" for the democratic candidate, is the opinion of Vance McCormick, chairman of the national democratic committee, as expressed by Mr. McCormick after conferring with Senator Walsh, manager of the western headquarters. Latest reports from leaders in all states were discussed at the conference.

"I see that Mr. Frank H. Hitchcock claims the election of Mr. Hughes," Mr. McCormick says. "He gives a list of states that he professes to believe the republicans will carry. Of the twenty-six states he claims for Hughes, I do not regard six of them as certainly for the republican candidate.

"The Wilson sentiment in Ohio that makes Mr. Hitchcock concede the state to the democrats does not stop at imaginary state lines. It extends all over this section and by this token, not to mention our confidential reports and first hand advices, we know that Illinois and Indiana are also for the president. This same sentiment is sweeping the Pacific coast.

"I confidently expect the president to carry Connecticut, New Jersey, Delaware, Maryland and West Virginia. The swing is toward the president and there are no signs of abatement."

GOING TO MEET DADDY ON HIS WAY HOME FROM WAR.

These little French children are being led to a French railroad station to meet their daddies returning from German prison camps. The "kiddies" do not know their parents are all hopelessly wounded and have been exchanged for wounded German soldiers. They only know daddy's coming home.

ROADS ACCUSE B. L. E. ORDER

Expels Members for Testifying for Roads in Headlight Case, Charge.

PAULDING TELLS THE COMMISSION

Washington, Oct. 30.—At the outset of a hearing today before the interstate commerce commission over the proposed requirement that railroads equip locomotives with high power electric headlights, charges were made by representatives of the roads that officers of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers had expelled members of the order for testifying favorably to the roads and against the practicability of the high power light.

"We have been taunted with the statement that we have been unable to get engineers to testify for us in this case," C. C. Paulding, of the New York Central, told the commission. "The reason for this is plain. Two engineers who were witnesses at previous hearings of the commission for the railroads have been expelled from the order."

Mr. Paulding did not finish his explanation because the commission decided to limit the hearings to testimony regarding a test of the headlights made on the New York Central in September.

Statement Given Out.

A statement was given out by the carriers however, that Wm. H. Rother, John T. Heller of Indianapolis, and Alexander E. Martin, also of Indiana, all engineers, were ousted recently under a provision of the constitution of the engineers' brotherhood providing such penalty when a member "by verbal or written communication, interferes with its legislative plan or makes suggestions detrimental to it." Rother, the statement says, was tried by his local after giving testimony favorable to the roads and when it sustained him, W. S. Stone, head of the brotherhood, took steps to abolish the local.

Mr. Paulding was prepared to ask the commission to secure a promise from Mr. Stone that this provision of the brotherhood's constitution be suspended to allow engineers to testify without fear of reprisal, but the commission decided to have only three witnesses at this time. One for the carriers, one for the labor organizations and one for the commission, to be confined entirely to the New York test.

The proposed rule is being opposed particularly by large roads in the east where traffic is congested, on the theory that its use would result in an increase in accidents. Installation of the light, it has been estimated, would cost the carriers about $6,000,000. The brotherhoods contend the headlight would be beneficial in train operation.

MAY USE TWO MACHINES.

Commissioners Will Place Two Voting Machines in Some Precincts.

Calvin H. Brown and J. E. Stults, respectively democratic and republican county chairmen, have written to the board of county commissioners authorizing them to use two voting machines instead of one in the seventh, twenty-seventh and twenty-eighth precincts. In these precincts the vote normally is in excess of what one machine can register in the voting day from 6 a. m. to 6 p. m.

BULLETIN.

London, Oct. 30.—In reply to an inquiry from the American embassy the admiralty said today that there were forty-nine Americans in the crew of the Marina.

CONVENTION CLOSES WITH MASS MEETING

Session of Gideons Called Unparalleled Success—Indianapolis Next.

The two-day state convention of the Gideons held here Saturday and Sunday came to a close with the large mass meeting at the Plymouth Congregational church yesterday afternoon. This was pronounced one of the best conventions ever held.

Two Fort Wayne men were among the officers elected for the coming year. They are George Crowe, vice president, and J. I. Thompson, secretary and treasurer. Clarence Bear, of Terre Haute, is the new president. Shortly after their election the new officers decided upon Indianapolis as the next meeting place.

Resolutions were drawn up by the committee appointed for the purpose thanking the First M. E. church, the business men, the newspapers and the public for assisting in making the convention a success.

MRS. FAIRBANKS WILL REMAIN AS PRESIDENT

Indianapolis, Oct. 30.—The annual convention of the Indiana clubs will open here Tuesday evening and continue until Friday. Mrs. Carlyn Fairbank, of Fort Wayne, is making arrangements for the convention. She probably will be elected president for next year, it was said today, as the custom in the federation is to have the officers serve two years.

Interest in the election of first vice president is being shown in advance of the sessions. Dr. Amelia R. Keller has served two years in that office. Mrs. E. C. Rumpler, of Indianapolis, and Mrs. Helen Baumgartner, of Rockport, are mentioned as possible candidates for the office.

QUALIFICATION SHOOT.

Five Men Become Eligible to Participate in National Contest.

The Fort Wayne Rifle and Revolver club Sunday held the second shoot for the National Rifle association qualification scores on company E range. The qualification for marksmen is 160, for sharp shooter 190, and for expert 210, out of a possible score of 250. Five men qualified for sharp shooters' buttons and two for marksmens' buttons. The scores are as follows: J. E. Hall, 209; O. E. Archibald, 204; W. Van Beemer, 197; R. H. Chadwick, 195; C. L. Clover, 191; F. B. Hall, 181; F. E. Zollars, 166.

GOING AFTER SOLDIER VOTES.

Wilmington, Del., Oct. 30.—Col. Theodore Townsend and Theodore Ferguson, the commissioners appointed by Governor Miller to go to the Mexican border and received the vote of the Delaware soldiers, left yesterday for Deming, N. M. Ballots have been printed especially for the soldiers and under the law the election will be held by officers appointed in each company. The ballots will not be counted until the commissioners return to Delaware and it will be several days after election before it is known how the militiamen voted.

MAKES TARIFF PLEA IN OHIO

Mr. Hughes Will Return to Indiana Tomorrow for Two Days' Stay.

East Liverpool, Ohio, Oct. 30.—Charles E. Hughes, replying further to statements in President Wilson's Cincinnati speech, told an audience here that the $2,000,000,000 increase in American exports last year was due almost exclusively to the demand created by the European war and cited a statement by Chairman Hurley, of the federal trade commission, to uphold the republican claim that America is "not prepared for post-bellum competition with Europe."

"That $2,000,000,000," Mr. Hughes said, represents almost exclusively the demand created by the European war. But what are we to do? There is but one safe course. It is idle to talk about conditions of work if there is no work. And you cannot have any lasting basis for prosperity unless you apply the American doctrine of protection to American industries.

"I was amazed the other day when the spokesman for the opposing party told the people that we were ready. He said in substance that the nations who are engaged in this struggle are so wasted by war that we need not fear their competition.

"That is a very serious mistake to those who know what the facts are. Let those who speak for the opposing party take the words of the federal trade commission, spoken almost at the same time, as a result of their own inquiry.

Quotes Mr. Hurley.

"This is what Chairman Hurley, of the federal trade commission, said last week in New York on this very subject:

"'While in many respects we know little of what is going on in the warring nations, we do know that within sound of the guns, almost within reach of the falling shells, Europe is awakening her industries.'

"He says further, 'under the stress of a life and death struggle every effort is being made to attain the highest efficiency in the production, in the distribution and in the use of commodities of all kinds.' He adds: 'New processes are being discovered, new inventions are being made and new forms of organization are being created and that war has compelled Great Britain to make thirty years of industrial progress in thirty months.'

"If our industries are not to be caught slow of mind and flabby of muscle we must 'improve our business organization, must increase our manufacturing efficiency and must keep pace with every step in Europe.'

Calls Protection Essential.

"Now these are facts for American business men and American working men to think carefully over. When it is said here we need organization, I agree. When it is said that we need development of alertness and power, I agree, but there is one thing that was not said. It is the thing which our opponents, in view of their principles, cannot well say. It is a thing that we do say, and that is whatever your organization, whatever your alertness, you have got to have your markets protected against the competition of labor that is paid less than you are.

"We propose to protect American industry. You cannot run this country

PRIVATE SULLIVAN OF COMPANY E IS KILLED

Ft. Wayne Boy Meets Death When Revolver is Accidentally Discharged.

ROBERT E. SULLIVAN.

Nicholson was in an E company tent showing his new revolver, which he had just received from friends at Indianapolis. Sullivan was sitting on a cot in his own tent talking to a friend about the maneuvers of the past week. Nicholson, thinking the revolver was unloaded, snapped the trigger and a bullet went through two tent walls and struck the Fort Wayne boy in the right breast. He died three hours later. The shooting occurred at 9 o'clock in the morning. Nicholson is under arrest. Colonel Naftzger named a board of three to investigate the shooting.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Sullivan, 817 Cottage avenue, the parents of Robert F. Sullivan, received the message of the death of their son Sunday afternoon. They had received one in the morning stating that their son had been seriously injured but heard nothing more until C. E. Howard, father of First Lieut. Howard, imparted the sad news that he had died.

This is the second time since the Fort Wayne boys were called to the colors that the grim reaper has visited within their ranks. The death of Sullivan, Sunday, recalls to memory the drowning of Private Floyd E. Wolf on July 18, last, while in bathing near the camp.

The deceased was born in Richmond, Ind., June 2, 1891, but came to Fort Wayne with his parents when he was five years of age. For the past ten years he had been employed in the air-brake department of the Pennsylvania Railroad company. He was a member of St. Patrick's Catholic church and Fort Wayne council, Knights of Columbus.

Besides the grief-stricken parents he is survived by two brothers, E. J. Sullivan and Francis Sullivan, both of Fort Wayne, and one sister, Mrs. Floyd Hipkins, of this city. Several uncles and aunts also survive.

Mr. Sullivan joined Company E two months before the call came on June 19. He was one of the first to express his willingness and readiness to follow the flag when the orders for mobilization were received. In camp he had won the esteem and friendship of all the members as well as his superior officers.

ALLIES GAIN NEW GROUND

Berlin Admits Foe Success at One Point Along Somme Front.

RUMANIANS MAKE STRONGER STAND

Today's War News Given in Summary

British steamer Marina, a vessel of more than 5,000 tons, engaged in trans-Atlantic service, has been sunk near the Irish coast. A London dispatch states that the American embassy there has received a report from the American consul at Queenstown that she was torpedoed without warning. The Marina reached Glasgow from Baltimore and Newport News on Oct. 10. Her destination on her new voyage has not been reported. A number of Americans are believed to have been on board, the London advices state. The Americans, if any, doubtless were members of the crew, as the Marina was not a passenger-carrying vessel.

Both the British and French on the Somme front report a successful continuation of their efforts to drive the point of the wedge created by their prolonged offensive further into the German lines.

This point at present projects across the Peronne-Bapaume road at Sailley-Saillisel. Last night the French again struck the German front here and according to the Paris war office captured a system of trenches northwest of Sailley-Saillisel, advancing as far as the Sailley church.

Immediately to the northwest, at the convergence of their front with that of the French, the British have been pounding for two days at German positions near Le Transloy and have reported the capture of several trenches.

The Rumanians apparently are continuing their more effective resistance to the Austro-German pressure along the Moldavian and southern Transylvanian fronts. Berlin, however, reports a Teutonic success in the Rothernheim pass region south of Hermannstadt, where strongly defended heights were taken from the Rumanians, together with more than 700 prisoners. In the Szurduk pass region the Rumanians succeeded in pushing back a German column.

In Dobrudja Field Marshal von Mackensen's advance, which has been pursuing the defeated Russo-Rumanian army, has got into touch with Russian cavalry and infantry forces in the northern part of the province, Berlin announces. A repetition of Russian attacks in Volhynia has only resulted in further defeats for the Russians, the German war office declares, despite unusually heavy artillery preparation.

On the Somme front, just south of the river, near Peronne, the Germans yesterday successfully stormed the French lines, La Maisonnette farm to Biaches, according to Berlin, captured the farm and the ground intervening, together with more than 400 prisoners. Paris admits that German troops obtained a footing in some of the farm buildings.

Berlin, Oct. 30.—British troops, attacking the German lines on the Somme front between Les Boeufs and Morval, succeeded in gaining some ground from the Germans, the war office announced today.

South of the Somme French positions from La Maissonnette farm to Biaches, were stormed by German troops after successful artillery preparation. Massed attacks of Russian infantry in Volhynia yesterday following unusual heavy artillery preparation, broke down under fire, the war office statement announces today.

The capture of several strongly defended positions near the Hungarian-Rumanian frontier was announced today by the war office. In Dobrudja, Field Marshal von Mackensen's forces, continuing their pursuit of the Russians and Rumanians, have come in contact with the Russians.

Heavy fighting is in progress on the Macedonian front in the region below Monastir. The repulse of the French and Serbian attacks on the Cerna front was announced today by the war office.

At the German war office today it was declared that the statement in the French official communication that on October 24 French airplanes had fought twenty engagements in which three German machines had been shot down in the vicinity of Verdun, was absolutely untrue. On October 24 military authorities are quoted by the Overseas

IIPeter 3:8-14.

8 But, beloved, be not ignorant of this one thing, that one day is with the Lord as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day.

9 The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some men count slackness; but is longsuffering to us-ward, not willing that any should perish, but that al should come to repentance.

10 But the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night; in the which the heavens shall pass away with a great noise, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat, the earth also and the works that are therein shall be burned up.

11 Seeing then that these things shall be dissolved, what manner of persons ought ye to be in all holy conversation and godliness.

12 Looking for and hasting unto the coming of the day of God, wherein the heavens being on fire shall be dissolved, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat?

13 Nevertheless we, according to his promise, look for new heavens and a new earth, wherein dwelleth righteousness.

14 Whrefore, beloved, seeing that ye look for such things, be diligent that ye may be found of him in peace, without spot, and blameless.

Which Road Shall We Take?

The final week of the campaign in which the American voter is confronted by many issues and situations new to American politics should be one of tremendously sober thinking on his part. He is going to pass next Tuesday his judgment on questions unlike those with which he has been called upon to deal in previous years. Today the big issue is not prosperity and the full dinner pail—for we have them. It is not the demand for progressive legislation—for that has been supplied by President Wilson and his administration. It is not the problem of unemployment—for the American workingman is at work. It is not new banking and currency laws—for finance has been stabilized by the legislation President Wilson has given it. It is not child labor—for that has been dealt with in a way to remove a stain from American industrialism. It is not the tariff—for the new tariff commission will take care of that on a business basis.

Make no mistake. The big issue to be determined on November 7 is the one which deals with American policy toward international conflict—toward peace or war. Which road shall we take? Do you want the pathway of peace to which President Wilson has rigidly adhered, or are you willing to assume the responsibility for a course which threatens to lead to something different? Let this issue be clear in your minds. There is no charge that Mr. Hughes or the great mass of his supporters are deliberately conspiring to plunge the United States into the world war. That would be inconceivable. Yet they are playing with fire in unreasoning antipathy to every step of President Wilson's course that has kept the ship off the rocks. They are asking a square departure from the paths that have kept us at peace. They are counselling the taking of a chance with fate, hoping, but wholly unable to demonstrate, that the outcome will be something better. They are asking the country to exchange certainty for uncertainty and take the chances that such a transaction involves. Certain things are established. You have peace with Wilson's course. Do you know what is in store for this country under any other program?

There are persistent reports that evidence shows indication of systematic attempts at colonization of negro voters in several of the doubtful states, as well as other schemes for the debauchery of the election on November 7, and there have undoubtedly been responsible for the steps the federal government has taken in the appointment of special attorneys to prevent it. Of all times in our country's history, this is the one in which the ballot should be fair, full and free, and without the taint of suspicion upon it. The slightest attempt at crookedness should be instantly followed by merciless prosecution. These are important days for America. It is highly essential that the registered verdict of the people be not only decisive, but that it accurately register their will and reflect their sentiments. Curb the crook before his nefarious schemes come to fruition.

Judge Henry C. Fox, of Richmond, in summarizing his observations on the bench, says that while hundreds of blondes and brunettes have sought severance of marital ties in his court, red-haired wives do not sue for divorce. But in failing to say whether red-haired wives exercise better judgment in the selection of husbands, are able to rule affairs with an iron hand that makes divorce unnecessary or are merely more long-suffering than others, Judge Fox has still left us in most agonizing suspense.

One fails to get an adequate idea of the real resources of this country until he begins to take a census of those patriots who admit they are fully competent to have told the president just what he should have done in each of the countless emergencies which the past four years have brought to him for action.

Quite as essential as President Wilson's re-election is the fact that there be behind him in congress a majority that will uphold his hands and sustain him in his future program. Twelfth district voters can contribute to this highly desirable result by voting for Representative Cline and for Senator Kern and Senator Taggart.

The Y. M. C. A. at Indianapolis has begun instruction of a class in automobile construction and repair as a part of its educational work—which may be a faint gleam that forecasts the day when every man will be able to take a monkey-wrench and some sheets of iron and build his own.

Rumania waited a long time before she got into the war, but in view of the business-like manner in which the central powers are eating her up, Rumania may now be wishing she had waited somewhat longer.

Raymond Robins has made the discovery that Mr. Hughes is progressive, but if that is true, one glance at the ranks of the old standpat guard lined up solidly behind him is convincing evidence that he has somehow gotten into mighty queer company.

Mr. Fairbanks' confident prediction that Missouri will go republican this year is chiefly interesting as illustrating the length to which political optimism will sometimes carry one when it gets going under a full head of steam.

WHAT'S BEHIND?

"The Old Guard placed Justice Hughes in front. God only knows what's behind."

That is the way the grand old party parade looks to John M. Parker, progressive nominee for vice president, the most resolute and uncompromising figure in the progressive party. Parker continues:

"The only chance the old guard had to get into power was to place in front of it a man whose character and reputation were absolutely immaculate. The choosing of Justice Hughes by this most dangerous element in American politics is a tribute to the man itself. I have the highest respect myself for Hughes.

"But I still believe in the progressive party and we progressives don't care where progress comes from if it only comes. It has come this time from the Wilson administration and that's why now I am working for President Wilson.

"I fought Wilson in 1912 for all that I was worth, but he has been unmistakably progressive. He has stood solidly for rural credits, workmen's compensation and the abolition of child labor—all fundamental provisions in our 'contract with the people.'

"The president has been confronted with the gravest problems that ever faced a president. He has worked as few of them have ever been required to work and he has done well. Honest opposition is admissible, but the atempt to embarrass him by constant attack on everything he does is not my idea of Americanism. I fought him hard, but I have never forgotten that I am an American and that he is my president.

"The padded committee of the progressives voted to ignore the instructions of the Chicago convention and to endorse the republican party. I do not recognize this action as the action of the progressive party, but I do recognize the actions of President Wilson as progressive achievements."

THANKSGIVING AS USUAL.

(New York World.)

Since 1863 the national Thanksgiving has been observed on the last Thursday of November. This year that day ends the month, and enterprising merchants with an eye to holiday trade, which does not start on its broadest lines until after Thanksgiving, have urged that the early feast of gratitude and praise be fixed for this occasion on the third Thursday of the month. It is announced at Shadow Lawn that the president's proclamation will not depart from the usual practice.

Sue his the force of custom. New England originated Thanksgiving and for many years upheld it on theological grounds as a rival of Christmas. It had frequent occasion to offer thanks, but the November feast became the principal religious holiday of the year, and in civil war times President Lincoln gave it national sanction. The last Thursday of the eleventh month is not exactly an anniversary, but in spite of the interests of merchants or the preferences of society, it can no more be changed than Independence day can be set back a month to suit the convenience of tourists and owners of summer homes.

We are ruled largely by institutionalism. The holiday trade is a wonderful factor in our national life, but he would be a brave man who undertook to put Thanksgiving day aside in its interest.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

What the Sentinel Had to Say About Perosns and Events Twenty-Five Years Ago.

A fire in Arcola early this morning caused a loss of $5,000 to property. Several residences were completely destroyed.

Julius Weber, of Urbana, Ohio, is in the city contempating on purchasing the Avcline hotel. It is believed that he will buy it.

Jerry J. Shoaff, a Nickel Plate brakeman was injured in the yards at 9 o'clock last night. His hands were crushed while making a coupling.

G. D. Niswonger established a new fish market in the handsome Arcade building. It will be a model place that will be a pleasure for patrons to visit.

The American Wheel Works will resume work on December 1. The shop has been closed for several months. They will employ 300 men when they reopen.

The Tourist club gave a grand ball at the Randall hall last evening and it was a big success. Eighty couples were present and the grand march was led by Sid Throckmorton and Miss Dellia Kinnerk.

A horse belonging to J. C. Peters cut some funny capers on the street this morning which should rank it in a class of acrobats. It ran away down Wayne street and its action made many people laugh.

Samuel Foltz, a wood chopper residing near Arcola, was brought to the city this morning for treatment. While he was chopping wood a chip flew into his eye and as a result he may lose the organ of sight.

A mad dog has caused pandemonium in the streets of Ossian. A large shepherd dog which has unmistakable symptoms of rabbies arrived in the town a few days ago and proceeded to bite everything in its sight. The dog was finally shot.

A slight wreck occurred this morning at 4 o'clock near Fairfield avenue on the Wabash road. A freight train standing on the side track uncoupled when the rear portion ran down on main track just in time to be struck by a passenger train. The engine was partly damaged and the freight cars were cut to pieces. Traffic was tied up for several hours.

"I Would Have Fought"

America is founded on the disrespect of authority. If we had been properly respectful of King George and the British parliament there would have been no Declaration and no Independence. This disrespect of office has come down to us in an exaggerated degree, and every American conceives it as his inalienable right to criticise his public servants. Seldom does he consider it his duty or his privilege to offer any meed of praise.

In campaign years this is particularly true. America must offer an extremely humorous spectacle to the world every four years. At such times one has only to read the campaign speeches to discover that practically every man in public life is devoting his foul energies to the destruction of this proud republic. And still we survive.

Some day a candidate for president, or even for some lesser office, is going to make a tremendous hit with the American people by candidly giving credit to his opponent for the good which is in him. Some day, but not yet.

Meanwhile, of course, that man suffers most who has done the best. The man burdened with responsibilities is the man we assail. It is safe to say that if politics and partisanship could be forgotten and only human relationship and human courtesies remembered, nine men out of every ten would sympathize with Woodrow Wilson in the difficulties he has endured and would help him, and perhaps commend him, in such neighborly way as possible.

Quite aside from the really remarkable constructive achievements of the administration, hardly any American could help but sympathize with the responsibilities which 100,000,000 Americans thrust practically upon one man and lightly go their own ways, only remembering occasionally to turn and throw him a cuss-word! Whether we realize it or nnot, we have tacitly put upon the president the responsibility of deciding whether 100,000,000 people are plunged into a world war, or whether they are ket out.

Are the hundred million cognizant of the oppressive responsibility or grateful for the service rendered? Listen to the spokesmen of half of the hundred million. Any listener would think that the man of whom we require such service is one-third fool, one-third knave and one-third traitor.

Let every critic ask himself honestly: "What would I have done to have achieved better results had the responsibility been mine?"

It is easy for any one of us to say: "I would have said so and so. I would have threatened thus and thus. I would have acted and I would have fought." Well, if any man says, or thinks: "I would have fought," the natural question is, why doesn't he fight, then?

If the president goes to war, one hundred millions go to war. Such a responsibility would and should give any man pause.

But you, Bill or Jim, or Tom or Teddy, any one of you may go to war, if you must, and you need not involve the rest of us.

Fourteen nations welcome you to the bloody trenches with hospitable hands, and if you want to avenge the Lusitania, or punish England for interfering with the mails, why, go ahead!

And when you have done that, your criticism of the president for keeping the rest of us out of war will sound a good deal more sincere.

War has seriously affected the peanut trade of Madras, India.

DRINK HOT WATER IF YOU DESIRE A ROSY COMPLEXION

Says we can't help but look better and feel better after an inside bath.

To look one's best and feel one's best is to enjoy an inside bath each morning to flush from the system the previous day's waste, sour fermentations and poisonous toxins before it is absorbed into the blood. Just as coal, when it burns, leaves behind a certain amount of incombustible material in the form of ashes, so the food and drink taken each day leave in the alimentary organs a certain amount of indigestible material, which, if not eliminated, form toxins and poisons which are then sucked into the blood through the very ducts which are intended to suck in only nourishment to sustain the body.

If you want to see the glow of healthy bloom in your cheeks, to see your skin get clearer and clearer, you are told to drink every morning upon arising, a glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it, which is a harmless means of washing the waste material and toxins from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels, thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary tract, before putting more food into the stomach.

Men and women with sallow skins, liver spots, pimples or pallid complexion, also those who wake up with a coated tongue, bad taste, nasty breath, others who are bothered with headaches, bilious spells, acid stomach or constipation should begin this phosphated hot water drinking and are assured of very pronounced results in one or two weeks.

A quarter pound of limstone phosphate costs very little at the drug store but is sufficient to demonstrate that just as soap and hot water cleanses, purifies and freshens the skin on the outside, so hot water and limestone phosphate act on the inside organs. We must always consider that internal sanitation is vastly more important than outside cleanliness, because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, while the bowel pores do.—Advertisement.

EIGHT HOUR LAW IS LEE'S SUBJECT

Grand President of Brotherhood Trainmen Speaker at the Moose Hall.

The Adamson eight-hour law is not all that the employes affected desire, but from a progressive standpoint goes far in the right direction toward establishing satisfactory working conditions in freight and yard service and averted one of the greatest railroad strikes ever threatened in this country, Grand President W. G. Lee of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen told a large audience in Moose auditorium Saturday night. William Grout presided at the meeting. Members of the four local brotherhoods occupied seats on the stage. Miss Dorothy Swift, pianist; Miss Irene Jones, soprano, and Miss Georgette Donelli, violinist, gave vocal and instrumental numbers during the evening which were greatly appreciated.

"If the politicians and disgruntled members of the transportation department would permit the authorized committees and officers of organizations directly affected to work out the details in connection with the application of the so-called eight-hour law, there would be little difficulty," declared the speaker.

"Our government in 1868 recognized the eight-hour work day for its employes and without a reduction of the daily pay received prior to its enactment. That law has not been declared unconstitutional. It was created under a republican administration, so you have heard little complaint with reference to it. Does any one contend that government employes are prohibited from working overtime or in excess of eight hours if the necessity of their employment requires it?

"President Wilson has been criticised and called a weakling because he has not favored war with Mexico. In my opinion it required far more courage to declare in favor of a universal eight-hour law than would have been required to favor war with Mexico."

RALLY AT BUTLER.

Big Meeting Planned Closing Campaign on Thursday Night.

Butler democrats will close the campaign Thursday night with a big rally. Party workers from Waterloo and Auburn will be invited to attend and the Jefferson drum corps of this city may take part in the celebration. Howard Benninghoff and A. M. Groves, of Fort Wayne, will speak. A special invitation has also been extended the ladies and young men. Fort Wayne democrats are planning to attend the rally and there may be a delegation from Kendallville.

DRUM CORPS TO MEET.

The Jefferson drum corps will hold a meeting Monday night in the office of Justice A. C. Nierman at 7:30 o'clock. Justice Nierman is manager of the corps and some dates for the week will be discussed.

TO CLOSE CAMPAIGN.

Socialists of Fort Wayne will close their campaign in Allen county with an address in the convention hall of the court house Monday night when J. Lloyd Armstrong, candidate for congress, will deliver the speech.

MEETINGS ARE SCHEDULED.

B. Paul Mossman, Charles R. Lane and Frank M. Hogan will be the speakers at a republican meeting to be held tonight at Edgerton. At the Philley school, two miles southeast of the city, Decatur road, the speakers for a Monday night meeting will be Anselm Fuelber (in German) and C. H. Williams. At Grabill tonight the speaker will be Newton W. Gilbert.

MEETING AT WODBURN.

Harry H. Hilgemann and A. A. Rothengass Speakers at Democratic Gathering.

Harry H. Hilgemann and A. A. Rothengass were the speakers at a democratic meeting held at Woodburn Saturday night. Mr. Hilgemann said he did not think there should be a change of administration at this time, since President Wilson had kept the United States at peace while the rest of the world was at war. The democratic party is willing to stand on its record and I firmly believe that the people will approve that record on November 7 by their ballots. Mr. Rothengass made an appeal to the German voters, charging the Hughes campaign managers with being at the head of a munitions' trust. Howard Benninghoff was the other speaker of the evening.

Held Meeting at Poe.

E. V. Emrick and C. P. Squires were speakers at a meeting held at Poe Saturday night. Mr. Emrick said the only issue the republicans had was one of criticism and that the Mexican trouble was the result of millionaires of America going into Mexico to exploit their interests. Mr. Squires spoke on national issues.

Bush is Republican Speaker.

Edgar K. Bush, republican candidate for lieutenant governor, gave an address at republican headquarters Saturday night. He charged the democratic administration with extravagance in the administration of state affairs.

NEWS OF FORT WAYNE'S NEIGHBORS

MARRIED IN BASEMENT.

Auburn, Ind., Oct. 30.—The regular weekly meeting of the men's personal workers of the Church of God in the basement of the church had one number on the program a little out of the ordinary. It was a wedding, Mrs. Theresa Agnes McCormick, of Auburn, being married to Robert F. Knolys, of Detroit, Mich. The marraige was a surprise to all present and even the pastor, Rev. H. F. Collins, was unaware that he would be called upon to perform a marriage ceremony before the close of the meeting. The bride and groom accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Blevins and daughter, Miss Hazel, came to the basement of the church and announced their intentions, so the ceremony was performed with the members of the league as guests.

All merchandise in the car was pilfered, the boxes broken open and the contents in some instances scattered over the floor of the car.

Musical Recital.

A recital of the students of the Boston Conservatory of Music, assisted by Miss Afton Woalf, soprano student of Miss Kay M. Spencer, and accompanied by Miss Loomis, of Kendallville, and Mr. Lloyd Grosvenor, violinist, accompanied by Mr. Wentzel, was given Saturday afternoon. Each received a hearty applause and responded to encores. Miss Woalf's voice was especially good and caused a great deal of comment.

Miss Hieber played a Liszt concerto in A major, two movements, and rendered it very creditably. Miss Goldsmith played two movements of the F sharp minor concerto, displaying splendid technique. Misses James and Mowery gave two Chopin polonaises and performed them excellently. Miss Dibble finished the musical program by playing the concert Etude by McDowell and received much favorable comment for her painstaking. Others who did admirably well were Misses Foster, Manth, Baum, Bentz, Dinnius, Tarlitz, Cooper, Kiem, Blough, Grosvenor, Reiling, Tarlitz and Messrs. Cooper Sunday, Floering, Hoppe, Wahrenburgh, Jantz, Moore, Strombeck and Fairfield.

Miss Dibble and Mr. Lachner won the committing contest and will share the prize equally between them. Mr. George Trier took charge of the social part of the afternoon, which was spent in games, dancing, refreshments. Robert Graft contributed orchestral pipe organ selections during the entire afternoon.

AT THE PALACE

Snappy Musical Comedy With Earle Dewey and Maybelle Rogers.

The merry story of the migration of the nurses, doctors and patients from the tangoitis sanitarium to the cafe de enbaret and the Pallais du Danse on the Moon again is being unfolded at the New Palace in the musical comedy hit, Around the Town, with Earle S. Dewey and Maybelle "Billie" Rogers in the principal roles. From the saucy dance of the nursies in the opening act to the patriotic number, "Prosperity," that brings the entire company out to bid the audience good-bye, Around the Town is the snappiest, merriest and withal the cleanest bit of musical comedy the E. P. Churchill are offering. The company is unusually clever and has been together for more than a year, the chorus being practically the same as the one that was here last February and the principals with the exception of the tangoitis specialist and "Man in the Moon," being the same artists. The Cafe de Cabaret scene in which a stage is created within a stage is better this year than last, the Spirit of '76 song being the best the specialists do.

There will be no performance at the New Palace on Tuesday evening because the house has been turned over to a political meeting. The usual matinee will of course be given.

AT THE STRAND

Viola Dana, the superb film attraction with which the Strand theater made its bow to Fort Wayne, and which has won nothing but the most favorable comment, will be seen for the last time today. It is distinctly worth seeing.

* * *

"A gentleman, a scholar and a judge of good whisky," is "Rummy," the part played by Wilfred Lucas in the Triangle-Fine Arts photoplay of that title, to be seen at the Strand theater Tuesday and Wednesday this week.

In this play a young newspaperman, fast rising toward success, becomes a wreck when he loses faith in his wife.

"It happens like that in real life every once in awhile, too," Director Paul Powell said, reminiscently. "I remember one case that remains the biggest mystery that ever came under my personal observation. I had a friend on one of the newspapers where I worked, a fine, sober, brilliant young fellow—just like 'Rummy' at the beginning of this play. I never knew that boy to take a drink until one day he showed up for work, roaring drunk. We sent him home to sober up. He came back each afternoon drunker, if that is posible, than the day before. So the boss laid him off, but told him that he would make a place for him if he would get sober and stay sober. But he never did. We al ltried to straighten him up, but nothing we could do or say did any good, and after about two years he just disappeared.

"This has been a hard picture to direct, for I keep seeing my poor old chum in Lucas' realistic work. I'm mighty glad Pauline Starke, as the wife in this play, pulls 'Rummy' through—I would have hated to direct the picture, otherwise."

Like Clock-Work!

(By N. B. Cook, M. D.)

The machinery of the body needs to be oiled, kept in good condition just as the automobile or bicycle. Why should the human neglect his own machinery more than that of his horse or his engine? Yet most people do neglect themselves. Their tongue has a dark brown color, skin sallow, breath bad, yet they fail to see that their machinery needs attention. Everybody should take a mild laxative at least once a week. A pleasant way to clear the tongue and the highly colored water noticed in the morning is to take a laxative which will cure the inactive liver and biliousness.

If backache, scalding urine or frequent urination bother or distress you, or if uric acid in the blood has caused rheumatism, gout or sciatica, if you suspect that you have kidney or bladder trouble, write Dr. Pierce, at Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. These Anuric tablets cannot fail to help you, because their action flushes the kidneys of impurities and puts strength into them.

NEIL CALLS MOTHERS PENSION PLAN BETTER

By Frederick M. Kerby.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 28.—Predicting that an attempt will be made at the conclusion of the European war to take children away from heir mothers and place them in institutions in order that women may work in the factories of Europe, Judge Henry Neil, "father of mothers' pensions," has addressed a letter to former Senator Elihu Root of New York, declining to join the "committee of mercy" headed by Root as honorary president.

"You have asked me to contribute to a fund to establish a committee of mercy," declared Judge Neil. "I cannot contribute to such a cause, and desire to give you information that the institutional idea for European children is put forth as part of a plan to exploit their mothers in factories.

"After the war the allied nations will have a great burden of interest to pay. They must produce things to sell. Woman factory labor must take the place of man labor, and the plea is to establish institutions, take children from their mothers and compel the mothers to become factory hands, without home or children.

"I am opposed to the institutional care of children, and all honest authorities agree with me in that opposition. Even children without mother or father, in Europe or America, can be better cared for in private families. Institutional care does not make good citizens, because it prevents the development of those talents upon which home, the basis of our civilization, depends.

"The committee of mercy is not a merciful organization. If it continues its present plan, I propose that the plan be changed to a mothers' pension plan, and children cared for in private homes with mother care, and that all mothers be kept out of factories and other gainful occupations outside of their own homes, even if the result is default on the war bonds."

Judge Neil has just sailed for England to study the problem of child poverty.

Stranded Indian Actress Who Reveled in Stag Party Jailed.

Sunshine friends were "Pete" Christ Ellert, 24, garage employe, and Louis Island, erstwhile football star with the Carlisle Indians, and who played on the Friar team a part of last season. They disclaimed all allegiance to Stella Goodman, 23, an Indian princess, who was arrested with them on a drunk charge Sunday morning.

Mrs. Goodman, who says she has been divorced for a week and who was stranded in Fort Wayne two weeks ago, when the show troupe she was traveling with went broke, pleaded not guilty to a drunk charge, in police court Monday morning. She had been in jail since Sunday morning while her companions were at liberty on bond.

She took the stand in her behalf after Officer Paul had said he knew she was drunk Sunday because "her feet didn't track right," and Stationmaster Degitz had testified that she had a "crying jag" when brought to the station.

"Do you know these men with whom you were arrested?" Judge Kert asked the soulful eyed Indian princess.

"Pete is my sweetheart," she said. "We were all having a 'stag' party down to the garage where he works. Jack, who is an actor here in town, was with us."

"Is this girl your sweetheart?" Ellert was asked.

"That is the first I had heard of it," Pete said. He even admitted that Mrs. Goodman might have had enough drink to make her "tipsy."

All members of the unlucky trio said they had been in a garage all night Saturday and until they came down West Main street early Sunday morning, when they were arrested. The men pleaded guilty to drunk charges.

Island and Ellert were fined $5 and costs each. Their fines were extracted from their bonds. They hurriedly left the station. Mrs. Goodman, who was placed under $25 bond until Tuesday, was taken to jail, despite efforts of her attorney to induce the young men to deposit bond for her. Mrs. Goodman says she has been employed for a week at the ticket window of a local movie house and wants to go to Cleveland. It is expected that she will be released Tuesday.

KILLED IN 'PLANE COLLISION.

Captain Boelke, Noted German Airman, Is Reported Dead.

London, Oct. 30.—Captain Boelke, the famous German aviator, during an air fight on Saturday, came into collision with another aeroplane and was killed, according to a Berlin dispatch received by Reuter's Telegram company by way of Amsterdam. His machine landed within the German lines. On Friday Captain Boelke shot down his fortieth aeroplane.

A Paris paper on Oct. 18 reported that Boelke had been severely wounded by a shell from a French anti-aircraft gun. Since then, however, Boelke's name has been mentioned in the German official statements, and on Oct. 23 he was credited with having brought down his thirty-eighth aeroplane.

GREAT INHERITANCE TAX FROM WESTERN LAND KING'S ESTATE.

San Francisco, Cal., Oct. 30.—California is preparing to collect her greatest inheritance tax, possibly $4,000,000. Meanwhile the people of this state are interested in the will of the late Henry Miller, great cattle and land baron of the golden west.

When Henry Miller died a few days ago he left an estate variously estimated at from $40,000,000 up. Miller was no ordinary multi-millionaire. His vast fortune lay in the land, of which he had so many acres, that he himself did not know the extent.

His vast estate was one and a half times as big as Belgium, comprising millions of acres. It was stated that he could start a drove of cattle at the Canadian border and drive them 1,400 miles to the Mexican line and camp every night on his own land. Miller owned cities, banks and great droves of cattle. His motto while alive was "buy land but never sell it," and that he lived up to his belief is attested by the vast holdings he left at his death.

To his only daughter, Mrs. J. Leroy Nickel, her husband and their three children goes the bulk of the estate. Two of the grandchildren are boys, J. Leroy, jr. and George W. Nickel. Beatrice is the granddaughter. An interesting feature of the will is that the grandchildren must remain "sober and industrious" if they are to enjoy the fruits of the vast inheritance.

Miller also added that the grandsons must "enter upon some useful and honorable business."

Sarah E. Miller, widow of the late Henry Miller, jr., receives a bequest of $50,000 only from the will.

The aged land baron bequeathed $900,000 for public benefaction. Of this, $500,000 is for a medical research fund, $300,000 for a hospital at Gilroy, Cal., and $50,000 for San Francisco charities. Other substantial bequests are provided for relatives and employes of the great estate.

Willcox Puts Indiana, Ohio and New York in Republican Column.

New York, Oct. 30.—The prediction that Charles E. Hughes will have considerably more than 300 electoral votes, was made today by Chairman William R. Willcox, of the republican national committee. "Mr. Hughes will have 310 electoral votes or more," Mr. Willcox said. "My report shows that Ohio, Illinois and Indiana will all go republican as well as will also New York state. We also consider Michigan safe and although there is a bitter fight in Utah, I believe that will go republican. The democrats have been claiming Minnesota lately, but my reports from that state do not indicate it will go democratic. As to Wisconsin, there are a good many varying reports from there, but I was told today by authorities from that state that it will be in the republican column."

HICKSVILLE TWINS MUST GO TO JAIL

They Put on Big Drunk in Celebration of Their Birthdays.

Two Hicksville, Ohio, twins, whose appearance were duplicated from their tan shoes and checkered gray trousers to the right-hand part of their dark brown hair, were fined $5 and costs in police court Monday morning for celebrating their twenty-seventh birthday anniversary in Fort Wayne, Sunday.

Saturday was really the birthday of I. A. Thompson and A. I. Thompson. They went to Defiance Saturday night, where they bought drink. On Sunday they came to Fort Wayne to finish the celebration. They found Officer Paul as they shuffled down Barr street with their new brown caps tilted to larboard

"We want a drink," said A. I.

"Where can we buy a drink?" followed I. A.

"Come with me," said Officer Paul. He locked the boys up, although they protested vigorously. They were charged with public intoxication Monday morning.

"Guilty or not guilty?" asked Prosecutor Hoffman.

"Guilty," echoed A. I.

"Nothing," said A. I.

"Nothing," chimed I. A. with an identical shake of his head.

Officer Paul had said he took a half pint of whisky from the hip pocket of I. A., or maybe it was from A. I.

"In Defiance," said A. I.

"You can't even get a good drink of water in Hicksville," added I. A.

"I will fine you fellows $5 and costs for being drunk on Sunday," Judge Kerr told them.

"I can't pay it," said I. A.

"Neither can I," A. I. said.

Their red mackinaws, with the black stripes around them, swung to the right and then the left as the twins moved towards the cells.

Brown Bound Over.

Charles Brown, who wears a Charles Chaplin mustache, was bound to the circuit court under $500 bond on a charge of grand larceny. He pleaded guilty to having taken brass fixtures valued at $85 from the Anthony hotel while employed there last week. Brown is said by detectives to have gone under four names and to have been sent to the penitentiary from Petersburg, Ind., on a grand larceny charge four years ago.

Band Broken Up.

Mexican furrys and wild stories of raids by one, Pancho Villa, fired the boyish spirits of five west end youths. The lads formed a raiding band. One plundering exploit, when fifteen cents worth of scrap tobacco was netted, and an ambush attack on two school boys, were the sum of their achievements. They found themselves in police court, Monday morning.

The boys are Earl McKinley, 15; Donald, Lazier, 12; Charles Jordon, 17; Elmer Jordon, 12, and Elmer Jordon, 15, all of whom live on West Third street.

Police were told that they moved upon a house under cover of darkness at 1403 West Third street, when tenants were away Friday and stole the tobacco which is always a part of the make-up of real bandits.

On Saturday they fired several shots from an air gun, from cover of willow bushes, that represented the sage brush of the southwestern arroyos, on Edmund Snoke and John Wilkins. The boys' parents told police. The bandits were corralled and brought to court. All but Charles Jordon were turned over to juvenile officers. The elder Jordon boy must report later to court.

For Sabbath Desecration.

Paul Salvo and Tony Delow, who operate a pool room at the corner of Fairfield avenue and Taylor streets, are charged with running their place of business on Sunday. Their trial is set for November 2. Diago Vinago is the complaining witness.

The two Italians say they bought the pool room but last week and that they did not know they could not run it on Sunday. They are not fully acquainted with American institutions, they argue.

Fined For Gambling.

William Cox and Lloyd Bland negroes, were slow in getting away when police raided a sidewalk crap game, on Holman street, just around the corner from Lafayette street, Sunday morning. Police secured the dice. The two negroes who were caught pleaded guilty to the gambling charge. They were fined $5 and costs.

Other Police Court Cases.

Fines for public intoxication were John Doe, forfeited $15 bond; Mike Finnigan, $5; Albert Watson, colored, $10; John Passig, $5; John Sammon, Fred Roy, John Bright, Jason Carpenter and Commodore Kick were released.

George Williams will be heard on November 10 on a charge of child neglect. George Holbrook will have trial on November 25 on a like charge.

WILL TAKE NO OFFICIAL NOTE OF THE STATEMENT

Atlantic City, N. J., Oct. 30.—It was indicated today that the American members of the American-Mexican joint commission will take no official cognizance of the statement credited to Louis Cabrera, head of the Mexican commission, in which American government officials were criticized for alleged laxity in dealing with smugglers of arms and ammunition.

Secretary of the Interior Lane, head of the American commission, will, it is said, accept without exception Mr. Cabrera's denial of authorship. Mr. Cabrera had not returned to Atlantic City early today, but Alberto J. Pani and Ignacio Bonillas, the other members of the Mexican commission, were here and without Mr. Cabrerar the joint commisison resumed its conference.

ELYRIA SPRING A SURPRISE BUT NOT A WIN

FRIARS DOWN ELYRIA AFTER HARD SCRAP

Visitors' Use of Forward Pass Makes Them Dangerous at All Times.

When the Elyria team marched out on the field yesterday headed by little Ambrose, the fans fairly groaned and looked for a repetition of the Dayton game. They surely didn't look like a dangerous bunch. The score was 24 to 13 in favor of the Friars. In the first quarter the locals lead up a count of ten, through a drop-kick, and a touchdown with the goal kicked.

Right at this time the locals were stopped having things their own way. Captain Byroade made some substitutions in order to save the regulars for next Sunday's headliner. At the beginning of the second quarter the visitors opened with a brand of forward passes, end runs and line bucks that was sensational. They never lost a first down until the ball was over the Friar line for the second touchdown of the season against the locals. They kicked the goal and then took up the fight again threatening the Friar goal throughout the remainder of the period.

Evidently Captain Byroade decided that he had better win this game before saving the players for next Sunday's contest for when the team lined up for the kick-off the original line-up was used.

The scoring for the rest of the game was in the Friars' favor with two touchdowns to the visitors one. Chambers relcived Young at full and just naturally bucked the ball over the line. The last marker of the game was made when a visiting sub-half caught a forward pass and ran twenty-five yards through a broken field for a touchdown.

The visitors certainly did not look their speed and they put up one of the surprises of the season. With the locals going at the best strids they have hit so far, the Elyria team piled up the biggest score against them. The team was weak on the defensive and the locals piled up a good sized count but the speed of the Buckeyes kept the game interesting at all times.

Every Man Delivered.

Every man on the local squad who went into the game yesterday delivered. Whitey Gerberding had the worst luck. About the third play after he went in a Buckeye broke through the Friar line and started down the field. In turning him toward the sideline Whitey got a good hard lamp and was knocked groggy for the rest of the time he was in. Pliska and Johnson with Dorias to direct them, can do wonders and they proved it yesterday. Smith, who relieved Johnson, looks better every time he gets in, too.

The two ends were held up in great shape yesterday with Trimble playing the whole game and Zaring working until well into the fourth quarter. Feeney and O'Donnel with Jones and Edwards beside them, certainly do put up a stone wall defense.

The Fort Wayne fans can be glad that it was only a myth that Dorias had signed with Massilon. He is the brainest player who ever performed on this field and directs the team in a manner that makes it a sure winner. By running with the ball yesterday he did a good deal to work the stiffness out of that bum leg and will be in first class condition for next Sunday's battle.

The officiating yesterday was the best of the season and the game was run through without a hitch. Haggerty refused to argue except with the captains and he did very little then beside laying down the law in a decided manner.

ELYRIA (13)		FRIARS (24)
Zeigman	L.E.	Trimble

Evanston Wins in a Walk Away

Evanston, Oct. 30.—After trailing by three points at the close of the first quarter and leading by only 7 to 3 at intermission time the North Ends of Evanston, taking an injection of speed serum, turned on the South Bend collegues and trounced the Hoosiers, 51 to 3, at De Paul field. The Evanstonians put up a weak exhibition of football in the first two quarters, during which time Johnson's touchdown resulted in the only score.

In the third quarter three markers flew by the goal posts when Coach Moore's proteges cut loose with the forward pass. The same progressive type of gridiron work was shown in the final session, when three more touchdowns and a drop kick from the forty-five yard mark by Johnson was registered.

Field goal—Dorias.

Goals from touchdown—Dorias, 3; Forbes.

Bloomington, Ind., Oct. 30.—Tired but happy, nearly 2,500 Indiana students returned from Indianapolis at an early hour Sunday morning, where they witnessed the Tufts game, which resulted 12 to 10 in favor of the easterners. The Hoosier rooters have nothing but the highest praise for the work of Coach Stiehm, who has caused the Indiana stock to soar and who has made a great improvement in the work of the team since Chicago was met. Stiehm's scout returned today with word that Northwestern is stronger than in years, and that Indiana will have to continue to improve to win next Saturday.

WILL BE NO LETUP.

Notre Dame, Ind., Oct. 30.—Despite the easy victory over Wabash there will be no letup in the Notre Dame camp, and the remaining three days of practice on the home grounds will be given over to the hardest kind of offensive and defensive drill. More pleasing to the coaches than the big score piled up against Wabash was the fact that with the exception of a few minor bruises the regulars came through without injury. The fans are cheered by the news that when the Hoosiers entrain for West Point on next Thursday "Hard" Whipple, star of last year's Nebraska game, will be with the crew.

LOCAL PILOTS GO BIG.

Ralph Ormsby and William Brown, local race drivers, were the big noises at the Burlington automobile races Saturday and Sunday. Ormsby broke the track record, making the mile in 58¼ seconds. In the twenty-five mile go, Brown and Ormsby were fighting for first place when Ormsby went through the fence, doing slight damage to his mount, but with no injury to himself. Brown took the race in 23 minutes and 23 seconds.

BOOSTERS ARE AGAIN BUSY

ADDRESSES CREATE NEW ENTHUSIASM

Speakers Have Encountered No Opposition to the Coliseum.

The speakers at the noon meetings at the factories and shops, working in the interest of the projected convention hall, report that no adverse sentiment has yet been heard. Everyone seems enthusiastic and many are the voluntary promises to boost the plan to a successful finish.

Two meetings were held today noon, one in the west end of the city, at the plant of the Dudlo Manufacturing Co., and the other in the east end for the employes of the Western Gas Construction Co.

W. H. Shambaugh's Boost.

William H. Shambaugh, who has worked hard for the convention hall project, was the first speaker at the plant of the Western Gas Construction company. Sherman Fay, chief draftsman of the plant, had charge of the arrangements. Mr. Shambaugh laid stress upon the fact that every man who lives and works in Fort Wayne, or who owns property or plans to own property, should be enthusiastically in favor of the convention hall which will be such a great incentive to the growth of the city's prosperity. The point was made especially strong when it is remembered that the establishment of the convention hall will not increase the tax levy—in fact, that the 5-cent sinking fund levy, from which the convention hall will be built, will remain the same whether the building is erected or not.

"It is to the interest of every loyal citizen, whether he is rich or poor, to support this great project on election day," he said.

Attorney Hayes' Views.

Attorney Byron Hayes followed Mr. Shambaugh, opening with a picture of Fort Wayne as a bigger city and a faster-growing city than the citizens realize it to be. The pressing need of a convention hall and community center was clearly presented. Mr. Hayes referred to the great amount of advertising which the city of Chicago has received through the possession of its coliseum where great conventions are held throughout the year. The picture of the building is familiar to everyone in America, and soon the Fort Wayne coliseum will bring to this city a fame in proportion to the value of the building and the position of the city in the commercial and fraternal world.

A. G. Burry's Talk.

At the plant of the Dudlo Manufacturing company, George M. Haffner presided. A. G. Burry, manager of the Fort Wayne Box company, the first speaker, referred to the proposed convention hall as "something we all want."

"It is our immediate, imperative need," said he. "We have been compelled to turn down many important conventions during the past few years because we haven't had a place large enough to accommodate the people. And, furthermore, we have been unable to hold large exhibitions, expositions and other great affairs of a civic and industrial nature. Therefore, every loyal citizen of Fort Wayne will vote for the proposed convention hall."

Judge Aiken's Remarks.

Judge John H. Aiken referred to the great amount of money which would be put into circulation by the conventions which the city can entertain as soon as the convention hall is finished. Any convention which will be large enough to demand a convention hall will throw into circulation from $20,000 up. He detailed the method of paying for the coliseum without an increase of taxation and pictured the glory of the participation in the great project which would permanently serve all the people.

Rev. A. J. Folsom's Words.

Rev. A. J. Folsom, who was present as a spectator, was called upon to express his views, which he did in his usual enthusiastic style when the welfare of the people of the city is concerned. Mr. Folsom sees in the convention hall one of the greatest blessings which can come to a progressive city.

FRUIT AND NOT GOLD LOOT OF BOY BURGLARS

Five bananas, a razor and a flashy gold stickpin was the loot of youthful vandals who ransacked the home of J. A. Riley, 918 Huestis avenue, Sunday. The daylight robbers had not touched $120 in an opened dresser drawer, nor a valuable gold watch.

The Riley family was away from home Sunday. First notice of the robbery was when a rear window was found open. The bananas were missed next. Banana skins were scattered over the house. In every room burned matches were found.

Police believe that all signs point to boys who knew of the absence of the Riley family and who took occasion to get articles most treasured in their youthful eyes.

THREE WIVES FILE SUITS FOR DIVORCE

Mrs. Fred Fleichman Says That Her Husband Would Often Desert Her.

Alleging that her husband deserted her for fifteen weeks at a time; that he often remained out all night, nagged her and called her vile names, Minnie Fleischman has filed suit in superior court for a divorce from Fred Fleischman. They were married September 6, 1906, and separated October 25, 1916. Alimony of $1,000 is asked in addition to an allowance for the child. Ryan, Ryan & Aldrich are attorneys for the plaintiff.

Wilma Hendricks, in suit for divorce filed in superior court, charges that Edward Hendricks deserted her three times, struck and beat her and told her to leave and never return again. Failure to provide is also alleged. Emrick & Emrick are attorneys for the plaintiff, who asserts in her complaint that they were married February 18, 1915, and separated October 16 last.

Failure to provide for his wife and family of three children is charged in a divorce bill which Zelma F. Bodecker has filed in superior court against William H. Bodecker. They were married May 20, 1908, and separated October 28.

Not Discharged as Bankrupt.

Judge Sol A. Wood, referee in bankruptcy, has refused to discharge Isadore H. Lande as a bankrupt after a review of the objections of creditors. Lande did business in Fort Wayne under the name of the Orpheum Cloak and Suit company.

Sorg Awarded Contract.

The county commissioners Monday let the contract for tileing the new county farm to Mike H. Sorg. His bid was 12 cents per foot depth. The other bidder was M. N. Sprang, who submitted a bid of 14 cents. There are 4,000 rods of tile to be laid.

Repair School Building.

Repair work to the school in the rolling mill district was superintended Monday by Allen Hamilton, Wayne township trustee. The heating system at this school has been defective. Trouble has also been experienced with pumps at several of the schools as persons have been putting in sand at the top, destroying the suction. At two or three schools of the township the water is reported as not good and the trustee will have tests made.

LOOKING FOR A SAFE PLACE TO LAND!

Officials Figuring on Cost of Making New the Blackened Walls.

Members of the board of works are figuring on the cost of having walls of the city hall cleaned. Charles Ray, of Chicago, who just finished work of transforming the front of the Lincoln Life building, is measuring the building to ascertain his lowest bid on the job. He says it will require a month for six men with three lines of blow pipes to remove the grime, which eighteen years of flying dust and smoke clouds have placed on the city building.

Ray has carried on two cleaning jobs in Fort Wayne and success of his work has attracted members of the works board. They believe the sombre walls of the city hall need brightening up and will have the work done if cost is not too high.

Ray has carried on this kind of work from coast to coast. He considers his clambering along the edge of the top wall of the Lincoln Life building, which caused many spectators to hold their breath, as a light experience. One of his most difficult feats of steeple jack cleaning was when he drew himself up along the sides of the Perry monument, in Put-in-Bay, Michigan, and wielded his blow pipe at the airy height of 300 feet. His father carried on the same kind of work for forty years, he says.

Finished Cinder Path.

A broad cinder path, for the benefit of pedestrians, has been built from Crescent avenue to Delta boulevard, across a part of Lakeside park.

Setting Ready for Monument.

Landscape setting for the Perry A. Randall monument in Swinney park has been completed. Members of the park board inspected the work Monday morning. They expressed themselves as being highly pleased with the artistic arrangement of small trees, shrubs and flower beds by Park Superintendent Getz to give suitable setting for the monument.

To Consider Final Estimates.

Final estimates on costs and assessments resulting from purchase of land for enlargement of Weisser park will be taken up by the park board at their meetin Monday afternoon. Assessment roll for building of sidewalks, curb and gutter on both sides of Rudisill boulevard, from Piqua to Hanna streets, will be passed by the board.

Are Laying Base.

The Grace Construction company started laying concrete base for paving of Furman street, Monday.

Putting in Curb.

Work of installing concrete curb and gutter on Eckert street from Lafayette to Warsaw street started Monday.

Laying Top Dressing.

Top dressing is beinl layed on St. Joe boulevard from North street to Tennessee avenue.

Are Giving Surplus Weight.

Inspection by City Sealer C. B. Tolan shows that most Fort Wayne coal dealers are giving overweight in their delivery of coal. Tolan weighed sixty-five wagons from many coal yards last week. There was 316 pounds' overweight in the whole number. Twenty-nine of the loads, however, did not tip the scales at the required weight. Tolan found. Eight wagon loads weighed just the right amount and twenty-eight loads were 930 pounds overweight.

RURAL MAIL CARRIER CYCLE CLASH VICTIM

When a motorcycle which Bruce J. Rathburn, a rural mail carrier of Orland, Ind., was riding was side-swiped by an automobile Sunday morning at the intersection of the brick yard and the Leo road, the carrier suffered two broken bones in one leg and a scalp wound necessitating his removal to St. Joseph's hospital, where he will be confined for several weeks. Frank J. Johns and his brother, Fred A., were occupants of the car, the former driving. Charles Lyons, who was on the motorcycle, was also hurt.

The auto suddenly swerved to the left and struck the motorcycle, Rathburn says. The mail carrier's leg was caught between the fender of the car and the engine of the machine. Orland motorists near by rushed to the scene and took Rathburn to the hospital. Dr. W. W. Barnett treated the man.

ROTARY CLUB WILL ENTERTAIN "NEWSIES"

Plans Completed for Banquet to Be Given at Anthony Tonight.

Members of the Rotary club will entertain eighty newsboys of Fort Wayne Monday night at a banquet at the Hotel Anthony. The boys will assemble in the convention hall at 6 o'clock under direction of Charles N. Phelps, a member of the Rotary club, and from there go to the hotel.

Prof. Stanley Coulter, dean of the department of science, Purdue university, will address the banquet prior to the entertainment of Edward Reno, the magician. Two Rotarians and two newsboys will sit at each banquet table, the members of the Rotary club sitting with the newsboy whose tag number corresponds to the number the Rotarian holds.

Influence which the movement has had on members of the Rotary club is unusual. Frank E. Bohn, president, states. "Every man in the bunch has taken this thing just as seriously as we hoped they would," he said. "Every man of us feels that while we are studying the boys, they, too, are studying us. And if the thing works out right, all of us will profit."

The Cheerful Aid society will meet on Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Nicholls, 1233 Winter street.

Seventy-Two Per Cent is the Average for Fifty Plants.

Seventy-two per cent is the average grade of the fifty dairies which furnish the milk supply for Fort Wayne. One hundred per cent is a perfect score. More than sixty items are considered in making the grades and perfect record is almost impossible.

Paul Kucher, meat and dairy inspector, finished his report Monday, after nearly a month of inspection work. Among the items considered are: Amount of light in the cow barns, kind of milk strainers used, condition of the cattle and general sanitation.

Scores for the dairies follows:

Gumbert, 72.8; Philley, C. R., 67.9; Oetting, R. F., 70.3; Stegman, R., 72.2; Theye, F. W., 71.8; Brookside, 903; Hartzell Ice Cream Co, 49.5; Nieter, S. BRECKENRIDGE DENIES THE CHARGE BY LODGE

Calls Criticism of Wilson Note "Beneath Contempt."

New York, Oct. 30.—Henry C. Breckenridge, former assistant secretary of war, in a telegram from San Mateo, Cal., to the Philadelphia Public Ledger, announced the attack of Senator Henry Cabot Lodge on President Wilson as "beneath contempt," and branded as a "scoundrel" the alleged informant of Senator Lodge.

Senator Lodge in an address Saturday night reiterated his charge that President Wilson had added an appendix to the "strict accountability" note to the effect that its contents were not to be taken too seriously, and that he suppressed the appendix only when Secretary of War Garrison and several other members of the cabinet threatened to resign.

Senator Lodge said that his information on the subject came from Dr. Charles H. Bailey of the Tufts Medical school, who learned it in a conversation with former Assistant Secretary of War Breckenridge.

In his telegram Mr. Breckenridge says no member of the cabinet ever threatened the president on any subject.

NOBODY HOME WHEN FIRE ATTACKS HOUSE

Nobody had been in the frame house at 912 Eckart street for two days when the building leaped into flames Saturday night at 9 o'clock. Neighbors discovered the blaze and called out firemen. Upstairs rooms were damaged and the roof burned off.

Mrs. Cora Shaw, who rents the house, had been in Huntington since Thursday. Oscar Gallaghan and Newton Mullineaux, who room there, were staying with relatives in another part of the city during Mrs. Shaw's absence. Mrs. Shaw's six-year-old daughter, Bessie, was staying with Mrs. L. Knepper, 821 Clinton street. Mrs. Knepper says the only key to the place was left with her and had not been called for during Mrs. Shaw's absence.

Origin of the fire, which did $600 damage, is a mystery. Firemen have a theory that a burglar might have been prowling through the upstairs rooms and accidentally started the conflagration.

ENTIRE STATE WILL SEE PLANNING SHOW

Many cities in Indiana will have the opportunity of seeing the city-planning exhibit recently given in Fort Wayne under the auspices of the Women's Club league, according to an announcement made by Harold S. Buttenheim, president of the New York city bureau and editor of "The American City," who Sunday night arrived in Fort Wayne from Evansville and Terre Haute.

Mr. Buttenheim was enthusiastic over the prospects of city planning in the state and stated that Evansville and Terre Haute were preparing to put on the exhibit. The show will be given in Evansville during the week of the Indiana Real Estate association convention, Nov. 15-17. While in Fort Wayne Mr. Buttenheim was the guest of Lee J. Ninde, president of the Indiana Real Estate association. The next number of the American City, a magazine devoted to civic interests, will carry a story by Francis H. Bulot, engineer for Wildwood Builders, on Shawnee place.

The Big Cop Talks Politics

By Ellis Parker Butler, Author of "Pigs is Pigs"

Terry, the Big Cop, paused before Banana Joe's fruit stand and looked over his stock with an experienced eye.

"Joe," he asked, "do you want peace or war?"

"I wanta zella de banan," grinned Joe.

"I'll let you," said he Big Cop. "I prefer apples, anyway," and he took the best apple in sight. With mock deference Joe took the apple from him and polished it carefully before handing it back to him.

"You must think I'm as hard to suit as a Republican campaign orator," said the Big Cop pleasantly. "It looks to me as if they were not satisfied to get everything they want from the Democratic administration, but had to kick because they got it. I was not talking through my hat, Joe, when I asked you did you want peace or war."

"No?" asked Joe casually.

"I was not," said the Big Cop firmly. "I thought maybe I could add you to the large and toothful war party. At the present time the inhabitants of the United States are divided into two grand divisions—those who want peace and those who want war. The first consists of Theodore Roosevelt, and the second of the rest of us. Barring his sons and grandsons, whom he threatened to enlist, Theodore's war party has not grown much. I hoped he might add a blood-thirsty banana man like you to it.

"I have a kid at home, Joe. A fine little lad he is, too, and it is none of his fault he is a baby. Had he been born twenty years earlier he would be a man by now, but a babe he is and he has all the ways of a babe. You should hear him bawl when he sets his mind on the job and gives his heart to it! You can hear him a mile. And does he need anything to bawl about? Indeed, no. Does he want a piece of candy? Waw! waw! waw! The neighbors think we are murdering him, the way he howls. So we give him the lollypop he wants. He cries ten times louder than he ever did before. Waw! waw! waw! waw! He's got what he wants, but he bawls because we gave it to him and did not let him climb the shelves of the closet and get it himself! The little skeesicks, he reminds me of the Republicans, this campaign.

"Have you heard any of them, Joe? You should. You can go in free and they're twice as funny as Charley Chaplin. One-half of them are shouting themselves hoarse for honorable peace and the other half yelling their heads off for adequate preparedness. Hughes is to get all that, do you mind!

"If I was running the Republican campaign, Joe, I would confine the issue to whiskers. On that platform I would be safe. With the naked eye any voter can see that Hughes has more whiskers than Woodrow has, and there would be less to laugh at. It would be a clean, straight issue—'Do you want a whiskered president or a shaved one?' The staunch Republicans would know what they were for and what they were against. There would be less seen of the man in the audience who gets up, when the Republican spell-binder is telling what the Republicans stand for this year, and says, 'Excuse me for living, but the Democrats have been for that these four years and Woodrow Wilson and Congress have already done it and done it well.'

"Has anyone yet pried into your ivory dome, Joe, the fact that the Democratic administration has made twenty-four treaties of peace with all the great nations of the world, agreeing there shall be no war by or against us until the quarrel has been thoroughly investigated by a permanent international commission, and a report made and for twelve months after diplomacy has failed, if fail it does? Has anyone told you that these agreements bind twelve hundred million people? If Woodrow Wilson is so bad there are twelve hundred million glad to be like him.

"You see, Joe, Wilson has said, with the Republicans and Democrats in the Senate agreeing, 'Let us have no more citizen-murder if we can settle our quarrels with foreign nations without it.' 'But what if we can't settle it that way?' you say. 'Suppose,' you say, 'we have to pick up the big hickory club?' 'What club?' I ask, and you look around for it and all you find is a willow switch, which is hardly the weapon to tackle a mad enemy with.

"You see, Joe, the Democrats and Republicans both thought of that. To keep trespassers off your lot you need a club and not a switch, for when they come they bring a club with them. So, whilst arranging every means to avoid trouble and slaughter, the Democrats and Republicans together have remembered preparedness and have cut a stout hickory club to have handy in case of need. In the national program of peace and war the Republicans are like my babe—the only howl they have is that we gave them what they wanted and they are sore that they did not have the chance to give exactly the same things. To my mind whiskers would be a better campaign issue, by far. The Republicans are making a great cry these days, Joe, but it worries the nation no more than the bawl of my babe John when he has already got what he wants. But there is one thing more close to the Republican leader's heart than even whiskers."

"What?" asked Joe wearily.

"A government job for the Republican leader," said the Big Cop, "and that is what all the pow-wow is about when you come right down to it."

REPUBLICAN BLUNDER WILL PROVE COSTLY

Washington, D. C., Oct. 26. — There is place which hath no fury like a woman scorned!

It is such fury many of the National Woman's party organizers hold toward republican campaign managers today, despite the close alliance between the women and the Hughes camp.

The reason is that until quite recently the republican directors practically forgot that such a being as a woman voter existed.

"The biggest display of boneheadedness extant!" is the way some of the Woman's Party leaders have characterized this "blunder."

Tales of committee room scenes have begun to filter out here—scenes over which the women campaigners are still gnashing their teeth.

And, according to the women who are talking, republican leaders have displayed the "most assinine indifference in trying to capture the 2,000,000 women's votes in the twelve suffrage states."

While the women campaigners for the National Woman's Party were out rustling an organized vote against Wilson, republican speakers were either mum or mode but casual reference to the feminine vote.

The democrats on the other hand are making every effort to appease feminine belligerents and to catch the neutral woman's ballot. Many of the most effective speeches of democratic speakers, directed toward women, are said by Woman's Party leaders to have been written in the white house.

Judging by recent speeches, the republicans have at length awakened somewhat to the opportunity they were letting slip toward corraling that 2,000,000 woman-power.

The result of "the colossal stupidity" ascribed to republican campaign directors is pointed out by women in the Hughes western trip.

On the first leg of his swing Hughes said nothing to women. In Spokane, Wash., after a borbardment of his train by Woman's Party telegrams, he made some effort to catch the fair vote. In Seattle he again passed over it lightly.

In San Francisco, where woman suffrage sentiment was shown to be weak when California gained the ballot, Hughes opened up some big guns for women voters' benefit, but in Los Angeles, where suffrage bias is strong, he said never a word.

It is no secret that the Woman's Party would rather have worked with the democratic had conditions been different, and the attitude of republican campaign managers and advisers, as it is viewed by women, has not served to eliminate that natural prejudice.

It is predicted here that the republicans, by their "boneheadedness," may have lost a million women's votes that were ready for their plucking.

THE DAWN OF A NEW STANDARD IN VALUE GIVING

This store is always doing something unexpected in the way of value giving. As a matter of fact, we've established more or less of a precedent in this wise and the bargain hunters with a realization of "what's what" will probably be found here oftener than they will be in any other furniture store in town. Not only do these bargain prices apply upon special articles, but we have priced every bit of our stock at such attractive figures that the discriminate can hardly resist the temptation to buy. We have found out after a long and successful career of merchandising that the wisest and soundest principle upon which a business house can build is to give their clientele the most and the best for the least. Believe us—nowadays the percentage of people who are paying a high and fancy price for anything just to show their envious brethren who are looking on that they are able to do it, is mighty, mighty small. The world do move, and the people who are making every spent dollar bring one hundred per cent results are the ones who are hustling along keeping pace with it. We are running this store for the benefit of these kind of people and the immense business that we have built seems to indicate that we are on the right track. We want everyone who enters here to feel that they are coming into a store where it is considered a cardinal sin to sell anyone a piece of merchandise that is not worth every penny given for it. Many times it is worth more than you paid for it, but the consideration is making sure that the purchase price is justified by the quality of the article. We would like to number YOU among the large number of customers who have been won to our side by these sort of storekeeping principles.

HIGH COST OF LIVING HITS U. S. CONSULATES

Washington, Oct. 30.—Urgent need of financial assistance for American consular officials and clerical assistants in Europe, obliged, because of the greatly increased cost of living since the war, to pay three times more than normal peace time prices for food stuffs and personal necessities, is shown in reports received almost daily by the state department.

Almost without exception these show that what was regarded before the war as an attractive compensation for consular employes today is scarcely sufficient to provide food and the bare necessities. The $150,000 allowance given by congress as a war fund to be distributed to consular officers to meet increased demands has been allotted and the department is now without means of extending further relief. No provision was made for the relief of clerks and other employes, and except for a few whose salaries have been increased, no assistance has been give this class and none is possible until congress provides additional funds.

A year ago the department directed consular officers to report on the cost of living at their posts to determine development of the increase. Estimates showed that the $150,000 would be sufficient then to meet only from 50 to 60 per cent. of the actual increased cost at all affected posts.

Department records show there are about 600 employes in the European consular services whose salaries are $1,000 or less. In most cases natives are employed as clerks, stenographers of similar positions, whose expenses are naturally less than those of the American employes. The number of Americans in this grade of employment is estimated at about 1,500 and they most feel the need of financial aid. Statistics are being prepared of the amounts that will be needed to give the desired assistance.

Nowhere in the war zone has the cost of living not been addected, and in some localities it has increased as much as six times what it was before the war.

J. E. Crane, an employe at the Wabash shops, and his wife left night on a pleasure trip to Washington, D. C. They will return the latter patr of the week.

FARMER DIDN'T WAIT UNTIL CAR HAD STOPPED

"Monroe street," called the conductor of an East Creighton avenue street car Saturday evening at 6 o'clock. He had no sooner called the stop when James Bice, a farmer, aged 70 years, residing ten miles southwest of the city, left his seat, ran to the back platform and stepped off the moving car. He was thrown to the street with violence. He was removed to St. Joseph's hospital, where his condition is regarded as critical.

It was found that the aged man is suffering from two fractured ribs on the right side and a severe injury to his head. Dr. J. Frank Dinnen was called immediately after the accident and he had the injured man taken to the hospital.

Reports from the hospital Monday were that the aged man's condition was extremely serious and that there was but slight hopes for his recovery.

TELLS HOW PANICS ARE NOW AVERTED

Former Congressman Bowdle, Cousin of Allen Hamilton, in Address.

Allen Hamilton, Wayne township trustee, has received a clipping from a Cincinnati paper through his aunt, Mrs. M. S. Kerby, of San Diego, Cal., in which the speech of Stanley Bowdle, former congressman, a cousin of Mr. Hamilton, dealing with democratic legislation, is set out. Congressman Bowdle both defeated and was beaten by Nicholas Longsworth for congress from Ohio.

The clipping says: "Former Congressman Bowdle, who is a favorite with democratic audiences, interspersed his remarks with witticisms and biting sarcasm, which provoked frequent laughter. Among other things, Mr. Bowdle said:

"'For thirty years the republican party issued rosy promises of relief from panics, but in those years we had just six, and not a legislative line of relief. The democratic party in the first year of its administration went straight at that question and enacted a bill that cured this evil.

"'For fifty years the republican party issued rosy promises to rehabilitate our merchant marine. But not a line of legislation did they write to perform their promise; meanwhile our overseas merchant marine dwindled to just four ships. You see that England, having the greatest merchant marine in the world, has not wanted other nations to compete with her, and operating through her potent pecuniary channels, has managed the republican party pretty well in keeping us from having a merchant marine. But the democratic party is about to give this nation a merchant marine, to be owned and operated by your Uncle Sam. Fifty millions have been appropriated as a starter for this purpose.

"'The republican party now proposes to discharge the captain and navigators, and put Hughes and Roosevelt aboard. This is a perilous project. With Hughes as president and Roosevelt as secretary of war or state, the outlook for our further voyage would be gloomy indeed. Our ship of state could get no insurance with these navigators aboard.

"'Let the citizen interested in peace contemplate Hughes and Roosevelt in power at Washington. And why should not Mr. Roosevelt be secretary of war? In warlike tones he approves of Hughes and Hughes accepts the approval; and both guarantee to change the policies which have brought peace.

"'Roosevelt accuses Mr. Wilson of being a "man of words." If his words have brought peace, then blessed be those words, and long may he live who penned them.'"

SAYS WE BECOME CRANKS ON HOT WATER DRINKING

Hopes Every Man and Woman Adopts This Splendid Morning Habit.

Why is man and woman, half the time feeling nervous, despondent, worried; some days headachy, dull and unstrung; some days really incapacitated by illness.

If we all would practice the drinking of phosphated hot water before breakfast, what a gratifying change would take place. Instead of thousands of half-sick, anaemic-looking souls with pasty, muddy complexions we should see crowds of happy, healthy, rosy-cheeked people everywhere. The reason is that the human system does not rid itself each day of all the waste which it accumulates under our present mode of living. For every ounce of food and drink taken into the system nearly an ounce of waste material must be carried out, else it ferments and forms ptomaine-like poisons in the bowels which are absorbed into the blood.

Just as necessary as it is to clean the ashes from the furnace each day, before the fire will burn bright and hot, so we must each morning clear the inside organs of the previous day's accumulation of indigestible waste and body toxins. Men and women, whether sick or well, are advised to drink each morning, before breakfast, a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it, as a harmless means of washing out of the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels the indigestible material, waste, sour bile and toxins; thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach.

Millions of people who had their turn at constipation, bilious attacks, acid stomach, nervous days and sleepless nights have become real cranks about the morning inside-bath. A quarter pound of limestone phosphate will not cost much at the drug store, but is sufficient to demonstrate to anyone, its cleansing, sweetening and freshening effect upon the system.—Advertisement.

Fifteen Years and Six Months Ahead—

Fifteen Years and six months from today Melville Clark's basic patents on the Apollo Player expire—then—any manufacturer can give you the same features in his instrument.

But today the Apollo is fifteen years and six months ahead of the player piano industry. Until Melville Clark's patents become invalid, the Solo-Apollo is and will be the only instrument of its kind in the world that accents the theme or melody of a composition that enables you to instantly omit the melody notes, playing only the accompaniment and play that accompaniment in any of eight different keys!

When we say, "The Solo-Apollo is the only player piano in the world that does this", we mean it. We are prepared to prove our statements and if you'll send your name, we'll forward a simple and positive method by which you can, without even visiting a music store, verify absolutely and conclusively the above statements.

The Apollo contains the Metronome Motor—built like and as noiseless and accurately adjusted as the finest watch. This motor rewinds the music roll without pedaling.

The Apollo Player Piano produces music by exactly the same method as a human being—directly down on the keys. No other player piano can have these features—no instrument can give true music without them. Let us have your name and we'll let you have the reasons.

Cause of Constipation.

Constipation results from a lack of moisture in the residual matter of the food. To effect a permanent cure more water must be taken into the system. Drink a full glass of water half an hour before breakfast and about the third of a glass an hour and a half after each meal, also eat an apple or banana before breakfast and before going to bed. Make sure that your bowels move just after breakfast whether there is an inclination or not. When a medicine is needed take Chamberlain's Tablets as they are mild and gentle in effect, but no medicine should be taken when operations can be induced naturally each day. To effect a permanent cure time and patience are required as bad habits are more easily formed than broken up. Obtainable everywhere.—Advertisement.

BOBBY JONES IN THE HOSPITAL

Veteran Engineer and Councilman Suffers from Blood Poisoning.

Robert Johns, retired Nickel Plate engineer and representative of the Fifth ward in the municipal council, was taken to St. Joseph's hospital this afternoon, dangerously ill from blood poisoning. Mr. Johns had been sick for some weeks and recently returned from the sanitarium at Mt. Clemens. His present condition arose from an insignificant scratch on one of his legs a week ago. Mr. Johns worked on the Nickel Plate over a quarter of a century and is one of the best known railway men of the city. He is about seventy-five years old.

FIRE CAUSES $2,500 DAMAGE.

Destroyed Oil Storage Plant and Some of the Contents.

Master Mechanic E. E. Griest, of the Pennsylvania, estimates the loss from the oil house fire at the round house Sunday night at upwards of $2,000. An inventory of the stock made this morning showed the destruction of thirty-seven barrels of oil, 2,000 pounds of waste and some other materials, which were worth $800, and the loss to the building, of which a part was totally destroyed, is placed at $1,200 to $1,500. Mr. Griest is unable to give the origin of the fire, but at the round house it is believed to have started from a spark lodging in a piece of oily waste in the basement of the building. The part burned was the frame and corrugated steel addition to the brick building, just east of the office building at the round house, which is used as a store and distributing house for oil used in the plant and by locomotives. The east end of the brick building, in the basement of which was stored several thousand gallons of oil, was gutted, but not destroyed, and the contents were damaged only by water, which can be withdrawn, leaving the contents unharmed. The fire broke out at 10 o'clock Sunday night and prompt action on the part of the city fire department and the Pennsylvania volunteer firemen prevented a blaze that might have cost many thousands of dollars. The work of fighting the fire was handicapped in the start by two box cars, which stood on a track south of the burning building and which were also damaged by the flames. A switch engine removed these cars and give the firemen a chance to play upon the flames, which they quickly subdued. At 6:30 Monday, before the debris had time to cool off, men began work tearing it away and getting ready to rebuild the burned portion and repair the other parts of the building. In the meantime temporary means for handling the oil and waste have been inangurated and no serious inconvenience will be experienced. P. J. Bopp is the foreman in charge of the oil and can house and soon was master of the situation.

HAD FIGHT WITH WILDCAT.

Pennsylvania Shopman Romy Has Unpleasant Experience.

C. D Romy, of the Pennsylvania planing mills, who took a week's leave of absence to hunt in Michigan, has notified the foreman at the shops that he will not be able to resume work for awhile. The cause is told in a letter from Mrs. Romy, who is in Michigan with her husband. Last Friday while out hunting, Mr. Romy had a terrific fight with a wildcat The feline attacked the dog and was getting the best of it. Not being able to shoot the cat for fear of hurting the dog, Mr. Romy threw down his gun and entered the fray with a knife. Then the cat left the dog and paid particular attention to the man and before he killed the animal it scratched his face and hands frightfully. After he killed the cat finally and will have it dressed by a taxidermist and mounted as a reminder of the fight. "He is a sight to behold," Mrs. Romy said in her letter, referring to the appearance of her husband after the encounter.

TO USE NEW BUILDING.

It was decided Saturday to have the next meeting of the Electro-Technic club in the third story of building 26, one of the new additions on Wall street. The floor in this story is constructed of maple and is excellent for dancing purposes, which will form part of the amusements of the evening. The lecture on that occasion will be delivered by W. S. Goll, a commercial engineer, whose subject will be "Rock Drills," of especial interest to members of the club because the manufacture of machinery for rock drilling is one of the new industries at the plant. This meeting will take place on Tuesday evening, November 21. The December meeting, which will be on the night of the 14th, will also be held in building 26, as the new structure is known at the shops. It will consist of short talks by the local officers of the General Electric company. The January, February and March meeting will, it is thought, be held at the Moose hall and they will have some very attractive features. It is the purpose of the club management to make this season's series of entertainments better than any that preceded it. The membership is larger than ever before and is growing each week. Saturday there were 320 names on the roll.

BIG BUSINESS IN OCTOBER.

Every local freight agent of the city says the business of his station for October will exceed the business of any previous October from 15 to 25 per cent. Some of the agents put the percentage of increase higher. Each warehouse has experienced a lot of trouble in getting help. Laborers were scarce and unreliable, many of them taking a job just for a day or two to make a stake to carry them to another town. The condition is gradually becoming less serious, however, laborers realizing that winter is coming upon them and it has the result of making them stick to an inside job, rather than take chances of having to work out doors when the weather is cold and stormy.

MAKING HEADLIGHT TESTS.

Exhaustive headlight tests are in progress on some of the eastern divisions of the Pennsylvania, to determine which is the best light and which fills the requirements of the new federal law most thoroughly. These tests may be extended over a period of several weeks. Fort Wayne men who are participating in them are Assistant Road Foreman of Engines O. E. Maxwell, Engineers W. K. Wilder, Daniel Boisyard, H. F. Harper and C. B. Brower, the two last named being freight and the two first named passenger engineers. At present the tests are being carried on in New York, but they will probably shift to other districts.

RETURNS FROM VACATION.

D. C. Zook, master carpenter of the Pennsylvania Western division, resumed the active duties of that office this morning, after an absence of two or three weeks. He first went to the annual convention of the American Bridge and Building association at New Orleans. Then with other delegates he visited the greatest lumber mills in the world at Bazaluza, where 1,000,000 feet of lumber is made every day. This was one of the "side issues" of the convention. Then Mr. Zook went to Chattanooga, Cumberland, Md., Cincinnati and Altoona, coming directly home from the latter place. Mrs. Zook accompanied her husband on the trip.

RAILWAY HEADS GO NORTH.

J. J. Turner and G. L. Peck, vice-presidents of the G. R. & I. company, also of the Pennsylvania, passed through the city this morning en route to Grand Rapids to look after some special business for the G. R. & I. They came here in their special cars on train No. 25 and left on a special train for the north a short time afterwards. General Manager W. B. Wood met them here and with Trainmaster R. W. Casey and Road Foreman of Engines A. L. Lopshire, accompanied them to Grand Rapids, the train consisting of engine, the private cars of Mr. Turner, Mr. Peck and Mr. Wood and a coach.

VETERAN SHOPMAN VERY SICK.

BROTHER VERY SICK.

General Foreman E. B. Hughes, of the Pennsylvania roundhouse, returned from Indianapolis last night, where he went a week ago on account of the serious illness of his brother, Attorney S. A. Hughes, of Terre Haute, who is a patient in a hospital in Indianapolis. During the week's stay at the hospital Mr. Hughes was unable to see his brother on account of his serious condition.

COAL SITUATION BETTER.

The fuel situation on the railways running in and out of Fort Wayne is said to be less serious today than Saturday, though there is not an overabundance of coal on any of the roads. The situation is such as to keep the management of the roads and the factories of the city on the anxious seat, there being danger of the supply being greatly reduced or entirely cut off at any hour.

MR. SHEELER ON THE JOB.

K. L. Sheeler, Pennsylvania claim agent, and his bride, have returned from a wedding trip to Colorado and other western points, and he appeared at his office for business this morning for the first time since the wedding day, October 4. Mr. and Mrs. Sheeler now occupy a handhome house in Columbia City, just finished.

TRAIN STRIKES BREAD WAGON.

As the horse attached to the bread wagon of John Milner, of Gary, attempted to cross one of the streets in that city ahead of eastbound train No 48, Saturday, the engine struck the wagon and smashed it into smithereens. The horse, which was a runaway, and had no driver, was unharmed.

TO CALIFORNIA TO LIVE.

George W. Youngker, the paperhanger and decorator, is en route to Los Angeles, Cal., with his family, where they will reside in the future. They shipped their household effects last week. Mr. Youngkher spent several months in California two years ago.

QUITS THE MACHINE SHOP.

John Strawbridge, machinist at the Bass shops, has retired from that work and taken employment as a salesman with the National Mills Supply company. Mr. Strawbridge was sick about two months, but has recovered and is now able to vigorously apply himself to business.

GONE TO BROTHER'S BEDSIDE.

A message Saturday brought to D. Goodall, a gang foreman at the Pennsylvania boiler shop, the news that his brother in Akron was sick with no prospect of recovery. Mr. Goodallleft immediately for that city and is still there.

SWITCHMAN SLIGHTLY HURT.

Thomas W. Huguenard, a Pennsylvania switchman, received a bump on the head Saturday which dazed him for awhile and caused him to take a lay off. A gash was cut in his head, but it is not serious.

FOUNDER OF ORPHANS' HOME LECTURES HERE

Dr. G. C. Cromer Fills the Pulpit at the Bible Training School.

Dr. G. C. Cromer, founder of the Louisville All-Prayer Foundlings' home of Louisville, Ky., filled the pulpit at the Bible Training school Sunday, giving two excellent addresses. In his morning address he portrayed very beautifully the simplicity, the wondrous workings and the great rewards of faith. He related a number of remarkable answers to prayers of faith in providing for the needs of their great work in the home.

In the evening he spoke of the great importance of saving a little child. He said that when a person saves a child he does a greater work for God than when he saves an aged person, for in saving an older person you save a soul only, while in saving a child you save a soul plus a life.

NORWEGIAN PRESS IS GROWING VERY BITTER

Shows Increasing Resentment for German Submarine Warfare.

Christiania, Oct. 10 (Correspondence of The Associated Press).—Never before during the war has the Norwegian press so unanimously expressed the resentment aroused in Norway by the last steps in the German submarine warfare. The Orebladet calls it piracy and says it is the general opinion that German war against mercantile ships is directed especially against Norway, adding: "It is a fact that this continual torpedoing of Norwegian ships deprives Germany of friends in Norway."

The Tidens Tegn says bitterness has been provoked everywhere in Norway by the destroying of Norwegian property and lives of Norwegian sailors in the Arctic ocean and urged the government to do something to protect property and lives.

The Verdens Gang asserts Germany has substituted for international law and old recognized ethical principles the principle of power as the basis of its warfare, recognizing no other standard of morals than what its own interests dictate.

The Shipping and Mercantile Gazette says that just before the new submarine warfare was inaugurated agents of the German government appeared in its editorial office and threatened the paper and the country because of alleged unfriendly feelings toward Germany.

Public opinion in Norway at present is greatly excited and the popular feeling toward Germany is far from friendly. Ship owners have decided not to permit their vessels to sail to Russian ports in the Arctic and the war insurance company will take no risks on ships or cargoes with such destination.

The German submarine warfare thus far has cost Norway 171 ships with a total tonnage of 235,000 and the lives of 140 Norwegian sailors.

Noted Tenor Unable to Appear Before Big Chicago Audience.

Chicago, Oct. 30. A capacity audience gathered at the Auditorium theater yesterday to hear John McCormack sing. The concert was scheduled to start at 2:30 o'clock. Ten minutes before this time Charles L. Wagner, Mr. McCormack's business manager, appeared on the stage and informed the expectant assembly that because of an acute inflammation of the throat the famous tenor would be unable to appear and that money paid for tickets would be refunded at the box office. More than $6,000 was paid out.

When Mr. McCormack was sought out at the Blackstone hotel later for more detailed information Manager Wagner said:

"Mr. McCormack is indisposed and can see no one. The king of England could not see him."

Mr. Wagner produced a note signed by Dr. O. M. Steffenson stating the singer is suffering from an acute inflammation of the larynx.

"He contracted a slight cold in the Cincinnati Music hall Tuesday night," the manager said. "In spite of this fact he sang at Nashville Friday night and was determined to sing in Chicago until forbidden to do so by the doctor. It was not until the last minute that he gave up hope."

SAYS GREAT WAR WILL WIPE OUT THE FRENCH

Their Great Tenacity of No Avail, Declares von Hindenberg.

Berlin, Oct. 30.—Field Marshal von Hindenberg, German chief of staff, is quoted by the Overseas news agency as follows:

"The French show great tenacity, but they are exterminating lives by their method of fighting. All their tenacity will be of no avail, for in the end there will be none of them left. This fate of the French nation is owing, above all else, to the British. If the British ask next spring for one more offensive campaign they will rob France of the remainder of her army and her national strength.

"This war will make no great change in the estimate of British military accomplishments. Great strategists, in particular, are lacking among the British.

"The Transylvania situation is excellent. The Rumanians are in retreat and the day of reckoning is coming. I welcome their entrance into the war with joy. By means of it we got out of trench warfare."

When you want a pleasant laxative try Chamberlain's Tablets. They are mild and gentle and produce no griping or other unpleasant effect. Obtainable everywhere.—Advertisement.

A voting machine with the coliseum ticket and the political tickets placed exactly as they will be on election day stands just inside the south entrance to the courthouse. Many voters are visiting this machine and learning just how to vote. However, there need be no fear of making a mistake if the foregoing instructions are observed.

John Slater, superintendent of the forge shop of the Bass Foundry & Machine company, speaking of his observations, says: "I hope that Fort Wayne will build a larger auditorium than Canton, O. They thought they were building large enough, but now the place is entirely too small. The best convention hall I have seen is that in Denver. It is a splendid building—just the kind Fort Wayne should have."

Another Fort Wayne man who is enthusiastic over the Denver coliseum is E. J. Gallmeyer, with S. F. Bowser & Co., who says: "While I was living in Denver, it was one of my greatest delights to take advantage of the opportunities offered through the medium of the Denver auditorium."

Modern Woodmen Endorse.

Fort Wayne camp, Modern Woodmen of America, has given unanimous indorsement to the convention hall project. Otto A. Snyder is the executive officer and Charles King secretary.

Degree of Honor Wants It.

Mrs. Sadie Skelton, Mrs. Frances Ford, Mrs. Ella Conons and Mrs. Mollie Sunderland, officers of Allen lodge, Degree of Honor, have signed resolutions passed by the order. The following comment is appended: "We deem it a necessity to have a building in our city large enough to hold our conventions and all other conventions and large gatherings."

CARD OF THANKS.

In this way we desire to thank our friends for devotion while administering the last rites to our beloved daughter and sister, Helen. To the singers and our immediate neighbors our deepest gratitude; to Mr. Clifford our most sincere reverence.

PAUL AND MR. AND MRS. WINEBRENNER.

LOCAL MARKETS ARE QUIET AND FEATURELSS

Wheat Holds Steady With No Change in Prices Quoted.

Fort Wayne markets Monday were very quiet and featureless with no changes in any of the quoted prices of Saturday and receipts far below the average. The city scales, which is usually a busy place on fair days, had an exceptionally dull day.

The wheat market, which was predicted to show some strength, remained quiet and there was no intimation even given that the life would be restored before the close of today's markets. Millers state, however, that the market is tricky at this stage of the game and that the prices may be boosted when least expected.

The corn market is strong and dealers predict a dollar a bushel for the grain. Oats is also very strong and prices may go up. The hay market seems to be overstocked and consequently the price is being kept down as low as possible.

The live stock market promises to take on more strength soon and prices are expected to be boosted, partially, on account of the high price of corn.

Eggs are still at the same level. Poultry prices remain unchanged. Butter prices are headed upward.

CHICAGO GRAIN AND PROVISIONS.

Chicago, Oct. 30.—Drought advices from Argentina showing increased damage had a bullish effect today on wheat. Besides, world's shipments were below requirements. Profit-taking by holders here caused only a transient setback in prices. The opening, which ranged from ¼c off to 1⅝c up, with December at $1.89¾@1.90½ and May at $1.86¼@1.87, was followed by a material sag, but then a decided upturn all-around.

The close was unsettled at $1.90¼@1.90⅝ for December and $1.87 for May, with the market as a whole ⅛c down to 1¾c up as compared with Saturday's finish.

Enlarged receipts made the corn market relatively weak. After opening at ½c down to ⅝c advance, all quotations eased off, but later rallied to above Saturday's finish.

The close was weak at 1¾c to 2⅛c under Saturday's latest figures.

Oats displayed independent firmness.

ENGAGED COUPLE SAVES THROUGH BABY BONDS

A young man had begun to shower his fiancee with the usual theatre parties, bouquets, boxes of candy, etc., when the young lady stopped him with this suggestion: When ever he expected to thus entertain her, he should instead turn over to her the money he expected to spend, and she would save it until it had amounted to $10 when they would buy a Baby Bond. The result will probably be that this couple will be able to make a neat down payment and purchase a home when they are ready to be married. Baby Bonds are an ideal investment for any savings fund. They come in $10 denominations, bear six per cent interest, are secured by first mortgages on local real estate. For further details regarding them see the Wildwood Sales company, Shoaff building.—Advertisement.

THE DAY ON WALL STREET.

New York, Oct. 30.—The trend was mainly higher on the resumption of trading today, copper, sugar, paper and shipping shares again leading the advance at gains of 1 to 2 points. United States Steel also rose a point and other strong and active features included Central Leather, Westinghouse, Lackawanna Steel, Republic Iron and Baldwin Locomotive. Among the prominent rails were Rock Island, Erie, Kansas City Southern and Union Pacific. There were minor recessions in Reading, Denver and Rio Grande preferred and Crucible Steel, with marked heaviness in the motor group.

Prices shaded in the first hour on selling caused by advices of another submarine incident in British waters involving possible international complications. Motors extended their initial losses and Industrial Alcohol was heavy with Bethlehem Steel common and preferred, those issues yielding 5 to 6 points. The movement was not especially effective elsewhere, however, metals, including zinc stocks, showing pronounced strength.

China made a new high at 63⅛ and Atlantic, Gulf and West Indies also exceeded all previous records at 107½. A more general reaction occurred at midday. Bonds were irregular on further offering of internationals.

¶ The Best of the Past is preserved in the Best of the Present in

RUGS & CARPETS

¶ Whether as nomadic tribes or the more staid dwellers in the cities of the plains, the peoples of the Orient developed to an unusual degree the arts of dyeing, of harmonizing figure and pigment and of weaving them into carpets. Today their achievements still form the master-pieces from which ambitious designers draw their inspiration. This is why so many excellent oriental patterns are found in the offerings of Bundhar Wilton.

¶ In the same spirit, those periods which marked the glory of France and England in the world of decorative art, have not been overlooked.

¶ Couple with the foregoing the fact that Hardwick & Magee Co., manufacturers of Bundhar, are world leaders in present day carpet designing and coloring, you may be assured that whatever your demand—there is an adequate and satisfying supply in Bundhar Wilton.

GIRL SEES DAYLIGHT AFTER NEARLY A YEAR

Youngstown, O., Oct. 30.—After being confined in the basement of an infirmary here for ten months, her eyesight practically gone, her body emaciated, her mind almost wrecked and dressed in male clothing, Miss Marie Higgins, 27 years old, escaped and told her story. The young woman had not seen daylight since Dec. 28, she said. Joe Serak, an inmate of the infirmary, is now under arrest following her revelations.

Miss Higgins went to the infirmary last December because of illness, and in a short time disappeared and it was supposed she had escaped. Nothing had been heard from her since.

While Serak was absent she groped about her small prison and finding a door ajar she slowly made her way to one of the corridors where she was discovered. She later told her story to Sheriff J. C. Umstead and County Detective John Kane. Serak, after being arrested, is said to have told the officers that the woman had been in the basement since December, but he declared she remained there of her own accord.

Serak, a cobbler, fitted up a little shop in the basement and occupied his time repairing shoes of the other inmates, and officials of the infirmary believed him to be busy at his trade. When she gained her freedom the girl was dressed in male attire given her, she said, by Serak. She said he had given her only scraps of food. County authorities began an investigation of Serak's alleged part in the affair and also conditions at the infirmary.

HANLY ENCOUNTERS HECKLERS IN EAST

Quits Speech to Step Down Into Crowd and Issue Warning.

Dover, Oct. 30.—Hecklers were active today in Newark, where the prohibition party made an early stop on the last lap of its campaign journey. J. Frank Hanly, the presidential nominee, was interrupted so frequently by one man that he abandoned his speech, stepped out into the crowd and warned him to be quiet or leave. The man left. He had taken offense at Hanly's declaration that Charles E. Hughes had no program or issue.

"You take this stand and tell us a single thing that Hughes stands for, if you can," Hanly shouted.

"I don't have to do it, but you are all wrong," the man responded.

Another man who appeared to be intoxicated, interrupted Ira Landrith, the vice presidential nominee. Landrith urged the crowd to take one look at the man and then vote dry.

Today's itinerary included stops at Newark, Madison, Morristown, Dover, Hackettstown, Washington and Phillipsburg, N. J., and Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Reading, Pottstown, Norristown and Philadelphia, Pa.

UNIFORM LANDSCAPING FOR HARRISON HILL

The landscaping effect surrounding the three homes which are planned for the first block south of Rudisill boulevard will be one that will add much to the beauty of Harrison Hill the charming new addition located in the angle formed by Rudisill boulevard and Calhoun street. The entire grading as well as all the trees and shrubbery for this whole block will be so arranged as to secure the best general effect instead of being planned for each individual home. One firm of landscapers are to have charge of the designing of the whole block, and it promises to be one of the show residential squares of the city. Details regarding this and the scores of other features which are being planned for the improvement of Harrison Hill may be obtained from Hilgemann & Schaaf, North American building.—Advertisement.

Charleston, W. Va., Oct. 30.—J. W. Dawson has written to Chairman Joseph H. Gaines, of the republican state committee, asking that his name as a Hughes elector-at-large be withdrawn from the republican ticket. Dawson is a coal operator and one of the best known men in the state. His action has caused a tremendous sensation throughout the state.

His letter follows:

"I have been a great admirer of Judge Hughes since the insurance investigation in New York. I was for him originally when Mr. Taft was nominated and elected, and at that time hoped to some day see Judge Hughes president of this country. But I was at Chicago during the republican convention in June; I have been a student of public questions since that time; I have read Mr. Hughes' public addresses with a great deal of anxiety; I do not find in them any good reason why we should change administrations at Washington at this critical period.

"I do not find in Mr. Hughes' addresses that candor and directness of assertions which I had expected of him. When questions are put to him on matters vital to the United States he qualifies his replies with evasions and fails to meet the issues squarely, as a powerful lawyer usually does when he is convinced that he is on the wrong side of the case in court and that his client is not entitled to a favorable verdict, all of which is disappointing to me.

"And when summing up the entire situation I am convinced that a vote for Judge Hughes would, in fact, be assisting to turn over the United States and the destinies of these 100,000,000 people to the corrupt Old Guard, dominated, controlled absolutely by such men as Barnes, Penrose, Crane and Smoot, and I will never be a party to such treachery to our country.

"That crowd, I believe, if Judge Hughes became president, would dominate and control the destinies of this country solely in the interests of what is popularly called 'the invisible government,' which knows no political party, no loyalty to country, recognizes the right of no private citizen and whose only objects are to enrich and place power in the hands of a favored few."
